Tribology of Reciprocating Engines D. Dowson, C. M. Taylor, M. Godet, 2017-05-04 Tribology of Reciprocating Engines documents the proceedings of the 9th Leeds Lyon Symposium on Tribology held at the University of Leeds England on September 7 10 1982 This book emphasizes advances in the working principles of the tribological components that operate with relative motion The topics discussed include the dynamic analysis of engine bearing systems measurement of oil film thickness in diesel motor main bearings and temperature variations in crankshaft bearings The theoretical and experimental study of ring liner friction tribology in the cylinders of reciprocating compressors and lubricant properties in the diesel engine piston ring zone are also described This text likewise considers the metallurgy of scoring and scuffing failure impact of oil contamination on wear and energy losses and role of tappet surface morphology and metallurgy in cam tappet life This compilation is a good reference for tribologists lubrication engineers and specialists researching on reciprocating engines

The Museum of Engines and Mechanisms of the University of Palermo Giuseppe Genchi, 2024-10-04 The book describes the collection of the Museum Engines and Mechanisms of the University of Palermo Italy one of the most important and heterogeneous collections of engines and mechanisms in Europe the first one in Italy to be awarded as Mechanical Engineering Heritage Collection by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers Thanks to its numerous items this book showcases the evolution of fluid machinery and applied mechanics from steam engines up to turbojet engines as well as hybrid system giving several technical and historical information about its most important engines which are described in detail through pictures and original drawings The Museum preserves and makes freely available this almost unique collection of more than 300 engines didactic models and technical equipment including various unique exemplars continuously enhanced thanks to donations and through restoration activities carried out in a dedicated laboratory of the Museum As a result of a great deal of philological research carried out on the documents collected in the Museum's archive as well as in other institutional and corporate historical archives this book serves as the reference tool of the collection and more generally of the Museum itself Despite the technical subject and the academic environment in which it was created the catalogue is realized to be read even by non experts offering different levels of detail the first of which is the historical economic and in certain cases even sporting context related to an engine such as the vehicle for which it was designed and used

In Good Faith Renate Pratt, 2006-01-01 In retrospect it is difficult to accept that Western democracies have implicitly supported or at least tolerated the legalized system of white supremacy in South Africa known as apartheid Renate Pratt's new book In Good Faith explains why the Christian churches were among the first to publicly protest and why they provided such cogent and determined international support for the struggle against apartheid The Taskforce on the Churches and Corporate Responsibility is a coalition of Christian churches that for nearly twenty years was one of Canada's leading anti apartheid advocates As the first co ordinator of this Taskforce Renate Pratt was at the centre of the early anti apartheid initiatives in Canada and consequently is able to supply a clear and accurate view The book traces the history of exchanges between the Taskforce and successive ministers and senior civil servants of the Department of External Affairs It details the reluctant and weak responses offered by the Canadian government and business community right up to the time of Nelson Mandela's release from prison In Good Faith will be of particular interest to Canadian Christians concerned with ecumenical co operation and with the social and political dimensions of their faith Equally it will appeal to those interested in the impact of public interest organizations on public policy or the relationship between politics and business interests
