Essays on World Religious Thoughts Hyacinth Kalu, 2011-06-13 This book is a collection of essays on religious thoughts across various religious traditions and belief systems in the world. It covers essays on Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity, Islam, African Traditional Religion, Mythology, and Philosophy of Religion from a comparative perspective. It offers the reader an insight into the thoughts of these religions where they relate to each other and how they differ from each other because of many factors which include cultural background. An understanding of this nature is very important in interfaith, interreligious, and intra religious relationships aimed at fostering better understanding and appreciation of our diversities towards building harmonious relationships among followers of various religions thereby reducing religious global tensions occasioned by intolerance, misunderstanding, and/or ignorance of other peoples religious beliefs and traditions. Six

Stages on the Spiritual Path Ruth Whitney, 2021-05-21 In Six Stages on the Spiritual Path we learn about spirituality and its stages as well as how spirituality helps to reduce our suffering and create more love. Writings from ancient to contemporary mystics across the world provide us with practical and spiritual wisdom that will make our lives happier and more loving. In the first stage on the mystic way, children experience awe and wonder but they do not realize that this is a spiritual experience. While all indigenous people recognize awe as a mystical experience, only some adults and most artists do. When parents and religious leaders teach children about God, they cause their spiritual growth to flourish or to become stunted at an elementary school level. Awakening is an experience of the Divine that helps us realize that the Sacred Spirit is within us and loves us. Awakening produces love for our neighbors and ourselves. Then love nurtures more awakenings. Illumination and union are deeper mystical experiences that the Holy One is not only within all of us and all of creation but also that we are within the ONE. Illumination creates more love for all people and all the universe. Religion in History / La religion dans l'histoire Michel Despland, Gérard Vallée, 1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years. This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate. Three of the invited participants, W. C. Smith, M. Despland, and E. Feil, have each previously written impressive books treating this subject. The last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith's work. The Meaning and End of Religion: An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith's contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature. Contributors then examine the transformation of words, the classical religion to the modern religion, particularities of religion in nineteenth-century France, Troeltsch's concept of religion, the study of religion from an Asian point of view, and the categorization of World Religions. The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological, cross-disciplinary, semiological, deconstructive, and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion. Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion, these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological
