Beatriz Colomina Privacy And Publicity :

Privacy and Publicity Beatriz Colomina, 1996-02-28 Through a series of close readings of two major figures of the modern movement Adolf Loos and Le Corbusier Beatriz Colomina argues that architecture only becomes modern in its engagement with the mass media and that in so doing it radically displaces the traditional sense of space and subjectivity Privacy and Publicity boldly questions certain ideological assumptions underlying the received view of modern architecture and reconsiders the methodology of architectural criticism itself Where conventional criticism portrays modern architecture as a high artistic practice in opposition to mass culture Colomina sees the emerging systems of communication that have come to define twentieth century culture the mass media as the true site within which modern architecture was produced She considers architectural discourse as the intersection of a number of systems of representation such as drawings models photographs books films and advertisements This does not mean abandoning the architectural object the building but rather looking at it in a different way The building is understood here in the same way as all the media that frame it as a mechanism of representation in its own right With modernity the site of architectural production literally moved from the street into photographs films publications and exhibitions a displacement that presupposes a new sense of space one defined by images rather than walls This age of publicity corresponds to a transformation in the status of the private Colomina argues modernity is actually the publicity of the private Modern architecture renegotiates the traditional relationship between public and private in a way that profoundly alters the experience of space In a fascinating intellectual journey Colomina tracks this shift through the modern incarnations of the archive the city fashion war sexuality advertising the window and the museum finally concentrating on the domestic interior that constructs the modern subject it appears merely to house Welcome to the Dreamhouse Lynn Spigel, 2001-06 Historical and theoretical essays on television and media culture by a leading feminist studies scholar Building Desire George Dodds, 2005-08-08 An in depth look at the unique Barcelona Pavilion its many and complex identities through history and its enduring appeal Ästhetik der Skalierung Carlos Spoerhase, Steffen Siegel, Nikolaus Wegmann, 2020-06-12 Die Beitr ge des Sonderheftes der Zeitschrift f r sthetik und Allgemeine Kunstwissenschaft vermessen einen bislang nur wenig beachteten Forschungsbereich die sthetik der Skalierung Ob in Texten oder Bildern T nen oder Performances sthetische Ph nomene lassen sich anhand eines Spektrums skalieren das von minimal bis maximal reicht Von kurz bis lang klein bis gro leise bis laut langsam bis schnell l sst sich aus dieser Perspektive eine Vielzahl k nstlerischer Ph nomene mit gro em Erkenntnisgewinn betrachten Wesentlich ist die mit dem Begriff der Skalierung aufgerufene Vorstellung einer stufenweisen Entfaltung das hei t einer graduellen Quantifizierung in Raum und Zeit In zw lf Untersuchungen werden diese M glichkeiten anhand verschiedener K nste seit der fr hen Moderne bis in die unmittelbare Gegenwart in den Blick genommen und die Potenziale von Kompression und Amplifikation diskutiert Mit Beitr gen von Carlos Spoerhase Gesa zur Nieden Isa Wortelkamp Nicola Glaubitz Benjamin Krautter Marcus Willand Andrew

Rault,2017-07-05 The first book length feminist analysis of Eileen Gray s work Eileen Gray and the Design of Sapphic Modernity Staying In argues that Gray s unusual architecture and design as well as its history of abuse and neglect emerged from her involvement with cultures of sapphic modernism Bringing together a range of theoretical and historical sources from architecture and design communication and media to gender and sexuality studies Jasmine Rault shows that Gray shared with many of her female contemporaries a commitment to designing spaces for sexually dissident modernity This volume examines Gray s early lacquer work and Romaine Brooks earliest nude paintings Gray s first built house E 1027 in relation to Radclyffe Hall and her novel The Well of Loneliness and Gray s private house Tempe nbsp Pailla with Djuna Barnes Nightwood While both female sexual dissidence and modernist architecture were reduced to rigid identities through mass media women such as Gray Brooks Hall and Barnes resisted the clarity of such identities with opaque non communicative aesthetics Rault demonstrates that by defying the modern imperative to publicity clarity and identity Gray helped design a sapphic modernity that cultivated the dynamism of uncertain bodies and unfixed pleasures which depended on staying in rather than coming out Architecture and the Image at the Turn of the 21st Century Sanja

Rodeš,2024-06-28 This book examines architecture image and media relationships as productive for architecture and architectural discourses By arguing that the relationships between architecture and media cannot be dismissed via linear criticism of architecture and media or image these relations are instead seen as a part of a sphere a mediasphere of complex relationships In lieu of anything like a consensus on the contemporary condition of architecture referring to the late twentieth and the twenty first centuries the starting point of this book is that the relationships between architecture media and images continue to multiply owing to continuous technological advancements Contemporary architecture considered in this book is related to the selected circumstances of high visibility where architectural images are propelled into visibility and conflated with non architectural images This takes architecture outside of architectural only discourse and into the public realm By granting higher visibility to both the architectural images and architecture in the public realm architecture can also be influenced by the various perceptions of the general public and can enter public consciousness via non architectural media With increased visibility architecture s far reaching presence calls for more structured analysis of its nature and potential As the analysed architecture in this book is associated with the discourses outside of architecture some of which relate to terrorism natural disaster and branding and consumption the limits of contemporary architectural discipline are questioned and extended This book is written for academics and students in architectural history theory and criticism particularly those interested in visual and media studies The Age of Spectacle Tom Dyckhoff,2017-04-20 A great storyteller you would be hard pushed to find a more knowledgeable or entertaining guide Icon Such an interesting book I cannot recommend it enough Lauren Laverne In Dubai a luxury apartment block is built in the shape of a giant iPod In China President Xi Jinping denounces the trend of constructing bizarre new buildings in wacky shapes and colours In Cincinnati celebrity architect Zaha Hadid is paid millions to design a single iconic structure with the hope of single handedly transforming the region's ailing fortunes. These incidents are all part of the same story: the rise of the age of spectacle. Over the last fifty years there has been a revolution in how our cities operate. In The Age of Spectacle, Tom Dyckhoff tells the story of how architecture became obsessed with the flashy, the monumental and the ostentatious, and how we all have to live with the consequences. Exploring cityscapes from New York to Beijing and from Bilbao to Portsmouth, Dyckhoff shows that we are not just witnessing a new kind of building; we are living through a fundamental transformation in how our urban spaces work. The corporate explosion of the last few decades has fundamentally shifted the relationship between architects, politicians and cities' inhabitants, fostering innovative new kinds of engineering and design, but also facilitating ill-conceived vanity projects and commercial power grabs. Timely, passionate and bursting with new ideas, The Age of Spectacle is both an examination of how twenty-first century cities work and a manifesto for a radically new kind of urbanism. Our cities, Dyckhoff shows, can thrive in the age of spectacle, but only if they engage us not just with dazzling structures, but by responding to the needs of the people who inhabit them. Engaging. The iconic building is the most obvious architectural phenomenon of our age, yet somehow no one has quite done what Tom Dyckhoff does with The Age of Spectacle, which is to tell its story clearly and plainly. Rowan Moore, Observer. First class. Finally, a book that nails the iconic movement. Tom Dyckhoff's The Age of Spectacle is the book that I wish I had written. Simon Jenkins, Unusually accessible and well argued. Evening Standard. Camera Constructs Andrew Higgott, Timothy Wray, 2016-12-05. Photography and architecture have a uniquely powerful resonance: architectural form provides the camera with the subject for some of its most compelling imagery, while photography profoundly influences how architecture is represented, imagined and produced. Camera Constructs is the first book to reflect critically on the varied interactions of the different practices by which photographers, artists, architects, theorists and historians engage with the relationship of the camera to architecture, the city and the evolution of Modernism. The title, thus, on the one hand opposes the medium of photography and the materiality of construction, but on the other can be read as saying that the camera invariably constructs what it depicts: the photograph is not a simple representation of an external reality, but constructs its own meanings and reconstructs its subjects. Twenty-three essays by a wide range of historians and theorists are grouped under the themes of Modernism and the Published Photograph, Architecture and the City, Reimagined, Interpretative Constructs and Photography in Design Practices. They are preceded by an Introduction that comprehensively outlines the subject and elaborates on the diverse historical and theoretical contexts of the authors' approaches. Camera Constructs provides a rich and highly original analysis of the relationship of photography to built form from the early modern period to the present day. Revisiting the Gaze Morna Laing, Jacki Willson, 2020-07-23. In 1975, Laura Mulvey published her seminal essay on the male gaze, ushering in a new era in understanding the politics and theory of looking at the female body. Since then, feminist thinking has expanded upon and revised Mulvey's theory, and much of the Western world has seen a resurgence in feminist activism as well as the rise of neoliberalism and shifts in digital culture and self representation For the first time this book addresses what it means to look at the fashioned female body in this radical new landscape In chapters exploring the fashioned body within contexts such as queerness veiling blackness pregnancy fatness and criminality Revisiting the Gaze addresses intersectional debates in feminism and re evaluates the concept of the gaze in light of recent social and political changes With an interdisciplinary approach bridging fashion and fine art this book opens the door to discussions about the male gaze and the fashioned body House of Fashion Jess Berry, 2018-07-12 Since Charles Fredrick Worth established his luxurious Maison de Couture in 1858 the interior has played a crucial role in the display of fashion House of Fashion provides a full historical account of the interplay between fashion and the modern interior demonstrating how they continue to function as a site for performing modern gendered identities for designers and their clientele alike In doing so it traces how designers including Poiret Vionnet Schiaparelli and Dior used commercial spaces and domestic interiors to enhance their credentials as connoisseurs of taste and style Taking us from the early years of haute couture to the luxury fashion of the present day Berry explores how the salon the atelier and the boutique have allowed fashion to move beyond the aesthetics of dress to embrace the visual seduction of the theatrical artistic and the exotic From the Art Deco allure of Coco Chanel s Maison to the luminous spaces of contemporary flagship stores House of Fashion sets out fashion s links with key figures in architecture and design including Louis S e Robert Mallet Stevens Eileen Gray and Jean Michel Frank Drawing on photographs advertisements paintings and illustrations this interdisciplinary study examines how fashionable interiors have shaped our understanding of architecture dress and elegance The Architectural Models of Theodore Conrad Teresa Fankhänel, 2021-06-17 Based on the recent discovery of his fully preserved private archive models photos letters business files and drawings this book tells the story of Theodore Conrad 1910 1994 the most prominent and prolific architectural model maker of the 20th century Conrad s innovative models were instrumental in the design and realization of many icons of American Modernism from the Rockefeller Center to Lever House and the Seagram Building He revolutionized the production of architectural models and became a model making entrepreneur in his own right Yet despite his success and the well known buildings he helped to create until now little has been known about Conrad s work and his impact on 20th century architectural history With exclusive access to Conrad s archive as well as that of model photographer Louis Checkman both of which have lain undiscovered in private storage for decades this book examines Conrad s work and legacy accompanied by case studies of his major commissions and full color photographs of his works Set against the backdrop of the surge in model making in the 1950s and 1960s which Jane Jacobs called The Miniature Boom it explores how Conrad s models prompt broader scholarly questions about the nature of authorship in architecture the importance of craftsmanship and about the translation of architectural ideas between different media The book ultimately presents an alternative history of American modern architecture highlighting the often overlooked influence of architectural models and their makers

Contemporary Art About Architecture Nora Wendl, 2017-07-05 An important resource for scholars of contemporary art and architecture this volume considers contemporary art that takes architecture as its subject Concentrated on works made since 1990 Contemporary Art About Architecture A Strange Utility is the first to take up this topic in a sustained and explicit manner and the first to advance the idea that contemporary art functions as a form of architectural history theory and analysis Over the course of fourteen essays by both emerging and established scholars this volume examines a diverse group of artists in conjunction with the vernacular canonical and fantastical structures engaged by their work I Manglano Ovalle Matthew Barney Monika Sosnowska Pipo Nguyen duy and Paul Pfeiffer are among those considered as are the compelling questions of architecture's relationship to photography the evolving legacy of Mies van der Rohe the notion of an architectural unconscious and the provocative concepts of the unbuilt and the unbuildable Through a rigorous investigation of these issues Contemporary Art About Architecture calls attention to the fact that art is now a vital form of architectural discourse Indeed this phenomenon is both pervasive and in its individual incarnations compelling a reason to think again about the entangled histories of architecture and art

Cognitive Architecture Deborah Hauptmann, Warren Neidich, 2010 Noo politics is most broadly understood as a power exerted over the life of the mind reconfiguring perception memory and attention This volume unites specialists in political and aesthetic philosophy neuroscience sociology and architecture and presents their ideas for re thinking the city in terms of neurobiology and Noo politics The book examines the relationship between information and communication calling for a new logic of representation and shows how architecture can merge with urban systems and processes to create new forms of network that empower the imagination and change our cultural landscape

Fashion Aesthetics and Ethics Louise Wallenberg, Andrea Kollnitz, 2023-05-04 How are aesthetics and ethics related to the practical realities of the global fashion industry Both have played an important role in academic fashion studies to this point but they are most often discussed in the context of abstract phenomena such as modernity and capitalism or identity issues such as sexuality class and gender The essays in this volume strive instead to show how the realities of the global fashion industry have important and pertinent aesthetic and ethical consequences This collection provides critical and philosophical analysis of the interplay of aesthetics and ethics within the global fashion industry Characterized by an increasingly fast spinning production the industry is highly exploitative in terms of environment and labor force underpaid textile workers retailers working under brutal competition from the mass merchandise discounters young designers seamstresses and curators often working for free and a vast body of aspiring models In addition fashion related aesthetic ideals are becoming more influential than ever in directing consumers in their social and personal identification processes and bodily practices with sometimes fatal consequences Covering a wide range of subjects such as fashion's highly problematic production and consumption practices the possibility of producing and consuming fashion ethically fashion's intimate connection with nature and technology Fashion Aesthetics and Ethics highlights the powerful aesthetical presence of fashion in relation to its ethical premises and often problematic outcomes

Architectures of Chance Yeoryia Manolopoulou, 2017-03-02 Architectural discourse and practice are dominated by a false dichotomy between design and chance and governed by the belief that the architect's role is to defend against the indeterminate In Architectures of Chance Yeoryia Manolopoulou challenges this position arguing for the need to develop a more creative understanding of chance as aesthetic experience and critical method and as a design practice in its own right Examining the role of experimental chance across film psychoanalysis philosophy fine art and performance this is the first book to comprehensively discuss the idea of chance in architecture and bring a rich array of innovative practices of chance to the attention of architects Wide ranging and through a symbiotic interplay of drawing and text Architectures of Chance makes illuminating reading for those interested in the process and experience of design and the poetics and ethics of chance and space in the overlapping fields of architecture and the aleatoric arts

Sayable Space. Narrative Practices in Architecture Giovanni Corbellini, 2021-11-18 When a work reaches its maximum intensity wrote Le Corbusier a phenomenon of ineffable space occurs The ultimate quality of architecture would reside therefore in the resistance to its description However to tell us this and much more the Swiss master has published more than seventy books and his so compelling formula in supporting the ineffable also shows how words are able to grasp it This brief essay investigates the multiple intersections between discourse and design the way buildings try to talk with their own specific means how architects are trying to remain relevant without building the paradoxes of architecture description after its completion the modes of communication during the project processes the capacity of narrative to act before the project operations start and infiltrate the collective perception making possible innovative approaches
