The Poetics of International Politics Milan Babík, 2018-10-26 A cutting edge contribution to the aesthetic turn in international relations scholarship this book exposes the role of poetic techniques in constituting the reality of international politics It has two symmetrical goals to illuminate the nonempirical fictions of factual international relations literature and to highlight the real factual inspirations and implications of contemporary international relations fiction Employing narrative theory developed by Hayden White the author examines factual and fictional accounts of world affairs ranging from the anarchy narrative central to mainstream international relations research to novels by Don DeLillo and Milan Kundera Chapters analyzing factual literature flesh out its unacknowledged inventions while those dedicated to fiction explain its political roots and agenda Throughout the distinction between factual and fictional representations of international relations breaks down Social scientific narratives emerge as exercises in rhetoric the art and politics of persuasion through language Artistic narratives surface as real pedagogical lessons and exercises in political activism The volume challenges the autonomy of academic international relations as an exclusive purveyor of serious knowledge about world affairs and calls for active engagement with literary art It will be of interest to scholars of International Relations Political Theory Historiography Cultural Theory and Literary Studies and Criticism

Time and Tide David Pendery, 2024-10-16 The work introduces the topic of historical writing in fictional and non fictional contexts methodologies and approaches The author analyses historiography and historical novels and shows how a confabulation is evident in these works and how these are transacting modes in a single paradigm The book uses the theoretical construct of the Aesthetics Ethic It looks at varied aesthetic contours in lived experience a given social ethic histories of sensibilities and what is termed a narrative ethic and goes on to look at Narrative consciousness and historical experience Living links with analysis comprising narrative consciousness psychological concepts including subjectivity and objectivity and the importance of thought The book also introduces a new theoretical model of historical truth apprehension The examination of fictionalized history and historicized fiction examines aesthetic contours including point of view and the concept of becoming in fiction and history heteroglossia and intertextuality the conceptions of contingency metaphor modality and chaos and temporality and rhetoric It conclude with thoughts and summaries to bring the whole work into focus

Europe in the Russian Mirror Alexander Gershenkron, 1970-03-27 First published in 1970 Professor Gershenkron s theme is the contribution which the study of Russian economic history can make to the problems which have preoccupied Western historians He first considers the way in which the case of the old Believers in Russia who refused to support the official church but played an important entrepreneurial role in nineteenth century economic development bears upon Max Weber s celebrated thesis on the relations between the Protestant ethic and the spirit of capitalism In the course of his discussion Professor Gerschenkron provides important information on the doctrinal beliefs of this group their social status and the extent to which they were persecuted and discriminated against by the State His conclusion is that the persecution certainly afforded sufficient impulse to engage in profitable activities and to develop the traits Weber considered as specific features of the capitalist spirit Auf der Suche nach der verlorenen Wahrheit Rainer Maria Kiesow, Dieter Simon, 2000

Iran Revisited Ali Pirzadeh, 2016-04-20 This book examines Modern Iran through an interdisciplinary analysis of its cultural norms history and institutional environment The goal is to underline strengths and weaknesses of Iranian society as a whole and to illustrate less prescriptive explanations for the way Iran is seen through a lens of persistent collective conduct rather than erratic historical occurrences Throughout its history Iran has been subject to many studies all of which have diagnosed the country's problem and prescribed solutions based on certain theoretical grounds This book intends to look inward seeking cultural explanations for Iran's perpetual inability to improve its society The theme in this book is based on the eloquent words of Nasir Khusrau a great Iranian poet az mast ki bar mast The words are from a poem describing a self adoring eagle that sees its life abruptly ended by an arrow winged with its own feathers the bird is doomed by its own vanity The closest interpretation of this idiom in Western Christian culture is you reap what you sow which conveys a similar message that underlines one's responsibility in the sense that sooner or later we must face the choices we make This would enable us to confront and live up to what Iran's history and culture have taught us
