Missing Kissinger Etgar Keret:

Missing Kissinger Etgar Keret, 2008 Featuring stories in which many of the characters are waiting for something to change their lives Missing Kissinger describes the search for ultimate happiness As is often the case the unexpected can and usually does occur

Missing Kissinger Etgar Keret, 2011-10-31 Etgar Keret's short stories are fierce funny full of energy and insight and at the same time they are often deep tragic and very moving Amos Oz At a children's tea party a magician tries to pull a rabbit out of a hat but takes out only its head a young man has a mother and girlfriend who each demand that he gives them the other one's heart while a Nobel Laureate asks an orphan to perform a very strange task In Etgar Keret's blackly comic stories the unexpected can and usually does happen They are clever quick sometimes violent and often intensely poignant They are in short brilliant

Etgar Keret's Literature and the Ethos of Coping with Holocaust Remembrance Yael Seliger, 2024-01-16 This book highlights the need for a shift from thinking in terms of memories of traumatic events to changeable modes of remembrance The call for a fundamental change in approaches to commemorative remembrance is exemplified in literature written by the internationally acclaimed writer Etgar Keret Considered the most influential Israeli voice of his generation Keret's storytelling is in congruence with postmodern thinking Through transferring remembrance of the Holocaust from stagnant Holocaust commemoration museums and commemorative ceremonies to unconventional settings such as youngsters playing soccer or being forced to venture outdoors in a COVID 19 pandemic environment Keret's storytelling ushers in a unique approach to coping with remembrance of historical catastrophes The book is a valuable resource for students and scholars interested in pursuing the subjects of Etgar Keret's artistry and literature written in a post modern post Holocaust milieu about personal and collective traumatic remembrance about the reading of signs where politics and history are now rearticulated through the private lives of individual subjects Here characters do not make social time but live within it and inquire after its missing origin Cohen Lustig argues for new ways to track the subjectivities and aesthetics produced by larger shifts in production In so doing he proposes a new model to understand the historical development of Israeli and Palestinian literature as well as world literature in our contemporary moment With a preface from Fredric Jameson

Signatures of Struggle Oded Nir, 2018-01-01 A Marxist history of Israeli literature tracing the relations between economic social and aesthetic transformations Signatures of Struggle offers a unique perspective on Israeli literature bringing Marxist cultural critique to bear on a field from which it has hitherto been absent Oded Nir moves beyond the dominant interpretive horizon of Israeli literary criticism the relation of literature to national ideology Rather than reproducing the usual narrative in which fiction resists the nation's goals Nir demonstrates how in each historical moment literary engagement with national ideology is a means to think through social tensions or contradictions internal to Israeli society to solve in imagination problems that threaten the social order Focusing on moments of transformation Nir argues that the 1950s crisis of realism was the result of the failure rather than the success of the collective transformative project of the halutzim the settler vanguard of Zionism In the 1980s the postmodern turn expressed a crisis of social imagination whose origin was the incorporation of Palestinians into the Israeli economy after the 1967 war Finally he shows that the ways in which history is imaginatively reworked in contemporary Israeli fiction can only be understood through the context of 1950s and 1980s literature Authors analyzed include Yigal Mossinsohn Nathan Shaham Hanoch Bartov Yehudit Hendel Orly Castel Bloom Yehudit Katzir David Grossman Yehoshua Kenaz and Batya Gur Nir's mastery of relevant studies on Hebrew literature is impressive as is his erudition when it comes to theoretical works His textual analyses are insightful and original The book makes a tremendous contribution to literary scholarship but it is also one of the most important contributions to the entire field of Israel studies in this century Eran Kaplan author of Beyond Post Zionism This is a well written brilliantly conceptualized project I have little doubt it will change the way Zionist historiography and the history of Hebrew literature will be discussed Nitzan Lebovic author of Zionism and Melancholy The Short Life of Israel Zarchi

Beyond Post-Zionism Eran Kaplan, 2015-02-01 Post Zionism emerged as an intellectual and cultural movement in the late 1980s when a growing number of people inside and outside academia felt that Zionism as a political ideology had outlived its usefulness The post Zionist critique attempted to expose the core tenets of Zionist ideology and the way this ideology was used to justify a series of violent or unjust actions by the Zionist movement making the ideology of Zionism obsolete In Beyond Post Zionism Eran Kaplan explores how this critique emerged from the important social and economic changes Israel had undergone in previous decades primarily the transition from collectivism to individualism and from socialism to the free market Kaplan looks critically at some of the key post Zionist arguments the orientalist and colonial nature of Zionism and analyzes the impact of post Zionist thought on various aspects literary cinematic of Israeli culture He also explores what might emerge after the political and social turmoil of the last decade as an alternative to post Zionism and as a definition of Israeli and Zionist political thought in the twenty first century Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science The Seven Good Years Etgar Keret,2015-06-16 A brilliant life affirming and hilarious memoir from a genius The New York Times and master storyteller With illustrations by Jason Polan The seven years between the birth of Etgar Keret s son and the death of his father were good years though still full of reasons to worry Lev is born in the midst of a terrorist attack Etgar s father gets cancer The threat of constant war looms over their home and permeates daily life What emerges from this dark reality is a series of sublimely absurd ruminations on everything from Etgar s three year old son s impending military service to the terrorist mind set behind Angry Birds There s Lev s insistence that he is a cat releasing him from any human responsibilities or rules Etgar s siblings all very different people who have chosen radically divergent paths in life come together after his father s shivah to experience the grief and love that tie a family together forever This wise witty memoir Etgar s first nonfiction book published in America and told in his inimitable style is full of wonder and life and love poignant insights and irrepressible humor Suddenly, a Knock on the Door Etgar Keret,2012-02-23 Etgar Keret is an ingenious and original master of the short story Radical witty and always unusual declared a genius by the New York Times Keret brings all of his prodigious talent to bear in this bestselling collection A man barges into a writer s house and holding a gun to his head demands that he tell him a story something to take him away from the real world A pathological liar discovers one day that all the lies he tells come true A young woman finds a zip in her boyfriend s mouth and when she opens it he unfolds to reveal a completely different man inside Suddenly a Knock on the Door is at once Keret s most mature and most playful work yet and establishes him as one of the great international writers of our time The Bus Driver Who Wanted to Be God & Other Stories Etgar Keret,2015-10-13 Classic warped and wonderful stories from a genius The New York Times and master storyteller Brief intense painfully funny and shockingly honest Etgar Keret s stories are snapshots that illuminate with intelligence and wit the hidden truths of life As with the best writers of fiction hilarity and anguish are the twin pillars of his work Keret covers a remarkable emotional and narrative terrain from a father s first lesson to his boy to a standoff between soldiers caught up in the Middle East conflict to a slice of life where nothing much happens New to Riverhead s list these wildly inventive uniquely humane stories are for fans of Etgar Keret s inimitable style and readers of transforming brilliant fiction Borders, Territories, and Ethics Adia

Mendelson-Maoz, 2018-08-15 Borders Territories and Ethics Hebrew Literature in the Shadow of the Intifada by Adia Mendelson Maoz presents a new perspective on the multifaceted relations between ideologies space and ethics manifested in contemporary Hebrew literature dealing with the Israeli Palestinian conflict and the occupation In this volume Mendelson Maoz analyzes Israeli prose written between 1987 and 2007 relating mainly to the first and second intifadas written by well known authors such as Yehoshua Grossman Matalon Castel Bloom Govrin Kravitz and Levy Mendelson Maoz raises critical questions regarding militarism humanism the nature of the State of Israel as a democracy national identity and its borders soldiers as moral individuals the nature of Zionist education the acknowledgment of the Other and the sovereignty of the subject She discusses these issues within two frameworks The first draws on theories of ethics in the humanist tradition and its critical extensions especially by Levinas The second applies theories of space and in particular deterritorialization as put forward by Deleuze and Guattari and their successors Overall this volume provides an innovative theoretical analysis of the collage of voices and artistic directions in contemporary Israeli prose written in times of political and cultural debate on the occupation and its intifadas

Postmodern Love in the Contemporary Jewish Imagination Efraim Sicher, 2022-03-17 Offering a radical critique of contemporary Israeli and diaspora fiction by major writers of the generation after Amos Oz and Philip Roth this book asks searching questions about identity formation in Jewish spaces in the twenty first century and posits global transnational identities instead of the bipolar Israel diaspora model The chapters put into conversation major authors such as Jonathan Safran Foer Nicole Krauss Michael Chabon and Nathan Englander with their Israeli counterparts Zeruya Shalev Eshkol Nevo and Etgar Keret and shows that they share common themes and concerns Read through a postmodern lens their preoccupation with failed marriage and failed ideals brings to the fore the crises of home nation historical destiny and collective memory in contemporary secular Jewish culture At times provocative at others iconoclastic this innovative study must be read by anyone concerned with Jewish culture and identity today whether scholars students or the general reader The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

One Last Story and That's it Etgar Keret, Miriam Shlesinger, 2005 The extraordinary collection has the kind of writing that could hook a lot of readers including some who rarely open a book

Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective Anna Ball, 2012 Palestinian Literature and Film in Postcolonial Feminist Perspective is the first sustained study of gender consciousness in the Palestinian creative imagination Drawing on concepts from postcolonial feminist theory Ball analyses a range of literary and filmic works by major creative practitioners including Michel Khleifi Liana Badr Annemarie Jacir Elia Suleiman Mona Hatoum and Suheir Hammad and reveals a hitherto unrecognized trajectory in gender consciousness under development in the Palestinian imagination from the start of the twentieth century The book explores how these works resonate with questions of power identity nation resistance and self representation in the Palestinian imagination more broadly and asks how these gender conscious narratives transform our understanding of Palestine's struggle for postcoloniality Working at the cusp of postcolonial feminist and cultural enquiry Ball seeks to open up vital new directions in the interdisciplinary study of Palestine
