Iran Auto Darius Mehri, 2017-10-26 Since the revolution of 1979 scholars have portrayed the Islamic State's industrial development capacity in a negative light Global isolation incoherent economic planning and predatory Islamic institutions are often cited as the reasons for lackluster development In Iran Auto Building a Global Industry in an Islamic State Darius Mehri shows how this characterization is misguided Today Iran has one of the world's largest automobile industries with national technical capacity Previous studies ignore the consequences of three decades of Iran's capacity for successful industrialization and changes in global technology transfer that allow countries even ones isolated from formal global institutions to build an automobile industry Mehri shows how industrial nationalists in Iran constructed a network of politically effective relationships to open up space for successful local industrial development and then tapped into a set of important global linkages to create an industry with high local manufacturing content This book will open up a new line of inquiry into how countries in the global south can develop a successful national automobile industry without the need to conform to global economic institutions

Designing Motion Markus Caspers, 2016-09-26 The chaise longue by Le Corbusier the radio by Rams the chair by Eames designers make things into cult objects and become icons themselves But who knows which coup was designed by Frua which limousine by Engel which station wagon by Opron For a long time car design was considered to be anonymous the designers stood in the shadow of the perception of the design even though their designs can be found on the roads in millions This richly illustrated book captures the origin of a profession and maps the development of car design based on a comprehensive introduction and the career biographies of over 200 selected designers who contributed to the design of cars and many different associated products in the USA Europe and Japan between 1900 and 2000
