Filmwelten verstehen und vermitteln Kristina Wacker, 2017-05-15 Mit digitalen und mobilen Endgeräten wird die Fokussierung auf Film immer stärker. Film ist daher auch zentraler Bestandteil schulischen Lernens. Von PädagogInnen werden nicht nur grundlegende Kenntnisse der Filmsprache, Gestaltung, Geschichte und Produktion verlangt, sondern auch die Kompetenzen, dies zu vermitteln. Anhand von 20 Filmklassikern stellt Kristina Wacker zentrale Themen der FilmDidaktik vor. Mit zahlreichen Informationen und Arbeitsblättern für den Unterricht, welche Pädagoginnen und Pädagogen selbst als Lernplattform nutzen oder als Materialien im Unterricht direkt einsetzen können. Familiar and Foreign Manijeh Mannani, Veronica Thompson, 2015-09-30 The current political climate of confrontation between Islamist regimes and Western governments has resulted in the proliferation of essentialist perceptions of Iran and Iranians in the West. Such perceptions do not reflect the complex evolution of Iranian identity that occurred in the years following the Constitutional Revolution 1906-11 and the anti-imperialist Islamic Revolution of 1979. Despite the Iranian government's determined pursuance of anti-Western policies and strict conformity to religious principles, the film and literature of Iran reflect the clash between a nostalgic pride in Persian tradition and an apparent infatuation with a more Eurocentric modernity. In Familiar and Foreign, Mannani and Thompson set out to explore the tensions surrounding the ongoing formulation of Iranian identity by bringing together essays on poetry, novels, memoir, and films. These include both canonical and less widely theorized texts as well as works of literature written in English by authors living in diaspora. Challenging neocolonialist stereotypes, these critical excursions into Iranian literature and film reveal the limitations of collective identity as it has been configured within and outside of Iran. Through the examination of works by, among others, the iconic female poet Forugh Farrokhzad, the expatriate author Goli Taraghi, the controversial memoirist Azar Nafisi, and the graphic novelist Marjane Satrapi, author of Persepolis, this volume engages with the complex and contested discourses of religion, patriarchy, and politics that are the contemporary product of Iran's long and revolutionary history. Decoding International Law Susan Tiefenbrun, 2010-05-06 Violations of international law and human rights laws are the plague of the 20th and 21st centuries. People's inhumanity to people escalates as wars proliferate and respect for human rights and the laws of war diminish. Decoding International Law analyses international law as represented artfully in the humanities. Women Write Iran Nima Naghibi, 2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full-length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora. Nima Naghibi investigates autobiographical narratives across genres, including memoirs, documentary films, prison testimonials, and graphic novels, and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past. Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights. She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices. By drawing on the empathy of the reader-spectator-witness, Naghibi contends, life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi's best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering

Graphic Justice

Thomas Giddens, 2015-03-24 The intersections of law and contemporary culture are vital for comprehending the meaning and significance of law in today's world Far from being unsophisticated mass entertainment comics and graphic fiction both imbue our contemporary culture and are themselves imbued with the concerns of law and justice Accordingly and spanning a wide variety of approaches and topics from an international array of contributors Graphic Justice draws comics and graphic fiction into the range of critical resources available to the academic study of law The first book to do this Graphic Justice broadens our understanding of law and justice as part of our human world a world that is inhabited not simply by legal concepts and institutions alone but also by narratives stories fantasies images and other cultural articulations of human meaning Engaging with key legal issues including copyright education legal ethics biomedical regulation and legal personhood and exploring critical issues in criminal justice and perspectives on international rights law and justice all through engagement with comics and graphic fiction the collection showcases the vast breadth of potential that the medium holds Graphic Justice will be of interest to academics and postgraduate students in cultural legal studies law and the image law narrative and literature law and popular culture cultural criminology as well as cultural and comics studies more generally

Policies, Principles, Practices Rita Cancino, Kirsten Jæger, 2011-05-25 This book addresses the various challenges facing university foreign language teaching in non anglophone countries in the era of educational globalization Growing student mobility net based cross border university education and universities opening subsidiaries in other countries force university teachers to offer their teaching in English rather than in their mother tongue and universities to equip their staff members with the necessary foreign language competencies As a reflection of societal and institutional globalization processes dedicated language teachers strive to adjust teaching methods to new student identities the availability of advanced learning technologies and social media enabling multiple forms of cross border contact Thus understanding the situation of contemporary university language teaching requires a consideration of macro level social changes institutional policies as well as developments in classroom practice The point of departure is the case of Denmark The problems addressed and the remedies offered however apply to all non anglophone universities with the ambition to stay competitive in the global market of university education The book includes contributions from foreign and second language teaching specialists representing a broad spectrum of Danish universities and years of sustained scholarly effort to improve the standard of university language teaching and the political recognition of the importance of advanced foreign language skills

Animation in the Middle East Stefanie Van de Peer, 2017-02-27 The internationally acclaimed films Persepolis and Waltz with Bashir only hinted at the vibrant animation culture that exists within the Middle East and North Africa In spite of censorship oppression and war animation studios have thrived in recent years in Egypt Iran Iraq Lebanon Morocco Palestine Syria and Turkey giving rise to a whole new generation of entrepreneurs and artists The success of animation in the Middle East is in part a product of a changing cultural climate which is increasingly calling for art that reflects politics Equally the professionalization and popularization of film festivals and the emergence of animation studios and private initiatives are the results of a growing consumer culture in which family friendly entertainment is big business Animation in the Middle East uncovers the history and politics that have defined the practice and study of animation in the Middle East and explores the innovative visions of contemporary animators in the region

Iranian and Diasporic Literature in the 21st Century Daniel Grassian, 2013-01-07 The most populous Islamic country in the Middle East Iran is rife with contradictions in many ways caught between the culture and governments of the Western more dominant and arguably imperialist world and the ideology of conservative fundamentalist Islam This book explores the present day writings of authors who explore these oppositional forces often finding a middle course between the often brutal and demonizing rhetoric from both sides To combat how the West has falsely generalized and stereotyped Iran and how Iran has falsely generalized and stereotyped the West Iranian and diasporic writers deconstruct Western caricatures of Iran and Iranian caricatures of the West In so doing they provide especially valuable insights into life in Iran today and into life in the West for diasporic Iranians

Empire of Terror Mark D. Silinsky Silinsky (author), 2021-07 In Empire of Terror Mark D Silinsky argues that Iran is one of the United States deadliest enemies The Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps known as the Guards bring Iran s sway over much of the greater Middle East and pose a growing existential threat to Western security Providing insights gained from his thirty eight years as an analyst in the U S defense intelligence community Silinsky argues that Iran s political leaders and Guards are animated by aggressive unforgiving and totalitarian principles He draws historical parallels to the Soviet Union and Nazi Germany to compare the intelligence and security services of states with totalitarian aspirations and to illustrate ideological points of intersection a collectivist mindset intolerance for political deviation strongly defined sex roles and hypermasculinity and a ruthless determination to ferret out and destroy their enemies Silinsky offers biographies and explanations of the ideology that propels some of Iran s leaders with global implications Profiling the perpetrators victims heroes villains and dupes Silinsky shines light on the human and inhumane elements in this distinctly Iranian drama Although the Soviet Union and Nazi Germany have been defeated and belong to history the Iranian threat is very much alive

Training for Catastrophe Lindsay Thomas,2021-03-16 A timely politically savvy examination of how impossible disasters shape the very real possibilities of our world Why would the normally buttoned down national security state imagine lurid future scenarios like a zombie apocalypse In Training for Catastrophe author Lindsay Thomas shows how our security regime reimagines plausibility to focus on unlikely and even unreal events rather than probable ones With an in depth focus on preparedness a pivotal emergent national security paradigm since 9 11 she explores how fiction shapes national security Thomas finds fiction at work in unexpected settings from policy documents and workplace training manuals to comics and video games Through these texts as well as plenty of science fiction she examines the philosophy of preparedness interrogating the roots of why it asks us to treat explicitly fictional events as real Thomas connects this philosophical underpinning to how preparedness plays out in contemporary politics emphasizing how it uses aesthetic elements like realism genre character and plot to train people both to regard some disasters as normal and to ignore others Training for Catastrophe makes an important case for how these documents elicit consent and compliance Thomas draws from a huge archive of texts including a Centers for Disease Control comic about a zombie apocalypse the work of Audre Lorde and the political thrillers of former national security advisor Richard Clarke to ask difficult questions about the uses and values of fiction A major statement on how national security intrudes into questions of art and life Training for Catastrophe is a timely intervention into how we confront disasters
