Community Development Practice in Africa Charles Gyan,Linda Kreitzer,Somnoma Valerie Ouedraogo,2024-08-01 This project seeks to enhance both the theoretical and practical understanding of community development by adopting an African perspective Recognizing that the majority of community development literature utilized in African academic settings predominantly focuses on practices from the Global North this edited volume addresses a critical gap It develops compiles and promotes scholarship that is transnational yet reflective of the unique realities present within the African context This edited volume expands the global discourse on community development by delving into the particular forms it takes within African settings It will explore how local practices influence existing theories and models of community development and examine the integration of these theories into practical applications within African communities The motivating goal of this

edited book is to provide a space to examine the specific contextual factors that impact the history theory and practice of community development in Africa Community development should reflect the local context in which it is practiced The contributions included in this edited book will provide a valuable resource for professors researchers and practitioners presenting a range of historically culturally and socially situated critical perspectives In summary this collection seeks to highlight African context specific literature in the field of community development Community Work: Theories, Experiences and Challenges Kalpana Goel,Venkat Pulla,Abraham P. Francis,2014-10-01 This book revisits community development especially questioning the meaning of the term community in the changing global and international context The nature and dynamics of what constitutes community are changing to suit the needs of people living in a technologically advanced nature of life Communities that were based on face to face interactions sense of belonging and we feelings are being replaced or overtaken by virtual communities What is seen is that face to face human interaction is being minimized by technologically advanced ways of communicating such as Facebook Twitter Skype and various other such mechanisms that have traversed physical boundaries and made human interaction possible This new development has also been instrumental in generating new ideologies new ways of working with people and addressing human causes The book delivers practical advice and shares strategies that are based on the real life experience of working with communities across the nations It gives breadth and depth of knowledge on community development theory practice principles values and illustrates implications for practice based on research and practice experiences that has wider applicability All the chapters discuss the community development approach method as a strategy to bring about change in the society Following a preliminary discussion by Kalpana Goel of the meanings of community and community development all the chapters discuss the community development approach method as a strategy to bring about change in the society Intercultural Learning Peter Jones,Debra Miles,Narayan Gopalkrishnan,2019-05-09 The ability to recognise and understand your own cultural context is a prerequisite to understanding and interacting with people from different cultural backgrounds An intercultural learning approach encourages us to develop an understanding of culture and cultural difference through reflecting on our own context and experience Evaluation in Small Development Non-Profits Leanne M. Kelly,2020-10-30 Research on evaluation shows that low use and non use of evaluation is common yet evaluation is hailed as beneficial and worthwhile The worth of evaluation is tied to its utilisation presenting a paradox if evaluation is both revered and underutilised This book investigates this paradox in the under researched context of small development non profit organisations which have specific resource constraints and bottom up community development values that complicate their ability to do and use evaluation in line with top down directives The book examines the utility meaningfulness and purpose of evaluation from small non profit perspectives and explores whether evaluation has value for these organisations For development practice it presents evaluative alternatives that reconceptualise evaluation as part of the active process of development rather than as an interval based add on For evaluation theory it highlights a historical preoccupation with improving evaluation without assessing its inherent worth and considers alternative ways to enhance the value of evaluation for small non profits Building Strong Communities Ifzal Ahmad,M.
