Agent, Person, Subject, Self Paul Kockelman, 2013-01-17 This book offers both a naturalistic and critical theory of signs minds and meaning in the world It provides a reconstructive rather than deconstructive theory of the individual one which both analytically separates and theoretically synthesizes a range of faculties that are often confused and conflated agency understood as a causal capacity subjectivity understood as a representational capacity selfhood understood as a reflexive capacity and personhood understood as a sociopolitical capacity attendant on being an agent subject or self It argues that these facilities are best understood from a semiotic stance that supersedes the usual intentional stance And in so doing it offers a pragmatism grounded approach to meaning and mediation that is general enough to account for processes that are as embodied and embedded as they are articulated and enminded In particular while this theory is focused on human specific modes of meaning it also offers a general theory of meaning such that the agents subjects and selves in question need not always or even usually map onto persons And while this theory foregrounds agents persons subjects and selves it does this by theorizing processes that often remain in the background of such often erroneously individuated figures ontologies akin to culture but generalized across agentive collectivities interaction not only between people but also between people and things and anything outside or in between and infrastructure akin to context but generalized to include mediation at any degree of remove The Bookseller ,1883 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Mangaddicts: French Teenagers and Manga Reading Christine Détrez,Olivier Vanhée,2023-05-25 Just pronounce the word manga and conflicted representations of media reception emerge either passive teenagers immersed in Japanese fictional worlds or hyperactive fans To understand what drives a variety of teenagers to read manga we conducted empirical research among French readers enrolled in secondary schools Manga is part of a whole constellation of interests including music and digital technology It is also the object of analytical ethical or concrete appropriations Reading then becomes a way to deal with past experiences and to connect with others to learn how to express emotions and to assert or contest age and gender norms Self Culture ,1899 Ophioglossaceae to Polygonaceae; ferns to buckwheat Nathaniel Lord Britton,Addison Brown,1970-01-01 A fully illustrated reference surveying the characteristics botanical classifications geographic distribution and common names of all varieties of ferns and seed bearing plants The Library of George Gordon King ,1885 Book catalog of the Library and Information Services Division Environmental Science Information Center.
