The Patchwork of World History in Texas High Schools Stephen Jackson,2022-11-30 This book traces the historical development of the World History course as it has been taught in high school classrooms in Texas a populous and nationally influential state over the last hundred years Arguing that the course is a result of a patchwork of competing groups and ideas that have intersected over the past century with each new framework patched over but never completely erased or replaced the author crucially examines themes of imperialism Eurocentrism and nationalism in both textbooks and the curriculum more broadly The first part of the book presents an overview of the World History course supported by numerical analysis of textbook content and public documents while the second focuses on the depiction of non Western peoples and persistent narratives of Eurocentrism and nationalism It ultimately offers that a more global accurate and balanced curriculum is possible despite the tension between the ideas of professional world historians who often de center the nation state in their quest for a truly global approach to the subject and the historical core rationale of state sponsored education in the United States to produce loyal citizens Offering a new conceptual understanding of how colonial themes in World History curriculum have been dealt with in the past and are now engaged with in contemporary times it provides essential context for scholars and educators with interests in the history of education curriculum studies and the teaching of World History in the United States

Chinese-Western Intimacy and Marriage Bo Qin, 2014-02-21 In the era of the global village intercultural marriage between different races and nationalities is frequent The existence of intercultural marriages and intimacy between Chinese and Westerners is evident and expanding in societies throughout both China and the Western world Although marriage is a very private affair for the individuals who participate in it it also reflects and connects with many complex factors such as economic development culture differences political backgrounds and transition of traditions in both China and the Western world As a result an ordinary marriage between a Chinese person and a Westerner is actually an episode in a sociological grand narrative By employing a three dimensional multi level theoretical framework based on an integration of theories of migration sociology and gender and adopting a qualitative research paradigm this book aims to present a true picture of Chinese Western Intercultural Marriage with a focus on the Chinese perspective and the main body of this study combines three theoretical approaches in order to explore the intercultural marriage fully using a panoramic view By examining the history reality and the conflicts of Chinese Western intercultural marriage this books tries to find the connections between the micro private affairs and the macro national power and seeks the possibilities to construct the explanatory mechanism from macro reality nation state race to micro variables intercultural marriage It provides an academic perspective of producing the general knowledge on the basis of constructing a local knowledge In this way this study will provide more than an anecdotal description of Chinese Western Intercultural marriage but will present a profound analysis of the forces underpinning this cross cultural phenomenon Dr Qin Bo obtained his PhD in Sociology from the University College Cork National University of Ireland in 2012 He is a lecturer at the Party School of Sichuan Committee of the Communist Party of China in Chengdu and a Post doctoral Fellow of Fudan University in Shanghai

1979 David W. Lesch,2019-05-20 The Israeli Palestinian peace process the continuing US Iraqi confrontation the changing political dynamics in Iran recent Pakistani Indian hostilities and Osama bin Laden all of these have one important common denominator Significant strands of their origins can be traced to the tumultuous year of 1979 This text offers a new paradigm for stud Paradise Discourse, Imperialism, and Globalization Sharae Deckard,2009-12-04 In this volume Deckard analyzes authors such as Malcolm Lowry Leonard Woolf Juan Rulfo Wilson Harris Abdulrazak Gurnah and Romesh Gunsekera to make a materialist study of the relation between paradise myths and the ideologies and economies of colonialism and neo imperialism in literature from Mexico Zanzibar and Sri Lanka

Hollywood or History? Scott L. Roberts,Charles J. Elfer,2021-01-01 The challenges of teaching history are acute where we consider the world history classroom Generalized world history courses are a part of many if not most K 12 curricular frameworks in the United States While United States history tends to dominate the scholarship and conversation there are an equally wide number of middle level and secondary students and teachers engaged in the study of world history in our public schools And the challenges are real In the first place if we are to mark content coverage as a curricular obstacle in the history classroom generally then we must underscore that concern in the world history classroom and for obvious reasons The curricular terrain to choose from is immense and forever expanding dealing with the development of numerous civilizations over millennia and across a wide geographic expanse In addition to curricular concerns world historical topics are inherently farther away from most students lives not just temporally but often geographically and culturally Thus the rationale for the present text Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for

Using Film to Teach World History The reviews of the first volume Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Teach United States History strategy have been overwhelmingly positive especially as it pertains to the application of the strategy for practitioner Classroom utility and teacher practice have remained our primary objectives in developing the Hollywood or History strategy and we are encouraged by the possibilities of Volume II and the capacity of this most recent text to impact teaching and learning in world history We believe that students connection to film along with teachers ability to use film in an effective manner will help alleviate some of the challenges of teaching world history The book provides 30 secondary lesson plans grades 6 12 that address nine eras in world history Ancient Chinese Government and

Geography Avery Elizabeth Hurt, 2016-07-15 China is a massive country but its surrounding mountains two seas and hazardous deserts kept it fairly secluded In fact early Chinese referred to it the Middle Kingdom or the center of the world China s major geographical features shaped so many aspects of life in ancient China including how the various civilizations developed their social organization and the food they grew and raised This illuminating resource reveals how the different ancient Chinese dynasties worked with and made the most of their harsh conditions Land, Power, and the Sacred Janet R. Goodwin, Joan R. Piggott, 2018-07-31 Landed estates sh en produced much of the material wealth supporting all levels of late classical and medieval Japanese society During the tenth through sixteenth centuries estates served as sites of de facto government trade network nodes developing agricultural technology and centers of religious practice and ritual Although mostly farmland many yielded nonagricultural products including lumber salt fish and silk and provided livelihoods for craftsmen seafarers peddlers and performers as well as for cultivators By the twelfth century an estate system permeated much of the Japanese archipelago This volume examines the system from three perspectives the land itself the power derived from and exerted over the land and the religion institutions and individuals that were involved in landholding practices Chapters by Japanese and Western scholars explore how the estate system arose developed and eventually collapsed Several investigate a single estate or focus on agricultural techniques while others survey estates in broad contexts such as economic change and maritime trade Other chapters look at how we learn about estates by inspecting documents landscape features archaeological remains and extant buildings and images how representatives of every social stratum worked together to make the land productive and conversely how cooperative arrangements failed and rivals battled one another making conflict as well as collaboration a hallmark of the system On a more personal level we follow the monk Ch gen s restoration of be Estate and his installation of a famous Amida triad in a temple he built on the premises the strategies of royal ladies J saimon in Hachij in and K kamon in as they strove to keep their landholdings viable and the murder of estate official Gor zaemon whose own neighbors killed him as a result of a much larger dispute between two powerful warrior families Land Power and the Sacred represents a significant expansion and revision of our knowledge of medieval Japanese estates A range of readers will welcome the primary source research and comparative perspectives it offers those who do not specialize in Japanese medieval history but recognize the value of teaching the history of estates will find a chapter devoted to the topic invaluable
