

Directions: There are many types of questions in this packet. Each requires a different level of attention.

Some questions require using a dictionary for a correct definition. Know that the correct context of the word is defined.

Questions identified as "Text" can be answered with material pulled directly out of the text.

Questions identified as "Research" require exploration from outside sources, using library resources or the Internet.

Questions identified as "Summarize" require reading the text and giving a short explanation, in your own words, of the requested main points.

Questions identified as "Interpret" require reading the text and explaining, in your own words, the deeper meaning.

1. (Interpret) What does the narrator mean when he says "I felt that my senses were leaving me"?

2. (Interpret) What famous religious movement is referred to by the word "dogmatism"?

3. (Research) Look at your answer for #2. Research and summarize how details helped understand what has captured the narrator.

4. Define the word "Location".

5. (Interpret) The narrator can "see" the locations of the judges. He feels nervous. Then, all of a sudden the judges have vanished and the room is dark. What happened to the narrator?

6. (Interpret) What does the narrator mean when he says "These stole into my being like a sick musical note, the thought of what would put these sensitive in the grave"?
