Diversity Crime And Justice In Canada:

Diversity, Crime, and Justice in Canada Barbara Jean Perry, 2018 In Diversity Crime and Justice in Canada hate crime specialist Barbara Perry brings together 17 of the country's leading scholars to address issues of inequality as they intersect with crime and social justice. Students will discover how collective identities not just of race, class and gender but of religion, ability, sexuality, age play a crucial part in determining the nature of an individual's encounter with the criminal justice system. Integrating themes of history and context, power and powerlessness and social and political action throughout the text examines the concept of difference, the specific issues that different groups face with respect to the justice system and the kinds of reform necessary to mitigate inequalities. Thoroughly updated throughout, the second edition includes new pedagogical features that immerse students in the practicalities of criminal and social justice. The Making a Difference activity at the end of each chapter encourages students to create social change and the new Case Study boxes explore a range of current and historical cases. The addition of a striking new visual program ensures that the second edition of Diversity Crime and Justice in Canada will be an invaluable resource for any course that examines social inequality in relation to the Canadian criminal justice system. ### Racialization, Crime, and Criminal Justice in Canada

Wendy Chan, Dorothy Chunn, 2014-04-29 Race still matters in Canada and in the context of crime and criminal justice it matters a lot. In this book the authors focus on the ways in which racial minority groups are criminalized as well as the ways in which the Canadian criminal justice system is racialized. Employing an intersectional analysis, Chan and Chunn explore how the connection between race and crime is further affected by class, gender and other social relations. The text covers not only conventional topics such as policing, sentencing and the media but also neglected areas such as the criminalization of immigration, poverty and mental illness.

The Oxford Handbook of Ethnicity, Crime, and Immigration

Sandra M. Bucerius, Michael H. Tonry, 2014 This title provides comprehensive analyses of current knowledge about the unwarranted disparities in dealings with the criminal justice system faced by some disadvantaged minority groups in all developed countries.

Stop and Search Leanne Weber, Ben Bowling, 2014-06-11 Police powers to stop, question and search people in public places and the way these powers are exercised is a contentious aspect of police-community relations and a key issue for criminological and policing scholarship and for public debate about liberty and security more generally. Whilst monitoring and controlling minority populations has always been a feature of police work, new fears, new suspect populations and new powers intended to control them have arisen in the face of instability associated with rapid global change. This book synthesises and extends knowledge about stop and search practices across a range of jurisdictions and contexts. It explores the use of stop and search powers in relation to street crime, terrorism and unauthorised migration in Britain, North America, Europe, Australia, Africa and Asia. The book covers little researched practices such as road blocks and ID checking and discusses issues such as fairness, effectiveness, equity and racial profiling. It provides a substantive and theoretical foundation for transnational and comparative research on police powers in a global context This book was originally published as a special issue of Policing and Society      Police and State Crime in the Americas Daniel Gascón, Sebastián Sclofsky, Xavier Perez, Jhon Sanabria, Analicia Mejia Mesinas, 2024-02-24 This book advances a much needed postcolonial framework in analyzing the police It seeks to deepen our understanding of the police role in maintaining Western global domination throughout the American region despite the violent end of colonial rule Building on Chevigny's 1995 classic study this book seeks to draw renewed attention to the role of police in perpetrating state violence and serving as the tip of the spear of state power It seeks to understand the construction of marginality and the multiple and intersecting structures of colonial domination before shining a light directly on the crimes of the state in an attempt to hold criminal state organizations to account It draws on interdisciplinary perspectives and methodologies that center marginalized and colonized experiences and allows for the development of countercolonial knowledge It speaks to academics and students in criminology sociology political science and law as well as to ethnic and area studies programs such as Chicano Latino and Latin American Studies and to police administrators and policymakers      Policing Black Lives Robyn Maynard, 2025-08-22 This revised and expanded edition of Robyn Maynard's bestselling Policing Black Lives offers a comprehensive account of policing Black life in Canada Maynard documents how a half a century of police reforms have expanded the scope and scale of policing and perpetuated anti Black violence Offering a compelling vision for making policing obsolete in the wake of global Black uprisings in 2020 this essential text will guide and inspire activists students scholars and all those working toward Black futures beyond surveillance and confinement      Pursuing Justice, 2nd Edition Margot Hurlbert, 2020-07-25T00:00:00Z Pursuing justice is daunting It plays out in a variety of contexts like the environment employment the criminal justice system and raises tough issues like racism gender discrimination and poverty But ultimately the aim of studying justice is to achieve it This book is about justice in Canada its definition its boundaries its contradictions and its nuances It is also about the mechanisms and practices that enable the pursuit of justice It problematizes the notion of justice while defining and pursuing the illusive notion of justice in Canadian society This second edition features updated content from the popular first edition as well as new content about social justice and racism the experiences of racialized persons with police settler colonialism and issues of justice for gender and sexual minorities all from a Canadian perspective Additionally each chapter contains objectives of the chapter case studies and discussion questions      Violence against Women of African Descent Anita Kalunta-Crumpton, 2019-10-11 Africa as a continent which holds strong to its patriarchal cultural principles and practices is known for its blatant display of violent abuse of women including state sanctioned violence and its lax approach to national legislative policies and international treaties against violence against women Using data from Africa the Americas Australia and Europe this edited collection showcases a variety of experiences and perspectives in the international comparative study of violence against women of African ancestry This approach provides the context for examining the problem of violence against women including its policy and practice responses if any as it impacts women of African origin in different parts of the world This book is of value to those interested in African studies criminology gender studies sociology and many more

Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Shaun Gabbidon, 2020-09-24 Race Ethnicity Crime and Justice An International Dilemma Second Edition takes a unique comparative approach to the exploration of race and ethnicity related justice issues in five countries around the world Using the colonial model as a theoretical lens Owusu Bempah and Gabbidon analyse data from Great Britain the United States Canada Australia and South Africa These international case studies help students contextualize race and justice issues within and across nations Concise historical framing illuminates today's racial dynamics in these diverse justice systems and accessible theory grounds the comparison of crime and justice data from the early 21st century with current statistics A new concluding chapter revisits the question of where these nations fit in the global context of state and non state actors and of ethnic and racial justice issues This new edition is suitable for use as a core or supplemental text for advanced undergraduates and early graduate courses on race and crime minorities and criminal justice diversity in criminal justice and comparative justice systems It is also appropriate for use in sociology and ethnic studies courses that focus on race and crime

Forever Loved: Exposing the hidden Crisis of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls in Canada Lavell Memee.D Harvard,2016-05-01 The hidden crisis of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls in Canada is both a national tragedy and a national shame In this ground breaking new volume as part of their larger efforts to draw attention to the shockingly high rates of violence against our sisters Jennifer Brant and D Memee Lavell Harvard have pulled together a variety of voices from the academic realms to the grassroots and front lines to speak on what has been identified by both the Inter American Commission on Human Rights and the United Nations as a grave violation of the basic human rights of Aboriginal women and girls Linking colonial practices with genocide through their exploration of the current statistics root causes and structural components of the issue including conversations on policing media and education the contributing authors illustrate the resilience strength courage and spirit of Indigenous women and girls as they struggle to survive in a society shaped by racism and sexism patriarchy and misogyny This book was created to honour our missing sisters their families their lives and their stories with the hope that it will offer lessons to non Indigenous allies and supporters so that we can all work together towards a nation that supports and promotes the safety and well being of all First Nation M tis and Inuit women and girls

Immigrant Integration Kenise Murphy Kilbride,2014-05-05 Examining the issues and challenges facing immigrants as they attempt to integrate successfully into Canadian society Immigrant Integration is a multidisciplinary compendium of research papers most of which were presented at the 14th National Metropolis Conference held in Toronto in 2012 This book addresses the growing economic and educational inequality among immigrants and racialized populations in Canada and seeks to guard against further inequities The authors address policy issues newcomers health and well being cultural challenges and resilience in immigrant communities Each chapter concludes with a clear set of policy recommendations indicating how those in government and the broader public private and non profit sectors can help newcomers integrate as well as welcome them as significantly contributing members of Canadian society Thorough and relevant this book includes the research of academics policy makers and experts from a wide range of disciplines including sociology immigration and settlement public policy social work and geography With a sense of urgency these essays illustrate the existing and developing strains that Canadian public policy has created and will continue to create unless built upon the evidence current research has produced

Trafficking Harms Katrin Roots,Ann De Shalit,Emily van der Meulen,2024-05-16T00:00:00Z Amid the proliferating scholarship and often sensational public campaigns Trafficking Harms offers fresh insights and critical analyses The collection s four thematic areas Discourses and Representations Law and Prosecutions Policing and Surveillance Migrant Labour Exploitation examine an array of issues including the contested definitions of human trafficking the application of trafficking law and policy the conflation of sex work and trafficking the impacts of anti trafficking frameworks on racialized communities questions around victims and traffickers and much more

Showcasing a mix of scholarly research public advocacy and first person narratives this book is the first of its kind in Canada The authors include a diverse group of academics legal advocates frontline activists who work with migrant and sex working communities individuals who have been charged and or convicted of trafficking offences and those who are directly impacted by trafficking law and policing such as domestic and migrant sex workers Racism and Anti-Racism in Canada David

Este,2020-07-10T00:00:00Z Multiculturalism is regarded as a key feature of Canada s national identity Yet despite an increasingly diverse population racialized Canadians are systematically excluded from full participation in society through personal and structural forms of racism and discrimination Race and Anti Racism in Canada provides readers with a critical examination of how racism permeates Canadian society and articulates the complex ways to bring about equity and inclusion both individual and systemically The Routledge International Handbook of Islamophobia Irene Zempi,Imran

Awan,2019-02-11 Islamophobic hate crimes have increased significantly following the terrorist attacks of 9 11 and 7 7 More recently the rhetoric surrounding Trump s election and presidency Brexit the rise of far right groups and ISIS inspired terrorist attacks worldwide have promoted a climate where Islamophobia and anti Muslim sentiments have become legitimised The Routledge International Handbook of Islamophobia provides a comprehensive single volume collection of key readings in Islamophobia Consisting of 32 chapters accessibly written by scholars policy makers and practitioners it seeks to examine the nature extent implications of and responses to Islamophobic hate crime both nationally and internationally This volume will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Criminology Victimology Sociology Social Policy Religious Studies Law and related Social Sciences subjects It will also appeal to scholars policy makers and practitioners working in and around the areas of Islamophobic hate crimes

Re-Imagining the Other M. Eid,K. Karim,2014-07-24 The twenty first century exploded into the global imagination with unforgettable scenes of death and destruction An apocalyptic clash of civilizations seemed to be waged between two old foes the West and Islam However the decade long and ruinous war on terror has prompted re assessments of the militaristic approach to Western Muslim relations A growing number of academics policymakers religious leaders journalists and activists view the struggles as resulting from a clash of ignorance Re imagining the Other examines the ways in which knowledge is manipulated by dominant Western and Muslim discourses Authors from several disciplines study how the two societies have constructed images of each other in historical and contemporary times The complexities and subtleties of their mutually productive relationship are overshadowed by portrayals of unrelenting clash thus serving as encouragement for the promotion of war and terrorism The book proposes specific approaches to re imagine the Other in order to mitigate Western Muslim conflict Higher Education Internationalization and English Language Instruction Xiangying Huo,2020-11-07 This book offers new understanding of the implications of pluralism and of transnational movements to higher education and the construct of a native speaker within contemporary globalization processes Theoretically it calls for a revisioned English as an International Language EIL pedagogy and a wider acceptance of EIL and of World Englishes It challenges the postsecondary education sector to change the discourse around language proficiency to one that engages the pluralism of English As for the applied significance the book contributes to the work on neo racism which means racism goes beyond color to stereotypic foreign cultures nationalities and exotic accents based on cultural distinctions instead of merely skin differences The book contributes to higher education policy and practice pushing a revisioning of ESL in conceptual and pedagogical ways such as designing more culturally oriented curriculum implementing culturally responsive pedagogy and valuing the teaching proficiency more than the language proficiency White Space Daniel J. Keyes, Luis L.M. Aguiar, 2021-12-15 Much attention has been paid to race in the Canadian metropolis but how are the workings of whiteness manifested in the rural urban White Space analyzes the dominance of whiteness in the Okanagan Valley of British Columbia to expose how this racial notion sustains forms of settler privilege today Contributors to this perceptive collection critique the cultural economics of whiteness and white supremacy The first half documents the historical construction of whiteness how settlers and their ancestors have sought to exalt pioneers by erasing non whites from the region s heritage while Indigenous people resist this white out The second half explores the persistence of whiteness as an organizing principle in the neoliberal deindustrialized present White Space moves beyond appraising whiteness as if it were a solid and unshakable category Instead it offers a powerful demonstration of how the concept can be re envisioned resisted and reshaped in contexts of economic change

Cruel but Not Unusual Ramona Alaggia, Cathy Vine, 2013-05-21 Violence in families and intimate relationships affects a significant proportion of the population from very young children to the elderly with far reaching and often devastating consequences Cruel but Not Unusual draws on the expertise of scholars and practitioners to present readers with the latest research and thinking about the history conditions and impact of violence in these contexts For this new edition chapters have been updated to reflect changes in data and legislation New chapters include an examination of trauma from a neurobiological perspective a critical analysis of the gender symmetry debate a debate that questions the gendered nature of intimate violence and an essay on the history and evolution of the women s movement dedicated to addressing violence against women which advances theoretical developments that remind readers of the breadth of inclusivity that should be at the heart of working in this field
