Care Activism Ethel Tungohan, 2023-08-15 Care activism challenges the stereotype of downtrodden migrant caregivers by showing that care workers have distinct ways of caring for themselves for each other and for the larger transnational community of care workers and their families Ethel Tungohan illuminates how the goals and desires of migrant care worker activists goes beyond political considerations like policy changes and overturning power structures Through practices of subversive friendships and being there for each other care activism acts as an extension of the daily work that caregivers do oftentimes also instilling practices of resistance and critical hope among care workers At the same time the communities created by care activism help migrant caregivers survive and even thrive in the face of arduous working and living conditions and the pains surrounding family separation As Tungohan shows care activism also unifies caregivers to resist society's legal and economic devaluations of care and domestic work by reaffirming a belief that they and what they do are important and necessary

English for a Better World IV' 2007 Ed. , Cultural Compass Martin F. Manalansan, 2000 Cultural Compass re-writes the space of Asian Americans Through innovative studies of community politics gender family and sexual relations cultural events and other sites central to the formation of ethnic and citizen identity contributors reconfigure ethnography according to Asian American experiences in the United States In these eleven essays scholars in anthropology sociology ethnic studies and Asian American studies reconsider traditional models for ethnographic research Drawing upon recent theoretical discussions and methodological innovations the contributors explore the construction and displacement of self community and home integral to Asian American cultural journeys in the late twentieth century Some discuss the unique situation of doing ethnographic work at home that is researching one's own ethnic group or another group with Asian America Others draw on rich and diverse field experiences Whether they are doing homework or fieldwork contributors reflect on the ways that particular matters of identity gender class sexuality ethnicity age play out between researchers and informants Individual essays and the book as a whole challenge the notion of a monolithic spatially bounded Asian American community pointing the way to multiple sites of political struggle cultural critique and social change      Meet Me in Manila Al Cadondon,2019-12-12 Coming back home sober from Alcohol rehabilitation center he got stranded at the international airport due to inclement weather He meet an exquisite beauty from Manila who aspires to become Miss teen Manila They both find themselves falling in love but due to age difference being Albert ten years older is a problem to Yvonne She is an 18 year old beauty with a bright future in pageantry venue She knows he loves her and she loves him but their relationship is hampered by different interest because of age In this love story of love lost and love gain Albert finding his love life in despair but come back to a happy ever after with her fiancée coming back to him alive who has been presumed dead and gone forever      The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition Maryanne Fisher,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Women and Competition is one of the first scholarly volumes to focus specifically on competition and the competitive forces between women Chapters provide readers with a definitive view of the current state of research and collectively address the adaptive and socio cultural foundations of women's competitive behavior motivations and cognitions      Martial Law Melodrama José B. Capino,2020-01-07 Lino Brocka 1939 1991 was one of Asia and the Global South's most celebrated filmmakers A versatile talent he was at once a bankable director of genre movies an internationally acclaimed auteur of social films a pioneer of queer cinema and an outspoken critic of Ferdinand Marcos's autocratic regime Jos B Capino examines the figuration of politics in the Filipino director's movies illuminating their historical contexts allegorical tropes and social critiques Combining eye opening archival research with fresh interpretations of over fifteen of Brocka's major and minor works Martial Law Melodrama does more than reveal the breadth of his political vision It also offers a timely lesson about popular cinema's vital role in the struggle for democracy

Crossing Cultural Boundaries Lili Hernández,2020-07-13 To cross boundaries to go beyond borders an evocative idea but what are the implications and consequences of transgression How are boundaries challenged redefined and overcome within the intricacies of taboos bodies and identities Crossing Cultural Boundaries Taboos Bodies and Identities brings together a range of articles that address this theme using different frameworks of interpretation As in the case of taboo boundaries are often internalised and may function as regulators for a society Their existence becomes visible the moment they are violated The essays in this book explore voluntary and accidental encounters with boundaries not only from theoretical perspectives but also from the experience of those who are part of transitions on a regular basis in their everyday lives The notion of otherness is central to the articles in this book The definition and interpretation of cultural others become part and parcel of the process of negotiation of bodies and identities While the other is marked by outward bodily signs spaces taboos and cultural practices the self is empowered by resisting submission to dominant modes and descriptions Deconstructing boundaries becomes part of the project of redefining the self This book will appeal to academics and
