Nothing Happened

Susan A. Crane,2021-01-19 The past is what happened History is what we remember and write about that past the narratives we craft to make sense out of our memories and their sources But what does it mean to look at the past and to remember that nothing happened Why might we feel as if nothing is the way it was This book transforms these utterly ordinary observations and redefines Nothing as something we have known and can remember Nothing has been a catch all term for everything that is supposedly uninteresting or is just not there It will take some possibly considerable mental adjustment before we can see Nothing as Susan A Crane does here with a capital n But Nothing has actually been happening all along As Crane shows in her witty and provocative discussion Nothing is nothing less than fascinating When Nothing has changed but we think that it should have we might call that injustice when Nothing has happened over a long slow period of time we might call that boring Justice and boredom have histories So too does being relieved or disappointed when Nothing happens for instance when a forecasted end of the world does not occur and millennial movements have to regroup By paying attention to how we understand Nothing to be happening in the present what it means to know Nothing or to do Nothing we can begin to ask how those experiences will be remembered Susan A Crane moves effortlessly between different modes of seeing Nothing drawing on visual analysis and cultural studies to suggest a new way of thinking about history By remembering how Nothing happened or how Nothing is the way it was or how Nothing has changed we can recover histories that were there all along

The Promise of Beauty Mimi Thi Nguyen,2024-09-20 In The Promise of Beauty Mimi Thi Nguyen explores the relationship between the concept of beauty and narratives of crisis and catastrophe Nguyen conceptualizes beauty which she observes we turn to in emergencies and times of destruction as a tool to identify and bridge the discrepancy between the world as it is and what it ought to be Drawing widely from aesthetic and critical theories Nguyen outlines how beauty or its lack points to the conditions that must exist for it to flourish She notes that an absence of beauty becomes both a political observation and a call to action to transform the conditions of the situation so as to replicate preserve or repair beauty The promise of beauty can then engender a critique of social arrangements and political structures that would set the foundations for its possibility and presence In this way Nguyen highlights the role of beauty in inspiring action toward a more just world

Counterpreservation Daniela Sandler, 2016-12-15 In Berlin decrepit structures do not always denote urban blight Decayed buildings are incorporated into everyday life as residences exhibition spaces shops offices and as leisure space As nodes of public dialogue they serve as platforms for dissenting views about the future and past of Berlin In this book Daniela Sandler introduces the concept of counterpreservation as a way to understand this intentional appropriation of decrepitude The embrace of decay is a sign of Berlin's iconoclastic rebelliousness but it has also been incorporated into the mainstream economy of tourism and development as part of the city's countercultural cachet Sandler presents the possibilities and shortcomings of counterpreservation as a dynamic force in Berlin and as a potential concept for other cities Counterpreservation is part of Berlin's fabric in the city's famed Hausprojekte living projects such as the Kippenhous and KA 86 in cultural centers such as the Haus Schwarzenberg the Schokoladen and the legendary now defunct Tacheles in memorials and museums and even in commerce and residences The appropriation of ruins is a way of carving out affordable spaces for housing work and cultural activities It is also a visual statement against gentrification and a complex representation of history with the marks of different periods the nineteenth century World War II postwar division unification on display for all to see Counterpreservation exemplifies an everyday urbanism in which citizens shape private and public spaces with their own hands but it also influences more formal designs such as the Topography of Terror the Berlin Wall Memorial and Daniel Libeskind's unbuilt redevelopment proposal for a site peppered with ruins of Nazi barracks By featuring these examples Sandler questions conventional notions of architectural authorship and points toward the value of participatory environments
