Christian Theology Christopher W. Morgan, Robert A. Peterson, 2020-05-01 In Christian Theology author Christopher W. Morgan presents an accessible introduction to the core areas of systematic theology including God, revelation, humanity, sin, Christ, and his work, the church, and the future. Each chapter highlights Scripture's teaching on a topic as it unfolds in the Bible's story line, intentionally connecting readers to the doctrines with a focus on personal application and missional living.

Biblical Eschatology, Second Edition Jonathan Menn, 2018-03-07 Biblical Eschatology provides what is not found in any other single volume on eschatology; it analyzes all the major eschatological passages, including the Olivet Discourse and the book of Revelation, issues including the second coming of Christ, the millennium, the rapture, and Antichrist, and positions including all the major views of the millennium in a clear but not superficial way. The book concludes with a chapter showing how eschatology is relevant for our lives. Biblical Eschatology makes understanding eschatology easier by including chapters on how to interpret prophecy and apocalyptic literature by showing the history of eschatological thought and by placing eschatology in the context of the Bible's overall story line and structure. Clarity and understanding are enhanced by the use of comparative tables and appendices. Subject and Scripture indexes are included. The book interacts with the best of Evangelical and Reformed scholarship and the extensive bibliography, which includes the web addresses of many online resources, provides an excellent source for the reader's further study. This is a perfect resource for intelligent Christians, including pastors, students, and teachers who desire to understand eschatology and to see how it fits together with the rest of the Bible.

Theological Education and Christian Scholarship for Human Flourishing Celucien L. Joseph, 2022-09-14 This book explores the interconnection of theological education and Christian scholarship, cultural and theological hermeneutics, pedagogy, and community knowledge, democracy, and citizenship. Yet the three major disciplines or discourses covered in this work include multicultural education, theology, and hermeneutics through the lens of human flourishing and the concept of the good life. From this angle, this project is written from three different methods and approaches that intersect with each other: a theology of contextualization, a hermeneutics of interculturality, and a pedagogy of cultural literacy and transformative community knowledge. The book advances the idea that theological education should be the starting point to foster candid conversations about the importance of democracy and human rights, civic engagement, and the political life, inclusion, and diversity, and pluralism and difference in our multicultural society. The book uses the tools of multicultural education and cultural knowledge to enhance democracy and promote fundamental human virtues that would sustain the good life and human flourishing in the world in the Aristotelian sense and in the Socratic idea of local and world citizenship. Finally, this text offers an alternative vision to contemporary theological education to deconstruct the white male and Eurocentric narratives of theological education and Christian scholarship.

Christian Realism and the Revival of Public Theology Charles McDaniel, 2025-09-26 Christian Realism and the Revival of Public Theology analyzes Reinhold

Niebuhr's The Children of Light and the Children of Darkness 80 years after publication and argues that it provides pertinent lessons for the contemporary era. This book considers how Niebuhr's book as well as his other work remains relevant and retains insights for an America which seems increasingly to be losing its moral bearings and political courage. The author examines the roots of political polarization in Niebuhr's categories of the children of light and the children of darkness, finding it a more useful binary than liberalism vs conservatism for understanding America's culture wars and the growing sense that its political institutions are in terminal decay. This book seeks to show how public theology offers resources to foster democratic and moral renewal. It concludes by calling for a reinvigorated civil religion to promote unity rather than division. This book will appeal to scholars of American politics, Christian ethics, Christian Realism, public theology, and American religious history, as well as historians of American Christianity.

Library Collection Development for Professional Programs: Trends and Best Practices Holder, Sara, 2012-07-31. Collection development, the process used by librarians to choose items for a particular library or section of a library, can be time consuming and difficult due to the many factors that must be taken into consideration. Library Collection Development for Professional Programs: Trends and Best Practices addresses the challenging task of collection development in modern academic libraries, which is largely learned on the job. This publication contains practical advice and innovative strategies essential for current collection development librarians and future librarians seeking guidance in this complex position.

Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener, Stephen T. Pardue, 2019-07-31. Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective, robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia. The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church. Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions, this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora. Many excellent books surveying theology exist, but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia.

The Visual Theology of the Huguenots Randal Carter Working, 2016-02-18. The role of architecture within the French Reformed tradition has been of recent scholarly interest, seen in the work of Helene Guicharnaud, Catharine Randall, Andrew Spicer, and others. Few, however, have explored in depth the relationship between Reformed theology and architectural forms. This thesis explores the roots of Reformed aesthetics set against the background of late medieval church architecture. The work of Serlio is demonstrably important in the spreading of the ideas of Vitruvius, indicating the influence of classical Roman building on French Reformed architecture. There follows an examination of five important Huguenot architects: Philibert de l'Orme, Bernard Palissy, Jacques Androuet du Cerceau, Salomon de Brosse, and Jacques Perret. We then undergo a comparative examination of three churches: St Pierre in Geneva, a medieval church overhauled by the Reformers; St Gervais; St Protais; a

Parisian Catholic church whose facade was completed by the French Reformed architect Salomon de Brosse and the temple at Charenton a structure also designed and built by de Brosse These three buildings reveal the contribution of Huguenot architecture a distinct language that gave expression to Reformed theological ideas and helped bring about the renewal of classicism in France

ESSAYS IN EARLY CHRISTIANITY Jonathan Ramachandran,2025-07-13 Is there hope beyond the elect What did the earliest Christians believe about prophecy judgment and salvation In ESSAYS IN EARLY CHRISTIANITY Jonathan Ramachandran explores ancient theological possibilities grounded in Scripture and the writings of the earliest Church Fathers With careful adherence to the historical grammatical method and a commitment to literal biblical interpretation Ramachandran revisits the long forgotten Chiliasm model a belief in the literal thousand year reign of Christ on earth as taught by voices like Justin Martyr Irenaeus and Papias This volume offers bold insights into the prospect of Non Elect Salvation the idea that some may be saved outside the elect Bride of Christ not through presumption but through divine mercy and postmortem judgment Through in depth analysis of Scripture and early Christian testimony Ramachandran raises provocative questions Are there two distinct resurrections separated by 1 000 years Do Revelation and 1 Corinthians 15 describe gradations of resurrection glory Could the surprised sheep of Matthew 25 represent non elect salvation Designed for pastors seminary students and thoughtful churchgoers this accessible yet rigorous work is not speculative theology but evidence driven inquiry Readers are invited to examine early Christian prophecy with open Bibles and discerning minds testing all things and holding fast to what is good 1 Thessalonians 5:21

The Law of Freedom Daniel L. Rentfro Jr.,2019-10-29 The Law of Freedom Justice and Mercy in the Practice of Law examines the legal and theological roots of the concept of equity and the implications that the diminishment of equity as a legal concept has for the moral dilemmas faced by the practicing lawyer Meditating on the book of Micah the book argues that the Christian duty asks for both strict justice and gracious mercy with the prophet's third value humility essential for both the individual lawyer and the legal system as a whole to balance strict justice and mercy

Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd,2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue

Christian Barriers to Jesus (Revised Edition) J. Paul Pennington,2022-02-15 A Call to Follow Jesus When He Challenges Our Traditions There are many challenges to adequately representing Jesus to the majority world and often Western Christian traditions create unnecessary hindrances to people accepting His truth This book grew out of many interviews with Indian Jesus followers both Christians and Yesu bhaktas who identified painful stumbling blocks to receiving and sharing the gospel While Hindus often have a high view of Jesus they struggle with the conventions practices and labels around church Christian Barriers to Jesus uniquely challenges readers to examine nine barrier producing Christian traditions exploring The assumptions Christians may hold about the value origin or necessity of their customs The concerns Hindus commonly raise about traditions that confuse offend or alienate them Teachings from Jesus in Scripture that often question the same ideas or practices Pennington suggests that by not asking deep enough questions about what is essential for following Jesus and what is a non essential human invention the church is unnecessarily alienating millions of people from Him As a body it is time to honestly address these concerns developing new patterns of discipleship that reveal Jesus s heart for breaking down barriers instead of creating them The analysis presented in this book will empower readers to critically examine their personally cherished traditions and the purity of the gospel they present with insights that are relevant in all contexts

God With Us and Without Us, Volume Two Imad N. Shehadeh,2019-10-31 While volume 1 stressed the inevitability of Oneness in Trinity this second volume of God With Us and Without Us demonstrates the beauty and life transforming power of Oneness in Trinity The nature of the eternal relationship between the Father Son and Holy Spirit stands in contrast with the nature of God in Absolute Oneness Dr Imad N Shehadeh elucidates through careful argumentation and detailed critical thinking why Oneness in Trinity is to be prized and what God would look like if He were not triune By addressing the beauty and power of Oneness in Trinity this book deepens our understanding of the Trinity as the solid foundation of all other doctrines Dr Shehadeh explains the eternal activity of God outside creation i.e. without us as the stimulus of His activity within creation i.e. with us Dr Shehadeh also addresses the theological debate concerning the eternal generation of the Son and the eternal procession of the Holy Spirit Most importantly however this book convinces us of and magnifies for us the life transforming power of the triune God Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge Preaching the Manifold Grace of God, Volume 1 Ronald J. Allen, 2022-06-08 Preaching the Manifold Grace of God is a two volume work describing theologies of preaching from the historical and contemporary periods Volume 1 focuses on historical theological families Orthodox Roman Catholic Lutheran Reformed Anabaptist Anglican Episcopal Wesleyan Baptist African American Stone Campbell Friends and Pentecostal Volume 2 focuses on families that are evangelical liberal neo orthodox postliberal existential radical orthodox deconstructionist Black liberation womanist Latinx liberation Mujerista Asian American Asian American feminist LGBTQAI Indigenous postcolonial and process In each case the author describes the circumstances in which the theological family emerged and describes the purposes and characteristics of preaching from that perspective

Theological perspectives on re-imagining leadership in post-COVID-19 Africa Philip La G. du Toit, Alfred R. Brunson, 2023-11-30 Post coronavirus disease 2019 COVID 19 realities are challenging leaders in all spheres of society in many ways From the onset of the pandemic leaders on every level were challenged to provide appropriate guidance in the face of new and adverse realities From the micro level of local congregations to the macro level of national governments leaders were required to provide the type of leadership that would not only address immediate obstacles but simultaneously be visionary in the face of uncertainties that became the hallmark of post COVID 19 society In this book the authors reflect on leadership in a post COVID 19 society from bibliological practical theological missiological and ethical perspectives Although the authors have the global village in mind the focus leans towards the African context The book aims to contribute meaningfully to a much needed and re imagined vision of leaders which fits post COVID 19 societies
