and Walt's nephew Roy E. Disney threatened to destroy the company leading Wall Street Gordon Gekko types to come after Mickey Mouse. At the same time the aging Animation Department once the core of Walt's business was one memo away from shutting down forever. Rather thanks to the radical efforts of Walt's veterans to recruit and nurture young talent it was revived by this sudden influx of artists who would go on to revolutionize the film industry. Additionally this new generation would prove over time that animation was so much more than just kids stuff it was a multibillion dollar industry. This is the upstairs downstairs story of the executives and animators who clashed and collaborated to keep America's most storied company alive during the most uncertain period in its one hundred year history. Billboard, 1996-02-24 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform.
