The Political Economy of Apparel Exporting Industrial Parks in Ethiopia Mohammed Seid Ali,2024-07-14 This book discusses the maxim of industrialization with a human face or social upgrading which currently dominates the academic and actual policy discourses particularly in late comer economies of the Global South such as Ethiopia To understand industrialization with social upgrading in the current context of economic globalization characterized by the Global Value Chain GVC the book adopts the Human Rights HR perspective to labour relations and employs the Corporate Social Responsibility CSR approach to analyze the labour compliance of apparel exporting firms and their respective global brand buyers operating in Ethiopia's industrial parks. The findings reveal that Ethiopia's post 2005 state led industrialization development path which has firmly embraced strong business-state alliances has curbed the power of labour. Further, global brands' flawed CSR and poor purchasing practices have contributed to the ongoing labour abuses in the country's industrial parks. If the government does not consciously respond to the race to the bottom, the cold current of economic globalization that dominates the global apparel value chain, local industrial workers in Ethiopian industrial parks will continue to face dismal working conditions.

Ethiopia Boy Chris Beckett, 2013-02-28. Chris Beckett grew up in 1960s Ethiopia, a country he describes as a barefoot empire, home of black maned lions, old priests decked out like butterflies, and blazing young singers of Ethio jazz. Ethiopia Boy plunges the reader into praise poems that sing and boast and glory in the colours and textures of this extraordinary country. Here is a world of feasting on spicy kikwot and of famine sucking the water from rivers of lion buses and a prayer child where Earth sings greetings to the feet that walk on her. Haunted by the memory of his friend Abebe, the cook's son, Beckett celebrates and laments a lost boyhood in poems of vivid immediacy.

Teferra Haile-Selassie, 2013-12-19 First published in 1997 Ethiopia the only country in Africa to survive the nineteenth century European scramble for the continent has a long unique and complex history This stretches back over three million years to Lucy or as the Ethiopians call her Dinkeneshe the earliest known ancestor of the human race to the political turmoil of late twentieth century Africa Teferra Haile Selassie writes partly as a historian but also and perhaps more importantly as a sincere and sensitive observer who lived through the later historical events which he describes and indeed played a notable role in several of them ILRI Project Work Plans 1997 International Livestock Research Institute, Globalization and Urbanization James H. Spencer, 2014-06-26 During the past decade the world reached the point of becoming more urban than not as the majority of people on the planet now live not in small towns or villages but in provincial national and global cities Scholars have long been fascinated by so called global cities world cities and the urban engines of the global economy James H Spencer argues however that such an emphasis misses the central fact that urbanization goes well beyond the usual suspects of New York Tokyo London and Shanghai The author charts urbanization across the Global South and North resulting in what he describes as a planetary global urban ecosystem This concept that challenges us to realize that in daily life their similar physical and social ecosystems that make cities more understandable to each other than to their own rural hinterlands Spencer's vivid case studies of Addis Ababa Ho Chi Minh City Honolulu and New York draw out the commonalities of our intertwined built and social environments and how they express a shared humanity across continents and cultures Adulis, 1984
