Wide Sargasso Sea Full:

Jean Rhys Helen Carr,2012 This is a lucid and attractively written study of Jean Rhys whose critical reputation continues to rise after long neglect Women in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium Ya-chen Chen,2012-04-12 Women and Gender in Chinese Martial Arts Films of the New Millennium by Ya chen Chen is an excavation of underexposed gender issues focusing mainly on contradictory and troubled feminism in the film narratives In the cinematic world of martial arts films one can easily find representations of women of Ancient China released from the constraints of patriarchal social order to revel in a dreamlike space of their own They can develop themselves protect themselves and even defeat or conquer men This world not only frees women from the convention of foot binding but it also unbinds them in terms of education critical thinking talent ambition opportunities to socialize with different men and the freedom or right to both choose their spouse and decide their own fate Chen calls this phenomenon Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The liberation is never sustaining or complete however Chen reveals the presence of a glass ceiling marking the maximal exercise of feminism and women s rights which the patriarchal order is willing to accept As such these films are not to be seen as celebrations of feminist liberation but as enunciations of the patriarchal authority that suffuses Chinese cinematic martial arts feminism The film narratives under examination include Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon directed by Ang Lee Hero Zhang Yimou House of the Flying Daggers Zhang Yimou Seven Swords Tsui Hark The Promise Chen Kaige The Banquet Feng Xiaogang and Curst of the Golden Flower Zhang Yimou Chen also touches upon the plots of two of the earliest award winning Chinese martial arts films A Touch of Zen and Legend of the Mountain both directed by King Hu The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock,2022-01-01 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years Smuggling in titles from Scotland Ireland and the Caribbean he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War some well known but others less so placing them in their historical context Novelists represented range from D H Lawrence E M Forster and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene Kingsley Amis and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan Maggie O Farrell and Graham Swift Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm Lovelock s innovative selection perceptive analysis and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader the book club member and the student He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process and while he mainly avoids the critical isms that have characterised recent academic debate he introduces such concepts as intertextuality metafiction and the role of the often unreliable narrator showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment The Caribbean Integration Process Kenneth O. Hall,Myrtle Chuck-A-Sang,2007 Ever since the collapse of the West Indies Federation in 1958 debate has raged on the subject of regional integration In this collection the contributors illustrate that Caribbean people s similarities far outweigh any drawbacks from their diversity The survival and success of regional institutions in health social services youth empowerment education and agriculture among others have served to create a common bond of understanding and appreciation of the oneness of the Caribbean people While the regional integration movement is primarily an institutional activity its success will depend largely on the impact on the people of the region by these institutions The contributors argue that an approach which puts people at the centre of development is necessary for the construction and effective functioning of the CARICOM Single Market and Economy the linchpin of Caribbean survival in the new globalized dispensation #MeToo and Modernism Robin E. Field, Jerrica Jordan, 2023-01-16 MeToo and Modernism offers a blend of cultural historical literary and pedagogical responses applied to the themes behind today's ongoing MeToo Movement This volume is organized into four sections a three part chronological response in which scholars analyze literary understandings of how ripples of the MeToo Movement began to emerge in Modernist literature followed by a pedagogical section on how to incorporate such teachings in university classrooms Editors Robin E Field and Jerrica Jordan foreword the collection with an introduction answering the question of why such a volume is necessary in today's educational landscape The introduction summarizes the current scholarship regarding MeToo and Modernism while also uncovering the omissions particularly in approaching nonbinary or queer writers as well as writers of color that still exist as a response many of these essays attempt to approach these gaps Furthermore the introduction shows how more traditional Modernist writers including Woolf Forster Wells and Joyce served as forerunners of early glimmers of the MeToo Movement in Modernist Literature A Biocultural Approach to Literary Theory and Interpretation Nancy Easterlin, 2012-05-31 Combining cognitive and evolutionary research with traditional humanist methods Nancy Easterlin demonstrates how a biocultural perspective in theory and criticism opens up new possibilities for literary interpretation Easterlin maintains that the practice of literary interpretation is still of central intellectual and social value Taking an open yet judicious approach she argues however that literary interpretation stands to gain dramatically from a fair minded and creative application of cognitive and evolutionary research This work does just that expounding a biocultural method that charts a middle course between overly reductive approaches to literature and traditionalists who see the sciences as a threat to the humanities Easterlin develops her biocultural method by comparing it to four major subfields within literary studies new historicism ecocriticism cognitive approaches and evolutionary approaches After a thorough review of each subfield she reconsiders them in light of relevant research in cognitive and evolutionary psychology and provides a textual analysis of literary works from the romantic era to the present including William Wordsworth's Simon Lee and the Lucy poems Mary Robinson's Old Barnard Samuel Taylor Coleridge's Dejection An Ode D H Lawrence's The Fox Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea and Raymond Carver's I Could See the Smallest Things A Biocultural Approach to Literary Theory and Interpretation offers a fresh and reasoned approach to literary studies that at once preserves the central importance that interpretation plays in the humanities and embraces the exciting developments of the cognitive sciences Here and Elsewhere Gerald Guinness, 1993 Through the essays included in this text we can attest to

Gerald Guinness stature as an intelligent innovative WHAT DID HE SAY WHAT DID HE MEAN THE ETHNOGRAPHY OF DISCOURSE IN PUERTO RICO

The Passage of Literature Christopher GoGwilt, 2011-01-27 Through a set of comparative studies of the fiction of Joseph Conrad Jean Rhys and Pramodya Ananta Toer The Passage of Literature explains the interrelation between English Creole and Indonesian formations of literary modernism arguing that each passage of literature is the site of contest between competing genealogies of culture

Creole Crossings Carolyn Vellenga Berman, 2018-07-05 The character of the Creole woman the descendant of settlers or slaves brought up on the colonial frontier is a familiar one in nineteenth century French British and American literature In Creole Crossings Carolyn Vellenga Berman examines the use of this recurring figure in such canonical novels as Jane Eyre Uncle Tom's Cabin and Indiana as well as in the antislavery discourse of the period Creole in its etymological sense means brought up domestically and Berman shows how the campaign to reform slavery in the colonies converged with literary depictions of family life Illuminating a literary genealogy that crosses political familial and linguistic lines Creole Crossings reveals how racial sexual and moral boundaries continually shifted as the century's writers reflected on the realities of slavery empire and the home front Berman offers compelling readings of the domestic fiction of Honor de Balzac Charlotte Brontë Maria Edgeworth Harriet Jacobs George Sand Harriet Beecher Stowe and others alongside travel narratives parliamentary reports medical texts journalism and encyclopedias Focusing on a neglected social classification in both fiction and nonfiction Creole Crossings establishes the crucial importance of the Creole character as a marker of sexual norms and national belonging

Neo-Victorian Cannibalism Tammy Lai-Ming Ho, 2019-02-04 This Pivot examines a body of contemporary neo Victorian novels whose uneasy relationship with the past can be theorised in terms of aggressive eating including cannibalism Not only is the imagery of eating repeatedly used by critics to comprehend neo Victorian literature the theme of cannibalism itself also appears overtly or implicitly in a number of the novels and their Victorian prototypes thereby mirroring the cannibalistic relationship between the contemporary and the Victorian Tammy Lai Ming Ho argues that aggressive eating or cannibalism can be seen as a pathological and defining characteristic of neo Victorian fiction demonstrating how cannibalism provides a framework for understanding the genre's origin its conflicted ambivalent and violent relationship with its Victorian predecessors and the grotesque and gothic effects that it generates in its fiction

Critical Perspectives on Jean Rhys Pierrette M. Frickey, 1990 Rhys acclaimed author of Wide Sargasso Sea Quartet and other novels treating the alienation of a woman from the Caribbean living in European settings has been a focus of interest both as a feminist writer and in the context of Caribbean literature
