until it consumed my entire spirit I would not rest I could not be satisfied until I had satisfied that hunger deep in my soul for the Oriental Fighting Arts particularly the Korean Killing art of Taekwondo It was not until a few years later when I was a cadet at the U S Coast Guard Academy USCGA that the implications of the incident really hit home I had been attending at an all white college and had access to a well stocked library not like the small library at Woodstock High The Woodstock library had little more than a few magazines news papers periodicals and Readers Digest Condensed Books The more I used the library at the USCGA the more I became aware of the great deprivation that I had suffered in high school in Memphis TN As a natural result Taekwondo and books became my passions I read everything I could get my hands on I purchased books on the martial arts and began to teach myself Taekwondo I was sdetermined but it was hopeless I was fighting a losing battle You cannot learn Taekwondo from a book You need a teacher a master teacher would be better After I graduated from the USCGA in 1968 and was stationed in Long Beach California I enrolled in Chuck Norris Tang Soo Do School in Redondo Beach CA When I was transferred to Juneau Alaska in 1970 I started teaching karate at Zack Gordan s Teen Center in Juneau I went on to study other styles of martial arts I studied Japanese and Chinese fighting arts When my family moved to Hungary I studied International Taekwondo Federation ITF Taekwondo Kung Fu and Tai Chi I fought Ed Parker s karate tournaments in California Eventually I fought full contact matches without protective gear wearing only boxing gloves In 1972 I fought in an Army Navy Marine Corps Open Invitational at the National Naval Medical Center In that tournament we wore heavily padded Kendo gloves helmets and chest gear I won two First Place Trophies in sparring and Forms Competition I was promoted to First Degree Black Belt in June 2012 I made Second Degree or Second Dan in October 2014 And in April 2017 I was promoted to Third Degree or Third Dan

Stories of the Black Belts is unfortunately only a partial story It s partial because I don t have all of the thousands of Black Belts we have trained since 1995 in here and more importantly because it s only a snapshot It s just one moment in time where each Black Belt as a requirement to become a first degree or second or third degree or higher Black Belt needed to take a moment and write an essay about What Karate Means To Me While many of these Black Belts are still training and I know their current story in the last two and a half decades I would love to know what all of their now stories are Actually I do know many of their successes but it s hard to get the practicing lawyer or the M D or one of the entrepreneurs to stop for a minute and write an essay for our book But we re going to add some in future additions Nevertheless in the pages here are I feel inspiring and motivating stories about students who started on the martial arts journey as young as 3 years old and some as old as 93 Most began so they could get stronger gain discipline build confidence or even learn to defend themselves the primary reasons students enter the dojang the Korean word for martial arts school Yet you ll see in their essays that they received much more than this My instructor told a story about his instructor s instructor receiving a candle and a bar of soap from his instructor The candle was to signify that as the instructor gave knowledge represented by the light that they were sacrificing themselves signified by the candle getting used up and shrinking The bar of soap was a reminder to keep the mind clean and focused To me this book and seeing the Stories of the Black Belts is a way to rebuild the candle and focus the mind on what matters because of what the students create out of what we do My hope is reading some of these stories will inspire you on your next journey with us in martial arts or to whatever great successes are next My Code of Combat Adam Gold,2019-01-14 My Code of Combat Vol 1 followed the journey of Adam Gold a lifelong martial artist from white to black belt and all the feelings emotions and happenings that occurred along the way My Code of Combat Black belt and Beyond recounts Adam s story after achieving his black belt using real life experiences combined with the author s growing knowledge of business to give a useful overview of how to open your own martial arts club as well as advice to the new prospective student on how to find an instructor who is reputable and legitimate My Code of Combat Black Belt and Beyond combines humorous anecdotes with practical advice information and opinions from a professional instructor of several styles of martial art that is as useful to the prospective new student as it is to the experienced instructor
