Co-Teaching - Everyday Life or Terra Incognita of Contemporary Education? Beata Pitula, Mirosław Kowalski, 2022-11-14
Following Dawid Juraszek's statement that education is in a way a conversation face to face in the ether in black and white the contributors representing various scientific disciplines and various scientific centers in Poland and the Czech Republic have started a discussion on co-teaching as a proposal for the school university work in the next decade of the 21st century hoping that the thoughts contained herein will prove helpful to all critically thinking and continuously improving teachers academic staff and candidates for the profession The publication consists of four interrelated parts 1 teacher creator and implementer 2 co-teaching in the educational practice of schools consists of reflections on the possibilities and real use of co-teaching in teachers everyday work 3 examples of co-teaching in academic education and 4 reflection on co-teaching They all add up to a holistic picture of co-teaching as it is implemented in current educational practice and can provide a basis for further research and discussion on this teaching strategy A New Holistic-Evolutive Approach to Pediatric Palliative Care Carlo V. Bellieni, 2022-05-26 This book illustrates why a holistic approach is important in Pediatric Palliative Care PPC Readers will learn this approach has a horizontal axis featuring the patients mental and physical needs as well as their environments It has also a vertical axis the evolutive changes of the patients throughout their development and their illness their aspirations and fears An evolutive or dynamic approach is mandatory Each child parent has a different experience of illness and a different path to recovery that is influenced by their age gender culture but also by the state of their grief To take care of them we need to know the state of the subjects we are dealing with throughout their evolution in age children and in sorrow both children and parents Jung's and Piaget schemes will be of support This book also helps caregivers to know what ethics is It teaches a new insight on the word ethics not a series of principles or norms but an approach based on humanistic virtues Two criteria will be proposed to this aim an ethics based on the refusal of inauthentic behaviors or those behaviors that are copies of animals or machines and a new criterion that even children have some ethical duties not based on rules but on naturally acceptance that their sight is modulated by the presence of their parents and friends This ethical approach is explained to caregivers in a practical mode ready for clinical exigencies This book is also unique because it demonstrates that PPC also involves the true care of caregivers It will explain how to approach measure and overcome caregivers burn out Special attention is devoted to the approach to babies and children's pharmacological and non pharmacological analgesia and sedation Pain assessment methods will be illustrated as well as the development of a PPC web on the territory This text includes perinatal and neonatal PPC The book will be of valuable support to all those intensivists pediatricians nurses psychologists physiotherapists and healthcare professionals working in PPC units Evidence-Based Practice of Palliative Medicine - E-Book Nathan E.
