Understanding New Media Kim H. Veltman, 2006 This book outlines the development currently underway in the technology of new media and looks further to examine the unforeseen effects of this phenomenon on our culture, our philosophies and our spiritual outlook. News in a New Century Jerry Lanson, Barbara Croll Fought, 1999-01-14 For use as the primary text in public affairs reporting or second level reporting courses in news or broadcast programs. It may also be used for introductory news writing courses where an emphasis on reporting and writing across the media is desired. The text is an authentic breakthrough in teaching reporting skills to print and broadcast students. It expands traditional news coverage and beats putting less emphasis on institutions and more on the people affected by them. The authors address important issues of sensitivity in covering an increasingly diverse community. They also integrate law and/or ethics into each chapter rather than relegating them to the end of the book. Media Studies: Media history, media and society Pieter Jacobus Fourie, 2007 While examining exactly who owns the media and who produces the media, this text manages to encompass the systematic critical and analytical media in all its forms and concludes that the media is one of the most important generators and disseminators of meaning in contemporary society. Investigating the power relationships between the media and politics, culture, economy, society and above all democracy, this resource is well suited for anyone with an interest in the modern role of media in society.

Professionalism in journalism in the era of new media Jacek Sobczak, Jędrzej Skrzypczak, 2015-12-31

The term professionalization arouses controversies in academic discussion let alone the issue of professionalization of journalism. Journalism considerably departs from the ideal model of professionalization. There is no structured knowledge that directly applies to journalists although we can talk about defined skills and the practical principles of the journalist's profession. Considering the process of the professionalization of journalism we can indicate three significant determinants namely professional autonomy, separate professional standards, self regulation principles and serving the public interest. However it is particularly important to ask about the condition of the journalist's profession nowadays. The ongoing technological revolution on the one hand and the political and legal transformations accompanied by market trends such as the tabloidization of the media so called infotainment first and foremost and citizen journalism on the other have all generated great doubts about the status of journalists. This calls for a redefinition of the professional position and role of journalists in modern societies. All these transformations may pose a serious threat to the model of traditional journalism and the social and professional position of journalists The book introduced here consists of four parts presenting various aspects of professionalization of journalism The first part treats of diverse topics concerning the essence of this issue as well as the legal status of journalists profession The second part features texts devoted to the issues of digital media Part three deals with the disturbing phenomenon of hate speech The main theme of the last part of the book concerns the issue of lobbying in the process of establishing intellectual property rights The texts presented here have been written by scholars in the fields of law media studies and political science on the one hand and practitioners journalists from several countries of Europe on the other The editors hope that the publication will contribute to the ongoing discussion concerning both the journalists and journalism status in the era of dynamic technological transformation    New Media and Politics Barrie Axford, Richard Huggins, 2001-01-26 Exploring the theme of the putative transformation of political modernity under the impact of new media this book adopts a questioning approach to the ways in which cultural and technological factors are affecting the temper of political life and reflects the variety of normative thinking about and empirical research on the changing character of politics in mediatized cultures New Media and Politics examines the extent to which commercial populism now dominates electoral and other political discourses the ways in which the functions of leadership government and political parties are modified by different forms of both old and new media the democratic or undemocratic import of such changes and the ways in which the dominant territorial paradigm of politics is challenged by the space and time devouring capacities of electronic media

eine mögliches Vorbildfunktion für andere Städte und Regionen ist von Interesse herauszufinden wo die besonderen Attraktivitätsmerkmale Hamburgs für Unternehmen aus dem Wirtschaftsbereich Multimedia liegen Vergleichbare Studien haben gezeigt dass für die Multimedia Wirtschaft nicht nur klassische harte Standortfaktoren wie Verkehrsanbindung oder Verfügbarkeit geeigneter Gewerbegebiete Einfluss auf die Wahl des Standortes haben sondern in hohem Maße auch weiche und ultraweiche Standortfaktoren wie die Qualifikation der regional verfügbaren Arbeitskräfte die Aufenthaltsqualität der betreffenden Stadt oder Region oder die Qualität der Beziehungen zwischen den Akteuren innerhalb der Region Weiterhin konnte nachgewiesen werden dass die Ansiedlung von Multimedia Firmen nicht den klassischen Standortmustern anderer Branchen wie dem verarbeitenden Gewerbe folgt wo klare Tendenzen zur Suburbanisierung auszumachen sind sondern eine deutlich höhere Orientierung hin zu städtischen Verdichtungsräumen speziell zu Kernstädten aufweist Dieses Muster einzelbetrieblicher und gesamtwirtschaftlicher Organisation kann durch
