Memoria De Elefante Antonio Lobo Antunes:

Memoria de elefante António Lobo Antunes, 2012-07-05 Memoria de elefante primera novela de António Lobo Antunes es el retrato de una crisis existencial. El protagonista, un psiquiatra residente en Lisboa, cuya verdadera vocación es la escritura, cuenta a través de una voz exuberante, facetas y capítulos de su vida haciendo hincapié en los aspectos más íntimos y comprometidos. A lo largo de un día y una noche, el héroe y narrador de esta historia pone de manifiesto la voluntad de escucharse a sí mismo y de este modo hallar definitivamente una identidad perdida. Tiempo atrás, Memoria de elefante anuncia la llegada de un autor que destaca por la originalidad en su forma de contar y lo que es, a nivel más destacable, un escritor que provoca en el lector una forma inslita de leer. La crítica ha dicho: Una novela que alcanza un nivel e intensidad admirables que se impone con una convicción en el análisis del alma humana que envidiarían Camus o Dostoiévski. Francisco Solano Babelia. El País. António Lobo Antunes es un privilegio inslito en el panorama de la literatura mundial. Sus libros son auténticos milagros que consiguen hacer auténtica poesía de las materias más comunes que logran contar lo que no es contable: atrapar la memoria como pequeñas pulsiones emocionales. Ignacio Echevarría. Memoria de elefante es un modelo perfecto de opera prima por su ambición y su deseo de lucimiento y, sobre todo, es un aviso del talento que llegar a después. Javier Aparicio. Maydeu. Letras Libres.

The Portrait of an Artist as a Pathographer: On Writing Illnesses and Illnesses in Writing Jayjit Sarkar, Jagannath Basu, 2021-05-09 Focusing on the various intersections between illness and literature across time and space, The Portrait of an Artist as a Pathographer seeks to understand how ontological, phenomenological, and epistemological experiences of illness have been dealt with and represented in literary writings and literary studies. In this volume, scholars from across the world have come together to understand how the pathological condition of being ill, the sufferers as well as the pathologists dealing with the ill, the healers and caregivers have shaped literary works. The language of medical science with its jargon and the language of the everyday with its emphasis on utility prove equally insufficient and futile in capturing the pain and suffering of illness. It is this insufficiency and futility that makes us turn towards the canonical works of Joseph Conrad, Samuel Beckett, William Carlos Williams, Virginia Woolf, Kazuo Ishiguro, Miroslav Holub, as well as the non-canonical António Lobo Antunes, Yumemakura, Baku Wopko, Jensma, and Vaslav Nijinsky. This volume helps in understanding and capturing the metalanguage of illness while presenting us with the tradition of writing pain. In an effort to expand the definition of pathography to include those who are on the other side of pain, the essays in this collection aim to portray the above-mentioned pathographers as artists turning the anxiety and suffering of illness into an art form. Looking deeply into such creative aspects of illness, this book also seeks to evoke the possibility of pathography as world literature. This book will be of particular interest to undergraduate, postgraduate, and research students as well as scholars of literature and medical humanities who are interested in the intersections between literary studies and medical science. Toward a Linguistic and Literary Revision of Cultural Paradigms Ettore Finazzi-Agrò, 2018-11-02 This book draws an updated Euro American conceptual map starting from a limited number of strategic terms whose meanings today are judged univocal and permanent while in fact daily use has turned them into common sense depriving them of their ambiguity an original feature of language particularly relevant when it comes to literary use By re-examining the proper noun for each of the selected notions the contributors common intent is to shed light on their polysemous nature and linguistic fluidity in spite of the common tendency towards simplification and homogeneity imposed by hegemonic cultural paradigms Along this line the book explores the great divides between identity and otherness or common or alien in order to recover a sense of cultural identity which is at once polymorphous and polyphonic By the Rivers of Babylon Antonio Lobo Antunes, Margaret Jull Costa, 2023-04-25 A profound and genre defying work of literature about love death and illness from one of Portugal's most celebrated writers Incapacitated after the removal of a malignant tumor the narrator Ant nio spends his days in a Lisbon hospital enduring the humiliations of severe illness As he drifts in and out of consciousness he revisits fragments of his life and the people who passed through it He recalls the village where he lived as a child near the Mondego River amid the eucalyptus and pines his parents and grandparents and their tight knit community of potato farmers and tungsten miners and the woman he loved an unexpected polyphony of voices and places sounding in sharp counterpoint to debilitating pain By the Rivers of Babylon conjures the past and the present all at once revealing the power of memory to embolden us in the face of

The Colonial Wars in Contemporary Portuguese Fiction Isabel Moutinho, 2008 The Portuguese fiction that awakened public debate on imperialism The colonial wars in Angola Mozambique and Guinea Bissau in the 1960s and 1970s were Portugal's Vietnam The novels discussed in this study written by António Lobo Antunes Lídia Jorge and Manuel Alegre among others aroused passionate responses from the reading public and initiated a national debate otherwise lacking in the contemporary press with their systematic deconstruction of the rhetoric of patriotism and colonialism of António Salazar's regime The author's approach is of necessity grounded in postcolonial thought as these works represent the awakening of a post imperial conscience in Portuguese literature and society ISABEL MOUTINHO is a Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese at La Trobe University Australia
