Davies,2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam s Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing s capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice

Body, Space, and Place in Collective and Collaborative Drawing Helen Gørrill,Jill Journeaux,Sara Reed,2020-01-15 Building on the success of the first volume in this series of research on collective and collaborative drawing this book s key themes are linked through the concepts of body space and place The location of the body in art has always been central but the exploration of it here in relation to place and space uncovers a wide range of exciting and different contexts relationships and materials Space is examined through the practice and theorisation of drawing through the ongoing artistic practices of the authors and the writings of Berger and Derrida in relation to making viewing and understanding the drawing process Place is examined through unique approaches to considering drawing through multiple consecutive and site specific places through place as a changing and temporal site and through the idea of the non place The contributors in this volume include academics artists dancers researchers designers and architects from across the globe Teaching the Arts David Roy,William Baker,Amy Hamilton,2019-07-02 Foregrounds the importance of arts education to children s development and learning Art Scents Larry Shiner,2020-02-11 Although the arts of incense and perfume making are among the oldest of human cultural practices it is only in the last two decades that the use of odors in the creation of art has begun to attract attention under the rubrics of olfactory art or scent art Contemporary olfactory art ranges from gallery and museum installations and the use of scents in music film and drama to the ambient scenting of stores and the use of scents in cuisine All these practices raise aesthetic and ethical issues but there is a long standing philosophical tradition most notably articulated in the work of Kant and Hegel which argues that the sense of smell lacks the cognitive capacity to be a vehicle for either serious art or reflective aesthetic experience This neglect and denigration of the aesthetic potential of smell was further reinforced by Darwin s and Freud s views of the human sense of smell as a near useless evolutionary vestige Smell has thus been widely neglected within the philosophy of art Larry Shiner s wide ranging book counters this tendency aiming to reinvigorate an interest in smell as an aesthetic experience He begins by countering the classic arguments against the aesthetic potential of smell with both philosophical arguments and evidence from neuroscience psychology anthropology history linguistics and literature He then draws on this empirical evidence to explore the range of aesthetic issues that arise in each of the major areas of the olfactory arts whether those issues arise from the use of scents with theater and music sculpture and installation architecture and urban design or avant garde cuisine Shiner gives special attention to the art status of perfumes and to the ethical issues that arise from scenting the body the ambient scenting of buildings and the use of scents in fast food Shiner s book provides both philosophers and other academic readers with not only a comprehensive overview of the aesthetic issues raised by the emergence of the olfactory arts but also shows the way forward for further studies of the aesthetics of smell Ibsen and the Greeks Norman Rhodes,1995 Was Ibsen influenced by Greek culture Were allusions to the Greeks configured in the Norwegian playwright s works According to author Norman Rhodes whether consciously or unconsciously many of Ibsen s plays are encoded with veiled references to ancient Greek culture Rhodes also postulates that Ibsen s perception of the importance of the Greeks was most likely mediated to him through German Romanticism and Scandinavian culture According to Rhodes numerous echoes of Greek literature resonate in such early Ibsen plays as Catiline The Warrior s Barrow Olaf Liljerkrans and Love s Comedy Ibsen s Brand and Peer Gynt are a dialectic pair which in key ways are suggestive of Homer s Iliad and Odyssey A Doll House has important parallels with Sophocles Antigone and An Enemy of the People correlates with both Plato s Apology and Sophocles Oedipus Tyrannos Moreover a Euripidean sense of fatal irrationality seems inscribed in Ibsen s final plays the protagonists John Rosmer Hedda Gabler Master Builder Solness John Gabriel Borkman and the

Fractured Scenes Damien Charrieras, François Mouillot, 2021-03-29 Fractured Scenes is the first extensive academic account of music and sound art practices that fall outside of the scope of mainstream music in Hong Kong It combines academic essays with original interviews conducted with prominent Hong Kong underground independent musicians and sound artists as well as first hand accounts by key local scene actors in order to survey genres such as experimental noise music deconstructed electronic music indie pop punk garage rock sound art and DIY computer music among others It examines these Hong Kong underground music practices in relief with specific case studies in Mainland China and Japan to begin re defining the notion of a musical underground in the context of contemporary Hong Kong The Routledge Companion to Visual Organization Emma Bell, Samantha Warren, Jonathan E. Schroeder, 2014-01-23 The visual constitutes an increasingly significant element of contemporary organization as post industrial societies move towards economies founded on creative and knowledge intensive industries The visual has thereby entered into almost every aspect of corporate strategy operations and communication reconfiguring basic notions of management practice and introducing new challenges in the study of organizations This volume provides a comprehensive insight into the ways in which organizations and their members visualize their identities and practices and how they are viewed by those who are external to organizations including researchers With contributions from leading academics across the world The Routledge Companion to Visual Organization is a valuable reference source for students and academics interested in disciplines such as film studies entrepreneurship marketing sociology and most importantly organizational behaviour Movement, Time, Technology, and Art Christina Chau, 2017-06-12 This book explores the ways in which artists use technology to create different perceptions of time in art in order to reflect on contemporary relationships to technology By considering the links between technology movement and contemporary art the book explores changing relationship between temporality in art art history media art theory modernity contemporary art and digital art This book challenges the dominant view that kinetic art is an antiquated artistic experiment and considers the changing perception of kinetic art by focusing on exhibitions and institutions that have recently challenged the notion of kinetic art as a marginalised and forgotten artistic experiment with mechanical media This is achieved by deconstructing Frank Popper's argument that kinetic art is a precursor to subsequent explorations in the intersections between art science and technology Rather than pandering to the prevailing art historical assumption that kinetic sculpture is merely a precursor to art in a digital culture the book proposes that perhaps kineticism succeeded too well where movement has become a ubiquitous element of the aesthetic of contemporary art If as Boris Groys has recently suggested installation has become the dominant mode of art in the contemporary age then movement in real time with the viewer is used to aestheticise and explore the facets of our peculiar time When Luxury Meets Art Olga Louisa Kastner, 2013-12-05 Increasingly luxury brands join forces with the arts today Yet these cross over collaborations do not constitute a homogeneous strategy but become manifest in manifold forms and appearances Regardless of their growing practical relevance for the creation of contemporary luxury brands though the varied forms of Luxury Brand Art Collaborations LBACs have remained largely unexplored to date Olga Louisa Kastner aims at systematizing the dominating collaborative patterns between luxury brands and the arts She empirically derives distinct types of LBACs based on methodically developed attributes and a large number of real cases Finally the author describes the main characteristics of the identified types and illustrates them by prototypical cases
