X. Lee, 2018-10-12 For student research this reference highlights the importance of Asian Americans in U S history the impact of specific individuals and this ethnic group as a whole across time documenting evolving policies issues and feelings concerning this particular American population Asian American History Day by Day A Reference Guide to Events provides a uniquely interesting way to learn about events in Asian American history that span several hundred years and the contributions of Asian Americans to U S culture in that time The book is organized in the form of a calendar with each day of the year corresponding with an entry about an important event person or innovation that span several hundred years of Asian American history and references to books and websites that can provide more information about that event Readers will also have access to primary source document excerpts that accompany the daily entries and serve as additional resources that help bring history to life With this guide in hand teachers will be able to more easily incorporate Asian American history into their classes and students will find the book an easy to use guide to the Asian American past and an ideal jumping off point for more targeted research Not Without Us: Perspectives on Disability and Inclusion in Singapore Kuansong Victor Zhuang, Meng Ee Wong, Dan Goodley, 2023-01-01 Disability is all around us among people we meet the media sports our own family and friends Undeniably all of us have or will one day come to experience or encounter disability But how can we reckon with the realities of those who live with disability or its reality in our own lives In a city state slowly moving towards inclusion how do those meant to be included feel about such efforts Not Without Us perspectives on disability and inclusion in Singapore is a groundbreaking collection of essays that takes a creative and critical disability studies approach to centre disability and rethink the ways in which we research analyse think and know about disability in our lives Across multiple domains and perspectives the writings in this volume consider what it means to live with disability in a purportedly inclusive and accessible Singapore This is a pathbreaking book Not Without Us weaves together a rich fabric of voices exploring the politics and poetics of disability in Singapore Moving between lived reality representation and struggles for social transformation the collection excavates hidden or forgotten pasts documents struggles and community formation in the present and hints at possible futures The essay collection challenges contemporary discourses of and scholarship on disability in Singapore by centring disabled subjectivities In the process it opens up new spaces of empathy praxis and critique Philip Holden Independent Scholar and Counsellor It warms my heart to see another book on disability through the Asian lens Not just any book or author but a plethora of contributors who are leaders in the Singaporean disability scene The tapestry of all the essays inspires the imagination to how we can truly create a place that all of us can call home Inclusion isn't just keeping the token seat available or inviting someone disabled to the party but truly paving the way forward for all of us to celebrate each other as individuals in all our different shapes sizes and colours Thank you Not Without Us for so eloquently celebrating Nothing about us without us Cassandra Chiu Psychotherapist Social Advocate and Author of A Place For Us Not Without Us is a richly edited and profoundly written collection of essays about disability in Singapore It is part of a new and fresh movement to provide local knowledges and global perspectives to a field that has been for too long grounded in the West particularly the US and the UK The book will be extremely valuable not only to readers in Singapore but also to those throughout the world who seek a broader perspective on significant issues in disability studies arts policy and activism Lennard J Davis Distinguished Professor College of Liberal Arts and Sciences University of Illinois in Chicago Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Strategies Masudul Biswas, Dorothy Bland, 2023-11-13 Exploring DEI initiatives and practices at U S college and university journalism and mass communication JMC programs this book puts forward ideas and strategies for ensuring diversity equity and inclusion in a great variety of academic units Building on multicultural education research this book advances a diversity education framework that entails that works with a program's culture students faculty staff curriculum and teaching in the context of JMC programs The book reflects on the increase in DEI programming following the racial injustice protests of 2020 as well as the politically motivated restrictions some US states are implementing against DEI initiatives With the wisdom of experienced professors and program directors as well as industry professionals the book explores the ultimate efficacy of diversity education and offers practical recommendations for developing and implementing a DEI plan While the insights in this book are gathered from JMC programs they offer pertinent recommendations and calls to action for related academic programs in liberal arts and professional studies The Handbook of Mass Media Ethics Lee Wilkins, Clifford G. Christians, 2008-09-17 This Handbook encapsulates the intellectual history of mass media ethics over the past twenty five years Chapters serve as a summary of existing research and thinking in the field as well as setting agenda items for future research Key features include up to date and comprehensive coverage of media ethics one of the hottest topics in the media community one stop shopping for historical and current research in media ethics experienced top tier editors advisory board and contributors It will be an essential reference on media ethics theory and research for scholars graduate students and researchers in media mass communication and journalism Mass Media and American Politics Johanna Dunaway, Doris A. Graber, 2022-02-13 A comprehensive trusted core text on media's impact on attitudes behavior elections politics and policymaking Mass Media and American Politics is known for its readable introduction to the literature and theory of the field and for staying current with each new edition on issues of new and social media media ownership the regulatory environment infotainment and war time reporting Written by the late Doris Graber a scholar who has played an enormous role in establishing and shaping the field of mass media and American politics and now lead by Johanna Dunaway this book has set the standard for the course New to this edition Extensive coverage of political misinformation the role changing communication technologies and mass media more generally are playing in its consumption and dissemination as well as how the press is handling and should handle reporting on political misinformation especially as it pertains to the presidency elections and crises like Covid 19 Updated coverage of the role social media and other popular digital platforms are playing or not playing in the effort to stop the spread of mis and dis information on their platforms with special attention to both foreign and domestic efforts to use these platforms to incite violence cause confusion about and or encourage distrust in democratic institutions Expanded treatment of rising affective social and ideological polarization in politics with a special focus on whether and how mass media are contributing to these forms of polarization New updates on causes and consequences of expanding news deserts declining local news and rampant growth of hedge fund media ownership Up to date coverage of what researchers are learning about the implications of growth in digital social and mobile media use What does it mean for attention to news and politics

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

The Collocational Behavior of Anglicisms in German and American Business and News Magazines Julia Sosnizka, 2014-05-27 In her dissertation Julia Sosnizka deals with the question whether and to what extent the collocational behavior of written Anglicisms in German resembles the collocational behavior of these word forms in the source language American English The study is empirically based on the 2008 volumes of the business magazines BusinessWeek and WirtschaftsWoche and the news magazines Newsweek and Der Spiegel This selection allows also for statements about differences between the thematically specialized corpora and those that are closer to general language use In total the research corpora comprise over nine million words The study is inspired by the observation that Anglicisms are not only transferred as isolated word forms from English to German but that instead they may be borrowed along with their collocates The author provides a broad overview on collocations which is treated very differently in the literature In addition to the corpus linguistic approach she also discusses psycholinguistic and semantic models of collocations The understanding of collocations for the present study is based on the statistically significant co occurrence of lexical word forms The dissertation may be seen as a contribution to contrastive corpus linguistics collocation and genre research In ihrer Dissertation beschäftigt sich Julia Sosnizka mit der Frage ob und inwieweit das Kollokationsverhalten von geschriebenen Anglizismen im

Deutschen dem Kollokationsverhalten dieser Wortformen in der Ursprungssprache amerikanisches Englisch entspricht Als empirische Grundlage dienen die Jahrgänge 2008 der Nachrichtenmagazine Newsweek und Der Spiegel sowie der Wirtschaftsmagazine BusinessWeek und WirtschaftsWoche mit insgesamt über neun Millionen Wörtern Diese Auswahl ermöglicht gleichzeitig Aussagen über Unterschiede zwischen thematisch spezialisierten Korpora und solchen die näher an der Allgemeinsprache sind Die Arbeit ist inspiriert durch die Beobachtung dass nicht nur Wortformen aus dem Englischen ins Deutsche übernommen werden sondern auch deren Kollokate Die Autorin gibt in der Arbeit einen umfassenden Überblick zum Thema Kollokationen welches in der Literatur sehr unterschiedlich behandelt wird Neben dem korpuslinguistischen Ansatz erörtert sie auch psycholinguistische und semantische Erklärungsmodelle für Kollokationen Das Verständnis von Kollokationen für die vorliegende Arbeit beruht auf statistisch signifikanter Konkurrenz von lexikalischen Wortformen Die Dissertation ist somit als ein Beitrag zur kontrastiven Korpuslinguistik Kollokations und Genreforschung zu sehen

Mass Media, Mass Propaganda Anthony DiMaggio, 2008-04-28 Mass Media Mass Propaganda analyzes a wide range of issues domestic and international concerning American and global news coverage of the U S War on Terror Topics reviewed include media coverage of the invasion and occupation of Iraq the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction Iraqi civil war and resistance to occupation September 11th and Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan human rights violations in Iraq domestic anti war dissent and censorship and potential future targets in the War on Terror This work approaches the study of media through a political economy analysis examining the ways in which the American corporate media works to reinforce official views and propaganda and the ways in which it challenges official pro war platforms A comparative approach is taken in contrasting the American mass media with other media institutions from the Progressive Left American press the British and Australian press and Arab electronic media Major models analyzed and evaluated throughout this work include the Propaganda Model developed by Noam Chomsky and Edward Herman and the Indexing Model elaborated upon by scholars such as W Lance Bennett Steven Livingston and Jonathan Mermin
