Hearing the New Testament Joel B. Green, 1995 Exciting approaches to biblical interpretation are introduced in this volume by contributors who are distinguished as leaders in the field of New Testament studies Each chapter introduces a particular approach to interpretation and demonstrates with biblical texts how that approach can be used by students and pastors

Studies on the Text of the New Testament and Early Christianity Daniel Gurtner, Juan Hernández, Jr., Paul Foster, 2015-09-29 The collection of essays focuses on the twin areas of research undertaken by Prof Michael W Holmes These are the sub disciplines of textual criticism and the study of the Apostolic Fathers The first part of the volume on textual criticism focuses on issues of method the praxis of editing and collating texts and discussions pertaining to individual variants The second part of the volume assembles essays on the Apostolic Fathers There is a particular focus on the person and writings of Polycarp since this is the area of research where Prof Holmes has worked most intensively

The Freer Biblical Manuscripts Larry W. Hurtado, 2006 The six biblical manuscripts that reside in the Freer Gallery of Art in Washington DC are historically significant artifacts for tracing the early history of the transmission of the writings that make up the New Testament and the Septuagint The manuscripts all purchased in Egypt at the beginning of the twentieth century by Charles Freer date to the third through fifth centuries and include codices of the four Gospels Deuteronomy and Joshua the Psalms and the Pauline Epistles as well as a Coptic codex of the Psalms and a papyrus codex of the Minor Prophets which until the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls was the earliest Greek manuscript of the Minor Prophets known The ten essays in this volume are a notable collection of fresh scholarship with long term value for the study of what is a small but highly valuable treasure trove of biblical manuscripts The contributors are Malcolm Choat Kent D Clarke Kristin De Troyer Timothy J Finney Dennis Haugh Larry W Hurtado J Bruce Prior Jean Francois Racine James R Royse Ulrich Schmid and Thomas A Wayment Book jacket

Conversation Scott Thornbury, Diana Slade, 2006-10-26 This book provides a comprehensive account of conversation in English and its implications for the ELT classroom After a general overview and definition of conversation it provides the reader with a systematic description of conversational English from the vocabulary of conversation to grammar discourse and genre This is followed by an informed account of the development of conversation in both first and second language acquisition It then describes a range of methodological approaches procedures and techniques for teaching conversation in English On this basis an integrated approach to the teaching of conversation is provided along with practical classroom applications

Current Trends in the Development and Teaching of the four Language Skills Esther Usó-Juan, Alicia Martínez-Flor, 2008-08-22 Current Trends in the Development and Teaching of the four Language Skills builds connections from theory in the four language skills to instructional practices It comprises twenty one chapters that are grouped in five sections The first section includes an introductory chapter which presents a communicative competence framework developed by the editors in order to highlight the key role the four skills play in language learning and teaching The next four sections each represent a language skill Section II is devoted to listening Section III to speaking Section IV to reading and Section V to writing In order to provide an extensive treatment of each of the four skills each section starts with a theoretical chapter which briefly illustrates advances in the understanding of how each skill is likely to be learned and taught followed by four didactically oriented chapters authored by leading international specialists These pedagogical chapters deal specifically with four key topics 1 areas of research that influence the teaching of a particular skill 2 an overview of strategies or techniques necessary for developing a particular skill 3 an approach to the academic orientation of a particular skill and 4 unique aspects of teaching each skill Moreover all chapters incorporate two common sections pre reading questions at the beginning of the chapter in order to stimulate readers interest in its content and a section entitled suggested activities at the end of the chapter in order to allow readers put the ideas and concepts presented into practice The accessible style and practical focus of the volume make it an ideal tool for teachers teacher trainers and teacher trainees who are involved in teaching the four language skills in a second or foreign language context
