Sullivan, 2017-07-05 Sculptural Materiality in the Age of Conceptualism is structured around four distinct but interrelated projects initially realized in Italy between 1966 and 1972 Yayoi Kusama's Narcissus Garden Michelangelo Pistoletto's Newspaper Sphere Sfera di giornali Robert Smithson's Asphalt Rundown and Joseph Beuys's Arena These works all utilized non traditional materials collaborative patronage models and alternative modes of display to create a spatially and temporally dispersed arena of matter and action with photography serving as a connective material thread within the sculpture it reflects While created by major artists of the postwar period these particular projects have yet to receive substantive art historical analysis especially from a sculptural perspective Here they anchor a transnational narrative in which sculpture emerged as a node a center of transaction comprising multiple material phenomenon including objects images and actors When seen as entangled polymorphous entities these works suggest that the charge of sculpture in the late postwar period came from its concurrent existence as both three dimensional phenomena and photographic image in the interchanges among the materials that continue to activate and alter the constitution of sculpture within the contemporary sphere

Creating the Future Michael Fallon, 2017-05-30 Conceived as a challenge to long standing conventional wisdom Creating the Future is a work of social history cultural criticism that examines the premise that the progress of art in Los Angeles ceased during the 1970s after the decline of the Ferus Gallery the scattering of its stable of artists Robert Irwin Ed Kienholz Ed Moses Ed Rusha and others and the economic struggles throughout the decade and didn t resume until sometime around 1984 when Mark Tansey Alison Saar Judy Fiskin Carrie Mae Weems David Salle Manuel Ocampo among others became stars in an exploding art market However this is far from the reality of the L A art scene in the 1970s The passing of those fashionable 1960s era icons in fact allowed the development of a chaotic array of outlandish and independent voices marginalized communities and energetic sometimes bizarre visions that thrived during the stagnant 1970s Fallon s narrative describes and celebrates through twelve thematically arranged chapters the wide range of intriguing artists and the world not just the objects they created He reveals the deeper more culturally dynamic truth about a significant moment in American art history presenting an alternative story of stubborn creativity in the face of widespread ignorance and misapprehension among the art cognoscenti who dismissed the 1970s in Los Angeles as a time of dissipation and decline Coming into being right before their eyes was an ardent local feminist art movement which had lasting influence on the direction of art across the nation an emerging Chicano Art movement spreading Chicano murals across Los Angeles and to other major cities a new and more modern vision for the role and look of public art a slow consolidation of local street sensibilities car fetishism gang and punk aesthetics into the earliest version of what would later become the Lowbrow art movement the subversive co opting in full view of Pop Art of the values aesthetics and imagery of Tinseltown by a number of young and innovative local artists who would go on to greater national renown and a number of independent voices who lacking the support structures of an art movement or artist cohort pursued their brilliant artistic visions in near isolation Despite the lack of attention these artists would later reemerge as visionary signposts to many later trends in art Their work would prove more interesting more lastingly influential and vastly more important than ever imagined or expected by those who saw it or even by those who created it in 1970 s Los Angeles

Creating the Future is a visionary work that seeks to recapture this important decade and its influence on today s generation of artists The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones,2017-06-01 Global biennials have proliferated in the contemporary art world but artists engagement with large scale international exhibitions has a much longer history that has influenced the present in important ways Going back to the earliest world s fairs in the nineteenth century this book argues that globalism was incubated in a century of international art contests and today constitutes an important tactic for artists As world s fairs brought millions of attendees into contact with foreign cultures products and processes artworks became juxtaposed in a theater of nations which challenged artists and critics to think outside their local academies From Gustave Courbet s rebel pavilion near the official art exhibit at the 1855 French World s Fair to curator Beryl Madra s choice of London based Cypriot Hussein Chalayan for the off site Turkish pavilion at the 2006 Venice Biennale artists have used these exhibitions to reflect on contemporary art speak to their own governments back home and challenge the wider geopolitical realm changing art and art history along the way Ultimately Caroline A Jones argues the modern appetite for experience and event structures which were cultivated around the art at these earlier expositions have now come to constitute contemporary art itself producing encounters that transform the public and force us to reflect critically on the global condition When Attitudes Become Form ,2013 Doug Wheeler Doug Wheeler,2020-01-07 Over five decades Doug Wheeler has pioneered the art of light and space His work powerfully explores the way we perceive empty space the way light can affect our perception and make emptiness feel full and dense From his early experiences flying across the desert with his father a doctor in Globe Arizona Wheeler developed a passion for the intensity and stillness of vast expanses seeing in them a whole new set of possibilities for visual art Although Wheeler began his career as a painter his wall mounted artworks soon began incorporating light as a medium and quickly gave way to an unprecedented art historical breakthrough his construction of an absolute light environment crafted in his studio in 1967 Since that unparalleled moment Wheeler s work has been exhibited widely all over the world in the past decade with numerous major gallery and museum installations his reputation as the definitive light and space artist has been solidified This volume featuring new scholarship by renowned art historian Germano Celant traces the entire course of Wheeler s career to date from his first mature paintings to his immersive installations Writing on Wheeler s intense and direct engagement with the absoluteness in the optical fields he creates Celant provides a detailed account for Wheeler s development as one of the most original and influential artists of his generation Wheeler s work not only changes how we encounter reality after we see it but also how we envision what is possible more broadly in visual art

Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin,2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies
