Designing The Questionnaire Unicef Mics:

Designing and Conducting Health Surveys Lu Ann Aday, Llewellyn J. Cornelius, 2011-01-20 Designing and Conducting Health Surveys is written for students teachers researchers and anyone who conducts health surveys This third edition of the standard reference in the field draws heavily on the most recent methodological research on survey design and the rich storehouse of insights and implications provided by cognitive research on question and questionnaire design in particular This important resource presents a total survey error framework that is a useful compass for charting the dangerous waters between systematic and random errors that inevitably accompany the survey design enterprise In addition three new studies based on national international and state and local surveys the UNICEF Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys California Health Interview Survey and National Dental Malpractice Survey are detailed that illustrate the range of design alternatives available at each stage of developing a survey and provide a sound basis for choosing among them Micronutrient survey manual, 2020-08-31 The Micronutrient Survey Manual 2020 content and website are an update of the 2007 publication Indicators and methods for cross sectional surveys of vitamin and mineral status of populations¹ and its associated online Survey toolkit This manual contains modules covering all aspects of a cross sectional micronutrient survey from planning through implementation to analysing reporting disseminating and using the data The main audience for the manual is programme managers responsible for the design and implementation of a micronutrient survey Others involved in specific aspects of survey planning and implementation should also find certain procedures and tools useful Indicators for assessing infant and young child feeding practices, 2021-04-12 This document presents a set of new and updated indicators to assess infant and young child feeding IYCF practices at household level It is a follow up to the 2008 document Indicators for assessing infant and young child feeding practices Part I II In total there are 17 recommended IYCF indicators in the 2021 edition Seven are new and four of the 2008 indicators have been excluded from the 2021 list of IYCF indicators In addition three indicators of unhealthy food and beverage consumption are included Unlike in 2008 no distinction is made between core and optional indicators in this set of recommendations It is important to assess data using the full set of indicators for any given population and to report all findings This guidance document provides tools for the collection and calculation of the indicators It is intended for use by managers of large scale population based surveys that will collect information on the status of feeding practices among infants and young children less than 2 years of age Indicators can be assessed through large scale population based surveys including the Demographic and Health Survey DHS and the Multiple Indicator Cluster Survey MICS UN Millennium Development Library: Health Dignity and Development UN Millennium Project, 2012-04-27 The Millennium Development Goals adopted at the UN Millennium Summit in 2000 are the world's targets for dramatically reducing extreme poverty in its many dimensions by 2015 income poverty hunger disease exclusion lack of infrastructure and shelter while promoting gender equality education health and environmental sustainability These bold goals can be met in all parts of the world if nations follow through on their commitments to work together to meet them Achieving the Millennium Development Goals offers the prospect of a more secure just and prosperous world for all The UN Millennium Project was commissioned by United Nations Secretary General Kofi Annan to develop a practical plan of action to meet the Millennium Development Goals As an independent advisory body directed by Professor Jeffrey D Sachs the UN Millennium Project submitted its recommendations to the UN Secretary General in January 2005 The core of the UN Millennium Project's work has been carried out by 10 thematic Task Forces comprising more than 250 experts from around the world including scientists development practitioners parliamentarians policymakers and representatives from civil society UN agencies the World Bank the IMF and the private sector In this report the UN Millennium Project Task Force on Water and Sanitation outlines the bold yet practical actions that are needed to increase access to water and sanitation The report underscores the need to focus on the global sanitation crisis which contributes to the death of 3900 children each day improve domestic water supply and invest in integrated development and management of water resources all of which are necessary for countries to reduce poverty and hunger improve health advance gender equality and ensure environmental sustainability Implementing the recommendations of this report will allow all countries to halve the proportion of people without access to safe water and sanitation by 2015 Health, Dignity and Development R. Measurement of Disability Barbara M. Altman, 2016-06-14 This volume provides an informed review of the accomplishments of the Washington Group on Disability Statistics WG in the provision of international data and statistics on disability It does so within the context of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities The volume includes a description of the development and testing of a short set of questions for Censuses now used in approximately 29 countries and recommended in the U N s Principles and Recommendations for Population and Housing Censuses The 2020 Round which includes disability as a core topic to be collected in censuses It discusses the experiences of several countries on the use of the WG questions and how this has impacted on national agendas in the area of disability It follows the development and testing of an extended set of questions for use in national surveys other than censuses and examines the challenges of translation and the importance of generating comparable question sets in different languages and within different cultures It studies the examination of cognitive testing techniques in a variety of countries and presents the results of the first round of censuses in 2010 in countries using the six question set The volume includes discussions of the new development of question modules on a broad range of child disability and functioning and the environmental contexts of participation that are part of the current work of the WG In addition it contains a reflection on the use of the WG s functionality approach to identifying disabilities by humanitarian agencies to identify disabilities in populations of displaced persons A thoughtful conclusion addresses what the development of cross nationally comparable data can mean for the improvement of circumstances for all persons with disabilities

Child Labour Anaclaudia Gastal Fassa, David L. Parker, Thomas J. Scanlon, 2010-07 Child labour constitutes a major public health concern with estimates that world wide 110 million children aged 5 14 years are engaged in labour that can be described as hazardous or intolerable This book examines both the rights oriented and public health perspectives on child labour A rights approach ensures that exploitative and abusive work is considered not just in terms of a labour market or health rights approach but also in terms of human dignity and the solutions that preserve the rights of children and communities The public health approach is steeped in the relationship between individuals and their community seeking to identify how the presence or absence of government programmes and policies affects those involved The economics perspective is also presented early in the book to aid understanding of the causes and consequences of child labour before the alternate public health and sociological views are presented The editors examine factors such as poverty malnutrition social disadvantage gender globalisation and education and look at both physical and psychological threats This book will be of use to academics and students involved in health health policy social sciences and development disciplines Those actively involved public health initiatives such as policy makers and non governmental organisations will also find this an invaluable resource
