The Oxford Handbook of Music and World Christianities Suzel Ana Reily, Jonathan M. Dueck, 2016-03-25 The Oxford Handbook of Music and World Christianities investigates music's role in everyday practice and social history across the diversity of Christian religions and practices around the globe The volume explores Christian communities in the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australia as sites of transmission transformation and creation of deeply diverse musical traditions The book's contributors while mostly rooted in ethnomusicology examine Christianities and their musics in methodologically diverse ways engaging with musical sound and structure musical and social history and ethnography of music and musical performance These broad materials explore five themes music and missions music and religious utopias and other oppositional religious communities music and conflict music and transnational flows and music and everyday life The volume as a whole then approaches Christian groups and their musics as diverse and powerful windows into the way in which music religious ideas capital and power circulate and change between places now and historically It also tries to take account of the religious self understandings of these groups presenting Christian musical practice and exchange as encompassing and negotiating deeply felt and deeply rooted moral and cultural values Given that the centerpiece of the volume is Christian religious musical practice the volume reveals the active role music plays in maintaining and changing religious moral and cultural values in a long history of intercultural and transnational encounters Prepare! David L. Bone, Mary J. Scifres, 2014 Encyclopedia of American Gospel Music W. K. McNeil, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of American Gospel Music is the first comprehensive reference to cover this important American musical form Coverage includes all aspects of both African American and white gospel from history and performers to recording techniques and styles as well as the influence of gospel on different musical genres and cultural trends The Gully Path Dr. Sue Clifton, 2014-12-17 Mississippi The 1950s and 60s Two friends one white and the other black Sue Ann spends her pre adolescent years protecting her best friend Liz Bess from prejudice and mistreatment but she can't protect her from the untimely death of her mother and their resulting separation as Liz Bess is sent north to school As a young adult Sue Ann falls in love with Tate Douglas a civil rights worker from the North during the violent summer of 1964 Liz Bess now Elizabeth returns to Mississippi to become a freedom fighter for her people and comes face to face with racist violence and death Through the turmoil Sue Ann is reminded of the words of Elizabeth's grandmother Love ain't black and love ain't white it jes is My Heart's Song Johnetta Johnson Page, 2019-11-11 My Heart's Song A Message to the 21st Century Levite By Johnetta Johnson Page Johnetta Johnson Page's book encourages musicians especially those who provide music to a church to renew their calling to create music Page's words will inspire artists to commit to their craft and have a stronger sense of dedication for their work Bibliographic Guide to Music New York Public Library. Music Division, 1998 Ragtime for the Rockies Karl A. Lamb, 2012-10 This tragic love story unfolds in and around the town of Platteville Colorado in 1925 and 1926 In the Roaring Twenties young women challenge their elders by dancing to jazz music wearing abbreviated clothing and drinking prohibited alcohol Some men express their opposition in church Others join the Klux Klan which expands into the Northern States promising violent resistance to social change OWEN MATTISON comes to Platteville High School as athletics coach and science teacher including Vocational Agriculture Owen's bride RUBY a Home Economics graduate is an accomplished pianist and jazz fan whose clothes and bobbed hair show the triumph of flapper fashion We meet Owen and Ruby married for six weeks sharing a picnic on the LYDELL farm overlooking the river Inspired by natural beauty Owen sings a favorite hymn and Ruby harmonizes Returning to their tiny rented home Owen receives a telephone call from ARTHUR STARK a School Board member Stark's son later says Stark dislikes the twentieth century and wants to hold it back Stark changes a meeting date with Owen to attend a luncheon where he joins the Ku Klux Klan with OLIVER SCOTT the Platteville barber Both men participate in the next Klan raid on a dancehall Eager to teach moral values the School Board votes to require readings of the King James Bible as part of classroom opening ceremonies This distresses Catholic parents whose children will be required to hear a proscribed text FREDERICK KOBLLENZ owner of the Platteville Mercantile store organizes a protest student walkout FRANCIS FRA1 K KOBLLENZ Frederick's son leads the walkout from Owen's classroom The School Board soon writes to all parents requiring all students to remain for the Bible readings Dictionary of Composers for the

From the Inside Looking Out M.J. Henry,2023-05-03 About the Book An autobiographic account of her youth M J Henry s From the Inside Looking Out offers a first hand view of life in the poor rural south She knew early in her life that her family was totally dysfunctional They were not normal and did not live like other people lived For most of her life she has lived under the misconception that if you don t talk about it it will go away or maybe it isn t true They were very poor and didn t know how poor they were until they were older and could see how other people lived Being poor and dysfunctional are two totally different things Many people were and still are poor and that is no shame It s only shameful when you don t do all you are capable of to overcome it Verbal and mental abuse have no limits As an adult M J was having nightmares and horrible dreams about her childhood She d heard and experienced that if you put things on paper that it would change the whole perspective in one way or another She had been praying long before daylight for God to give her some answer for what she should do and how to deal with the future Later that morning the inspiration came to her that she should write a book about her life She felt that she owed it to herself her children and grandchildren and all of the others who whispered behind our backs and to those who were involved in some way Once M J poured out her heart and soul on paper the dreams stopped About the Author M J Henry grew up in rural Mississippi in the mid 1940s Early in her life they had no electricity running water or inside plumbing While she wasn t all that interested in school M J did graduate from high school She s enjoyed two fulfilling jobs each lasting almost 20 years each She s worked as a sales manager for a manufacturing company which gave her the opportunity to travel to many military bases Her other role was a consolidations supervisor for a student loan company The most successful fulfilling job she s ever had however is being a mother to two amazing children who have graced her with three precious grand children and one great grandchild M J currently lives in Mississippi This is her first published book Music for Others Nathan Myrick,2021-03-12 Musical activity is one of the most ubiquitous and highly valued forms of social interaction in North America to say nothing of world over being engaged from sporting events to political rallies concerts to churches Moreover music s use as an affective agent for political and religious programs suggests that it has ethical significance Indeed many have said as much It is surprising then that music s ethical significance remains one of the most undertheorized aspects of both moral philosophy and music scholarship Music for Others Care Justice and

Relational Ethics in Christian Music fills part of this scholarly gap by focusing on the religious aspects of musical activity particularly on the practices of Christian communities Based on ethnomusicological fieldwork at three Protestant churches and a group of seminary students studying in an immersion course at South by Southwest SXSW and synthesizing theories of discourse formation and care ethics oriented towards restorative justice it first argues that relationships are ontological for both human beings and musical activity It further argues that musical meaning and emotion converge in human bodies such that music participates in personal and communal identity construction in affective ways yet these constructions are not always just Thus considering these aspects of music s ways of being in the world Music for Others finally argues that music is ethical when it preserves people in and restores people to just relationships with each other and thereby with God
