tens or perhaps hundreds of thousands of unsuspecting people deployed to some of the world's most dangerous places. Enduring years of Lariam induced nightmares, former soldier Andrew Marriott realised something was horribly wrong, not just with the drug itself but with the institutions responsible for its use and safety. So began a journey towards the truth, a truth that vested interests in the United Kingdom and around the globe were determined to conceal. In a unique exposé of an entirely preventable pharmaceutical disaster, Marriott turns a spotlight on the murky world of clandestine military and industrial research in the United States in which Lariam was developed. With other survivors, including some very courageous women, he undertakes a forensic examination of a scandal extending to the upper echelons of government and the armed forces. A culture of betrayal and dishonour had imperilled those defending our country to the most insidious and silent form of friendly fire.

Diverging Approaches of Political Islamic Thought in Iran since the 1960s Seyed Mohammad Lolaki, 2019-11-14. This book argues that Political Islam in the Iranian context evolved into three main schools of thought during the 1960s and 1970s: Jurisprudential Islam led by Ayatollah Khomeini, Leftist Islam led by Shariati, and Liberal Islam led by Bazargan. Despite the fact that all schools seek an Islamic state, their chosen methods and philosophical approaches diverge considerably. The synthesis of these three contrasting socio-political views is structured here to provide a coherent interpretation by means of ongoing comparison. This method has so far not been presented in academic studies within the field of Political Islam. Furthermore, this book provides a critical analysis of the aforementioned Political Islam schools in Iran, their similarities and differences, relative success or failure, their contribution to the revolution of 1979, and how they have evolved from the pre-revolution era to the present.
