Coaching in the Classroom Linda L. Hopper Ph.D., 2024-08-18 Coaching has become mainstream in today's society You can hire a coach for sports training sorting out your finances making career decisions or in relationships Why then don't we have more coaching in education Linda Hopper took her 20 years of experience in business and coaching into the classroom to figure out how any teacher desiring more empowerment for students and teachers could become a teacher coach Knowing that teachers have precious little time Linda shares how she used Lesson Bites mini lessons in as little as 20 to 50 minutes a week to coach middle and high school students integrating principles of positive psychology and social emotional learning With a change in focus teacher coaches empower students with the mindsets tools and strategies to design a more meaningful life of well being bringing more relevance to learning in the classroom Despite being outdated the education system today still uses a one size fits all approach to learning that expects all students learn the same way and then evaluates progress only through standardized testing The good news is that teachers have the power to mitigate this obsolete method Through coaching educators can help students and themselves design lives that bring more joy a creative use of abilities and strengths and greater freedom from stress Linda Hopper PhD relies on over three decades of experience in business education coaching and as a parent to share insights into how the empowerment method of coaching fits into education and why teachers need to coach emotions first followed by information about the three key areas of personal development for students lesson bites from her toolbox and other resources that help educators coach students to attain better well being Through her guidance teachers will learn how to shift their perspective and empower students with the mindsets tools and strategies to create a life of purpose and meaning while bringing more relevance to learning in the classroom In this practical guide an experienced educator coach and parent offers ways to bring a greater awareness of well being into the classroom through coaching that benefits both teachers and students Yoga Journal ,2000-09 For more than 30 years Yoga Journal has been helping readers achieve the balance and well being they seek in their everyday lives With every issue Yoga Journal strives to inform and empower readers to make lifestyle choices that are healthy for their bodies and minds We are dedicated to providing in depth thoughtful editorial on topics such as yoga food nutrition fitness wellness travel and fashion and beauty
