Assembling Archaeology Hannah Cobb, Karina Croucher, 2020-04-22 Assembling Archaeology provides a radical rethinking of the relationships between teaching researching digging and practicing as an archaeologist in the 21st century The issues addressed here are global and applicable wherever archaeology is taught practiced and researched At its heart this book addresses the undervaluation of teaching demonstrating that this affects the fundamentals of contemporary archaeological practice and is particularly connected to the lack of diversity in disciplinary demographics It proposes a solution which is grounded in a theoretical rethinking of archaeological teaching training and practice by advocating a holistic assemblage approach which challenges traditional power structures and the global marketization of the higher education system Drawing on insights from archaeology's current material turn this book approaches the discipline as a subject of investigation and offers a new perspective founded upon the notion of the learning assemblage which resituates teaching and learning as a central focus and contributes to broader discourses on critical pedagogy and rhizomatic learning It ultimately argues for a robust archaeological pedagogy that is rooted in and emergent from the material realities of the profession and will be valuable to everyone from academia to Cultural Resource Management CRM heritage professional to undergraduate student

Overrepresentation of Immigrants in Special Education / Die Überrepräsentation von MigrantInnen in der Sonderpädagogik Seyda Subasi Singh, 2020 Dieses Buch diskutiert die Überrepräsentation von SchülerInnen mit Migrationshintergrund mit sonderpädagogischem Förderbedarf wobei in der Studie SchülerInnen mit türkischem Hintergrund im Mittelpunkt stehen Es wird versucht Raum für die Zusammenführung von Erfahrungen aus erster Hand zu schaffen um die Komplexität des Überweisungsprozesses anzugehen und ein Verständnis zu entwickeln das über die Vereinfachung und lineare Erklärungen für die Überrepräsentation von SchülerInnen mit Migrationshintergrund in nicht vielversprechenden Schulen hinausgeht This book discusses the overrepresented referral of students from a migrant background to special education by concentrating on the case of students from a Turkish background in Austria It attempts to open space for bringing first hand experiences together to address the complexity of the referral process and to develop an understanding that goes beyond oversimplification and linear explanations for the overrepresentation of students from a migrant background in lowpromising schools

The Relational Ethics of Narrative Inquiry D. Jean Clandinin, Vera Caine, Sean Lessard, 2018-03-15 Narrative inquiry is based on the proposition that experience is the stories lived and told by individuals as they are embedded within cultural social institutional familial political and linguistic narratives It represents the phenomenon of experience but also constitutes a methodology for its study At the heart of this methodology is relational ethics However until now the functioning of this key relationship in practice has remained largely undefined In this book the authors take on the essential task of developing a conceptual framework for the application of relational ethics to narrative inquiry Building on a corpus of more generalized research this book is grounded in a multi year study with indigenous youth and families The authors describe their experiences of narrative inquiry highlighting how relational ethics informed their negotiation of these research relationships They also engage in a conversation with the work of philosophers who have guided their narrative inquiry to offer a more thorough understanding of relational ethics Through this and contributions from five further studies on a diverse range of subjects a number of key points for successful relational ethics are isolated and expounded upon This book is an invaluable tool for researchers and postgraduates engaged in qualitative research providing clear and practical guidance on ethical concerns It also extends the work of the authors two previous titles

Engaging in Narrative Inquiry and Engaging in Narrative Inquiries with Children and Youth Inclusive Primary Teaching Janet Goepel, Helen Childerhouse, Sheila Sharpe, 2025-02-28 This is an invaluable and fully updated text on inclusive practice for all primary trainees and teachers and for those working towards the National Award SEN Co ordination It provides an equality and child centred approach to inclusion combining both theory and practice while promoting critical thinking about the complex issues involved Scenarios are used as the basis for unpicking major topics and provide opportunities for learning in context while questions and reflections encourage deep thinking about key learning points This second edition has been fully revised throughout and now includes full reference to the new Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 2014 as well as the Children and Families Act 2014 and Behaviour2Learn two completely new chapters on understanding learners who are vulnerable and understanding learners with communication difficulties extended thinking activities and extended reflections to support M level study an improved organisation with emphasis on the national priorities

Building Community to Create Equitable, Inclusive and Compassionate Schools through Relational Approaches Joan G Mowat, 2022-11-30 This book draws on an extensive international literature and policy context from a wide range of fields of enquiry to challenge the orthodoxies and systemic issues that serve to marginalise children and young people and lead the way for schools to become more equitable inclusive and compassionate in their practice With a particular focus on children with social emotional and behavioural mental health needs it critiques policy and practice as they pertain to behaviour management and school discipline in the UK and the USA and offers alternative perspectives based on collaborative and relational approaches to promoting positive behaviour and building community Each chapter features reflection points to provoke discussion as well as offering additional suggested reading culminating in a discussion of the role of school leaders in leading for social justice Ultimately this book will be of benefit to scholars researchers and students working in the fields of behaviour management inclusion and special needs education and education policy and politics more broadly It will also offer substantial appeal to education professionals school leaders and those with a locus on the mental health and wellbeing of children and young people
