J.

Larmour, 2016-01-04 In this first comprehensive reading of Juvenal's satires in more than fifty years David H J Larmour deftly revises and sharpens our understanding of the second century Roman writer who stands as the archetype for all later practitioners of the satirist's art The enduring attraction of Juvenal's satires is twofold they not only introduce the character of the angry satirist but also offer vivid descriptions of everyday life in Rome at the height of the Empire In Larmour's interpretation these two elements are inextricably linked The Arena of Satire presents the satirist as flaneur traversing the streets of Rome in search of its authentic core those distinctly Roman virtues that have disappeared amid the corruption of the age What the vengeful punishing satirist does to his victims as Larmour shows echoes what the Roman state did to outcasts and criminals in the arena of the Colosseum The fact that the arena was the most prominent building in the city and is mentioned frequently by Juvenal makes it an ideal lens through which to examine the spectacular and punishing characteristics of Roman satire And the fact that Juvenal undertakes his search for the uncorrupted authentic Rome within the very buildings and landmarks that make up the actual corrupt Rome of his day gives his sixteen satires their uniquely paradoxical and contradictory nature Larmour's exploration of the arena of satire guides us through Juvenal's search for the true Rome winding from one poem to the next He combines close readings of passages from individual satires with discussions of Juvenal's representation of Roman space and topography the nature of the arena experience and the network of connections among the satirist the gladiator and the editor or producer of Colosseum entertainments The Arena of Satire also offers a new definition of Juvenalian satire as a particular form arising from the intersection of the body and the urban landscape a form whose defining features survive in the works of several later satirists from Jonathan Swift and Evelyn Waugh to contemporary writers such as Russian novelist Victor Pelevin and Irish dramatist Martin McDonagh After the War Was Over Mark M. Mazower, 2016-09-29 This volume makes available some of the most exciting research currently underway into Greek society after Liberation Together its essays map a new social history of Greece in the 1940s and 1950s

a period in which the country grappled bloodily with foreign occupation and intense civil conflict Extending innovative historical approaches to Greece the contributors explore how war and civil war affected the family the law and the state They examine how people led their lives as communities and individuals at a time of political polarization in a country on the front line of the Cold War s division of Europe And they advance the ongoing reassessment of what happened in postwar Europe by including regional and village histories and by examining long running issues of nationalism and ethnicity Previously neglected subjects from children and women in the resistance and in prisons to the state use of pageantry yield fresh insights By focusing on episodes such as the problems of Jewish survivors in Salonika memories of the Bulgarian occupation of northern Greece and the controversial arrest of a war criminal these scholars begin to answer persistent questions about war and its repercussions How do people respond to repression How deep are ethnic divisions Which forms of power emerge under a weakened state When forced to choose will parents sacrifice family or ideology How do ordinary people surmount wartime grievances to live together In addition to the editor the contributors are Eleni Haidia Procopis Papastratis Polymeris Voglis Mando Dalianis Tassoula Vervenioti Riki van Boeschoten John Sakkas Lee Sarafis Stathis N Kalyvas Anastasia Karakasidou Bea Lefkowicz Xanthippi Kotzageorgi Zymari Tassos Hadjianastassiou and Susanne Sophia Spiliotis Flight ,1967-07 Swaziland, a Review of Commerce and Industry ,1988 Braby's Commercial Directory of Southern Africa ,1996
