Eberling,2017-10-23 This book examines China's bilateral relations with its established suppliers of crude petroleum and on occasion petroleum gas products including liquefied natural gas LNG based on a five dimensional framework political diplomatic relations economic trade relations military security relations cultural relations and petroleum energy relations A five dimensional approach is comprehensive in nature and offers a complete understanding of China's complex relationships rather than looking solely on more typical perspectives like bilateral trade security relationships or energy ties More often than not social science literature focuses on one or more aspects of China's bilateral relations which does not provide a complete picture of the complex nature of its interstate ties This book endeavors to bridge this gap and look more substantially at China's bilateral relationships with energy petroleum relations being the key aspect linking each one of them The specific bilateral relationships examined are China's relations with Angola Brazil Republic of the Congo Iran Iraq Kazakhstan Kuwait Oman Russia Saudi Arabia South Sudan Sudan United Arab Emirates and Venezuela These countries matter because their crude petroleum and petroleum gas product exports

Committee on Government Reform, 1999 Doing Business in China Morgen Witzel, 2016-12-19 China has changed dramatically since the first edition of Doing Business in China was published in 2000 but the second third and now this fourth edition have kept pace with the rapid developments China is now far more international but the fundamental business culture has not altered greatly The new edition of this highly successful textbook offers Western and non Chinese businesspeople a theoretical framework for the understanding of business practices markets negotiations organizations networks and the Chinese business context Building on the strengths of the previous editions the book provides a guide to market entry managing operations and marketing in this unique social and cultural environment by including Factors that lead to business success 14 new or revised case studies including include windfarms fine wines and new consultancy businesses Discussion of marketing issues notably products pricing distribution advertising and promotion Dos and don'ts when choosing business partners and negotiating Guides to further resources in local cultures to help businesses tailor their strategies to local conditions Offering a fresh look at the evolving marketplaces and their interactions with government and the army the fourth edition of Doing Business in China will continue to be the preferred text for international students of Chinese business and management studies and for practitioners with an eye on China Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2000 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 China's Economic Future, 1997 This is the latest Joint Economic Committee volume on the Chinese economy With the current state of US China relations and Hong Kong's accession in 1997 the study should provide policy makers in the USA with a useful tool in guiding economic policy toward China Doing Business in the New China Birgit Zinzius, 2004-08-30 China's economy despite recently weathered challenges continues to prove attractive to foreign investors expanding businesses and entrepreneurs seeking global opportunities This handbook has been written for anyone with an interest in doing business in China including the consultants and specialists who work with global companies but it is far more than an introduction to the Chinese market Combining a deep knowledge of Chinese culture with her recent experience and continuing work with managers who do business in this sleeping economic superpower the author brings out the nuances in everything she writes about e.g the distinctions among Chinese in income target market and geographic region She demonstrates how Western notions of market segmentation for example may be fatally flawed when applied indiscriminately to the same demographically selected categories of Chinese consumers Investing in China is not some get rich quick scheme Only those who take the time to fully and thoroughly understand the Chinese market and how that market is likely to interact with their products or services will demonstrate the patience necessary to achieve success
