Whiteness and White Privilege in Psychotherapy Andrea Dottolo, Ellyn Kaschak, 2018-02-02 This unprecedented interdisciplinary collection focuses on gender whiteness and white privilege and sheds light on this understudied subject matter in the context of clinical psychology in both theories and applications Psychologists especially therapists are often trained to look for issues that are not readily visible cannot be spoken and that are commonly taken for granted Feminist and multi cultural researchers and practitioners further seek to expose the power structures that benefit them or that unfairly advantage some groups over others Whiteness has been investigated by sociologists and critical race theorists but has been largely overlooked by psychologists and psychotherapists even those who deal with feminist and multi cultural issues This volume explores the ways in which gender whiteness and white privilege intersect in the therapy room bringing to light that which is often unseen and thus unnamed while examining issues of epistemology theory supervision and practice in feminist therapies The various contributions encompass theory history empirical research personal reflections and practical teaching strategies for the classroom The authors remind us that whiteness and other forms of privilege are situated among multiple other forces structures identities and experiences and cannot be examined alone without context This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy      The Person of the Therapist Training Model Harry J. Aponte, Karni Kissil, 2016-01-08 The Person of the Therapist Training Model presents a model that prepares therapists to make active and purposeful use of who they are personally and professionally in all aspects of the therapeutic process relationship assessment and intervention The authors take a process that seems vague and elusive the self of the therapist work and provide a step by step description of how to conceptualize structure and implement a training program designed to facilitate the creation of effective therapists who are skilled at using their whole selves in their encounters with clients This book looks to make conscious and planned use of a therapist's race gender culture values life experience and in particular personal vulnerabilities and struggles in how he or she relates and works with clients This evidence supported resource is ideal for clinicians supervisors and training programs      Nursing Leadership, Management, and Professional Practice for the LPN/LVN Tamara Dahlkemper, 2017-06-01 Be prepared for the opportunities that await you In today's healthcare environment the responsibilities and clinical practice of Licensed Practical Nurses and Licensed Vocational Nurses have expanded far beyond those of traditional settings Build the knowledge you need to assume the leadership and management roles that you will be asked to fulfill and confidently navigate the increasingly complex environments in which you will practice An easy to read writing style guides you every step of the way helping you successfully transition from student to professional while still focusing on the humanistic aspects of caring      Writing a Research Paper in Political Science Lisa A. Baglione, 2018-12-31 Even students capable of writing excellent essays still find their first major political science research paper an intimidating experience Crafting the right research question finding good sources properly summarizing them operationalizing concepts and designing good tests for their hypotheses presenting and analyzing quantitative as well as qualitative data are all tough going without a great deal of guidance and encouragement Writing a Research Paper in Political Science breaks down the research paper into its constituent parts and shows students what they need to do at each stage to successfully complete each component until the paper is finished Practical summaries recipes for success worksheets exercises and a series of handy checklists make this a must have supplement for any writing intensive political science course New to the Fourth Edition A non causal research paper woven throughout the text offers explicit advice to guide students through the research and writing process Updated and more detailed discussions of plagiarism paraphrases drop ins and transcripts help to prevent students from misusing sources in a constantly changing digital age A more detailed discussion of fake news and disinformation shows students how to evaluate and choose high quality sources as well as how to protect oneself from being fooled by bad sources Additional guidance for writing abstracts and creating presentations helps students to understand the logic behind abstracts and prepares students for presentations in the classroom at a conference and beyond A greater emphasis on the value of qualitative research provides students with additional instruction on how to do it
