Dreaming, Religion and Society in Africa M.C. Jedrej, Rosalind Shaw, 2023-11-20 The contributors to this investigation of dreaming in a diversity of African cultures and settings have each approached the matter with a respect for an indigenous discourse which does not necessarily subscribe to Western evaluations of the objective and subjective The matter of dreaming is not so much a psychological constant as ultimately sociological and historical Dream discourse as a strategy deploys contingencies in the elaboration of social relationships and the defence restoration and promotion of identities Dreaming is therefore prominent in such critical settings as sickness and healing artistic inspiration and craftwork election to religious office conversion to Islam or Christianity Tradition and Fantasy in the Tales of Reb Nahman of Bratslav Ora Wiskind-Elper, 2012-02-01 One of the most radically innovative of Hasidic masters Reb Nahman of Bratslav transformed images and concepts basic to Jewish thought into new and compelling forms Tradition and Fantasy in the Tales of Reb Nahman of Bratslav uses comparative literary criticism a range of Hasidic commentary and original exegesis of the source

Newsom, 2025-04-01 Of all the human behaviors anthropologists consider perhaps the most conceptually challenging are those that cannot be directly observed This volume draws from rich ethnographic data to offer theoretical and methodological tools for mapping the intersections between two such behaviors dreaming and imagination Although Western perspectives tend to cast these as personal experiences contained within individual minds each contributor explores diverse cultural and historical contexts to demonstrate how these behaviours are always in some sense cultural and influenced by social others The cross cultural approach suggests theoretical flexibility and expands the study of imagination across multiple disciplines
