Three Faces: a Memoir Joshua Wendell Hayes , My own detailed account of the first two years I spent as a non consensual human experiment in what I believe is an illegal behavioral modification program run by God knows who using electronic weapons such as remote neural monitoring and synthetic telepathy There are many of us who are forced to adjust to a reality we're not used to living in Yes it is lonely yes it is painful yet it is as real as it's ever going to get At first there was anger and confusion but that gave way to understanding and then finally acceptance They have our minds online and once connected they're not going to stop until they get what they want out of our brains You are what you believe you are

Exploring the Planets Fred Taylor, 2016-02-25 The planets fascinate us and naturally we care about our own Earth and things like how well we can forecast the weather and whether climate is really changing Exploring the Planets offers a personal account on how the space programme evolved It begins in the era of the first blurry views of our Earth as seen from space and ends with current plans for sophisticated robots on places as near as our neighbours Venus and Mars and as far away as the rainy lakelands of Saturn s planet sized moon Titan Examining the scientific goals of these complex voyages of discovery and the joys and hardships of working to achieve them The Space Age is now about 50 years old and for those lucky enough to be part of it at its inception it s filled a worklong lifetime Today several satellites around the Earth have studied the atmosphere and the climate using instruments on board that the author helped design and build Deep space missions were embarked upon to visit the planets all of the major bodies six planets the Moon and minor bodies asteroids and comets of the classical Solar System have been scrutinised close up by experiments built in various laboratories worldwide Most of the narrative is based on the author s experiences at the world s space agencies research labs and conferences and at other places as diverse as Cape Canaveral and No 10 Downing Street The Shatterproof Heart

Loretta Lost,2017-04-18 Sophie Shields has been captured by the man she s been trying to escape for most of her life This time no one can save her Not even Cole Benjamin Powell is the powerful politician who molested Sophie when she was only a child She changed her name her hair color and moved across the country multiple times to get away from him but her enemy has been intent on finding her And when he finally has her in his grasp he will make her pay for abandoning him and leaving him crippled Unless Snow can stop him But this man is so evil that even Snow the violent unhinged fearless part of Sophie begins to feel afraid Will Sophie ever break free and see Cole again Dialogue (Write Great Fiction) Gloria

Kempton,2004-10-12 Craft Compelling Dialogue When should your character talk what should or shouldn t he say and when should he say it How do you know when dialogue or the lack thereof is dragging down your scene How do you fix a character who speaks without the laconic wit of the Terminator Write Great Fiction Dialogue by successful author and instructor Gloria Kempton has the answers to all of these questions and more It s packed with innovative exercises and instruction designed to teach you how to Create dialogue that drives the story Weave dialogue with narrative and action Write dialogue that fits specific genres Avoid the common pitfalls of writing dialogue Make dialogue unique for each character Along with dozens of dialogue excerpts from today s most popular writers Write Great Fiction Dialogue gives you the edge you need to make your story stand out from the rest The Mammoth Book of Best New SF 22 Gardner Dozois,2009-09-10 Widely acclaimed as

Frank Hegyi Award for Emerging Authors Tim Bosma was a happy young father with a promising future when he listed his pickup truck for sale online went for a test drive with two strangers and never returned The story of the Hamilton man s strange disappearance in May 2013 captured headlines across the country and took over social media resonating with everyone who had ever taken a test drive or bought and sold goods online When Dellen Millard and Mark Smich were eventually arrested and charged with Bosma s murder the mystery only deepened Millard was the wealthy heir to an aviation business Smich was his ne er do well best friend from a middle class family There was no obvious reason why the pair had made it their deadly mission to steal a truck murder its owner and incinerate the body Tim Bosma was their randomly chosen thrill kill target Veteran journalist and private investigator Ann Brocklehurst had a front row seat at Millard s and Smich s 2016 trial where many of the questions about their shocking crime were finally answered Others still linger waiting to be further explained at two more murder trials set for 2017 Both Millard and Smich have been charged with the first degree murder of Laura Babcock who disappeared in summer 2012 And Millard alone faces murder charges in the death of his father which previously has been ruled a suicide Compelling and suspenseful Dark Ambition chronicles an unfathomable crime and its chilling perpetrators Riveted Jim Davies, 2014-08-05 Why do some things pass under the radar of our attention but other things capture our interest Why do some religions catch on and others fade away What makes a story a movie or a book riveting Why do some people keep watching the news even though it makes them anxious The past 20 years have seen a remarkable flourishing of scientific research into exactly these kinds of questions Professor Jim Davies fascinating and highly accessible book Riveted reveals the evolutionary underpinnings of why we find things compelling from art to religion and from sports to superstition Compelling things fit our minds like keys in the ignition turning us on and keeping us running and yet we are often unaware of what makes these keys fit What we like and don t like is almost always determined by subconscious forces and when we try to consciously predict our own preferences we re often wrong In one study of speed dating people were asked what kinds of partners they found attractive When the results came back the participants answers before the exercise had no correlation with who they actually found attractive in person We are beginning to understand just how much the brain makes our decisions for us we are rewarded with a rush of pleasure when we detect patterns as the brain thinks we ve discovered something significant the mind urges us to linger on the news channel or rubberneck an accident in case it might pick up important survival information it even pushes us to pick up People magazine in order to find out about changes in the social structure Drawing on work from philosophy anthropology religious studies psychology economics computer science and biology Davies offers a comprehensive explanation to show that in spite of the differences between the many things that we find compelling they have similar effects on our minds and brains

The Top Books of the Year Wizards First Rule Terry Goodkind The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Wizards First Rule Terry Goodkind : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
