published in magazines such as Quadrant and the New Yorker Witting was awarded the 1993 Patrick White Prize Isobel on the Way to the Corner Shop won the Age Book of the Year Award Amy Witting died in 2001 Brilliant distillations tinged with latent tenderness New York Times

Gravity Well Melanie Joosten, 2017-05-29 Lotte is an astronomer who spends her nights peering into deep space rather than looking too closely at herself When she returns to her hometown after years in South America reeling from a devastating diagnosis she finds that much has changed Lotte's father has remarried and she feels like an outsider in the house she grew up in She's estranged from her former best friend Eve who is busy with her own life and unsure of how to recover the closeness they once shared Initially Lotte's return causes disharmony but then it is the catalyst for a much more devastating event an event that will change Lotte and Eve's lives forever If families are like solar systems bodies that orbit in time with one another sometimes close and sometimes far away what is the force that drives them And what are the consequences when the weight of one planet tugs others off course The long awaited second novel from the award winning Melanie Joosten Gravity Well is a striking and tender tale of friendship and family both the family we are born to and the family we choose Deeply compassionate and profoundly moving it is a heartrending portrait of how we rebuild when the worst has happened PRAISE FOR MELANIE JOOSTEN Masterfully constructed Though there is loss at the centre of Gravity Well Joosten knows that the most urgent observations about life come from making sense of the unfathomable This is a carefully crafted emotionally cathartic novel Our journey away from suffering Joosten suggests begins with our movement towards each other The Weekend Australian Joosten's characters are faced with all the complexity of the modern world and sometimes the decisions they make turn out to be wrong Watching them face the consequences makes for riveting reading This is the work of an elegant and vital novelist someone fully engaged and grappling with the multitude of difficulties involved in the way we live now The Sydney Morning Herald

Quarterly Essay 73 Australia Fair Rebecca Huntley, 2019-03-18 What do Australians want most from their next government In this vivid grounded surprising essay Rebecca Huntley listens to the people and hears a call for change Too often we focus on the angry reactionary minority But Huntley shows there is also a large progressive centre For some time a clear majority have been saying they want action on climate and energy on housing and inequality on corporate donations and the corruption of democracy Would a Shorten Labor government rise to this challenge What can be learnt from the failures of past governments Was marriage equality just the beginning In Australia Fair Rebecca Huntley reveals the state of the nation and makes the case for democratic renewal should the next government heed the call Often the claim is made that our politics and politicians are poll driven This is on the whole bunkum If polls were influential we would have invested much more in renewable energy maintained and even increased funding to the ABC and made child care cheaper We may already have made changes to negative gearing and moved towards adopting elements of the Uluru Statement from the Heart We would have taken up the first iteration of the Gonski education reforms These are some of the issues where a democratic majority comes together a basic agreement crossing party lines Rebecca Huntley Australia Fair Rebecca Huntley is one of Australia's leading social researchers From 2006 until 2015 she was the director of the Mind Mood Report Australia's longest running social trends report She is now head of Vox Populi research Her most recent book is Still Lucky She presents The History Listen on ABC Radio National
