Inclusive Screenwriting for Film and Television Jess King, 2022-05-16 Breaking down the traditional structures of screenplays in an innovative and progressive way while also investigating the ways in which screenplays have been traditionally told this book interrogates how screenplays can be written to reflect the diverse life experiences of real people Author Jess King explores how existing paradigms of screenplays often exclude the very people watching films and TV today Taking aspects such as characterization screenplay structure and world building King offers ways to ensure your screenplays are inclusive and allow for every person's story to be heard In addition to examples ranging from Sorry to Bother You to Portrait of a Lady on Fire four case studies on Killing Eve Sense8 I May Destroy You and Vida ground the theoretical work in practical application The book highlights the ways in which screenplays can authentically represent and uplift the lived experiences of those so often left out of the narrative such as the LGBTQIA community women and people of color The book addresses a current demand for more inclusive and progressive representation in film and TV and equips screenwriters with the tools to ensure their screenplays tell authentic stories offering innovative ways to reimagine current screenwriting practice towards radical equity and inclusion This is a timely and necessary book that brings the critical lenses of gender studies queer theory and critical race studies to bear on the practice of screenwriting ideal for students of screenwriting aspiring screenwriters and industry professionals alike

Transcultural Screenwriting Carmen Sofia Brenes, Patrick Cattrysse, Margaret McVeigh, 2017-05-11 The world in which we live and work today has created new working conditions where storytellers screenwriters and filmmakers collaborate with colleagues from other countries and cultures This involves new challenges regarding the practice of transcultural screenwriting and the study of writing screenplays in a multi cultural environment Globalisation and its imperatives have seen the film co production emerge as a means of sharing production costs and creating stories that reach transnational audiences Transcultural Screenwriting Telling Stories for a Global World provides an interdisciplinary approach to the study of screenwriting as a creative process by integrating the fields of film and TV production studies screenwriting studies narrative studies rhetorics transnational cinema studies and intercultural communication studies The book applies the emerging theoretical lens of transcultural studies to open new perspectives in the debate around notions of transnationalism imperialism and globalisation particularly in the screenwriting context and to build stronger links across academic disciplines This volume combines methods for studying as well as methods for doing It draws on case studies and testimonials from writers from all over the globe including South America Europe and Asia Transcultural Screenwriting Telling Stories for a Global World is characterised by its scope broad relevance and emphasis on key aspects of screenwriting in an international environment

Novel Preaching Alyce M. McKenzie, 2010-02-01 In this lively and accessible book Alyce McKenzie explores how fiction writers approach the task of writing novels how they develop their ideas where they find their inspiration and how they turn the spark of a creative notion into words on paper that will captivate the masses McKenzie s study shows how preachers can use the same techniques to enhance their own creativity and to turn their ideas into powerful well crafted sermons Novel Preaching offers a wealth of advice from successful fiction writers including Isabelle Allende Frederick Buechner Julia Cameron Annie Dillard Natalie Goldberg Stephen King Toni Morrison Joyce Carol Oates and Melanie Rae Thorn and also includes a number of sample sermons from McKenzie herself
