The Problem of Self-Love in St. Augustine Oliver O'Donovan, 2006-11-01 The primal destruction of man was self love There is no one who does not love himself but one must search for the right love and avoid the warped Indeed you did not love yourself when you did not love the God who made you These three sentences set side by side show why the problem of self love in St Augustine of Hippo constitutes a problem Self love is loving God it is also hating God Self love is common to all men it is restricted to those who love God Mutually incompatible assertions about self love jostle one another and demand to be reconciled from the Introduction In saying that self love finds its only true expression in love of God Augustine is formulating in one of many possible ways a principle fundamental to his metaphysical and ethical outlook namely that moral obligation derives from an obligation to God which is at the same time a call to self fulfillment from the Conclusion

Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology: Anglophone and Scandinavian Protestant theology Jon Bartley Stewart, Tome II is dedicated to tracing Kierkegaard's influence in Anglophone and Scandinavian Protestant religious thought In Britain before World War I the few literati who were familiar with his work tended to assimilate Kierkegaard to the heroic individualism of Ibsen and Nietzsche In the United States knowledge of Kierkegaard was introduced by Scandinavian immigrants who brought with them a picture of the Dane as much more sympathetic to traditional Christianity The interpretation of Kierkegaard in Britain and America during the early and mid twentieth century generally reflected the sensibilities of the particular theological interpreter Anglican theologians tended to find Kierkegaard to be one sided in his critique of reason and culture while theologians hailing from the Reformed tradition often saw him as an insightful harbinger of neo orthodoxy The second part of Tome II is dedicated to the Kierkegaard reception in Scandinavian theology featuring articles on Norwegian and Swedish theologians influenced by Kierkegaard

NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn't want any believer to become like Adam and Eve's firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That's why death has no power over us And that's why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That's why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God's children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do
