

Since the earthquake here in this day I wonder how many lives I could have saved if I had gone through Lianwei's gate of benevolence and wisdom.

Li-Ming

Every so often I hear of a promising new student accepted into Calligraphy School. Someone like Li-Ming, a young woman from Xianan, is perhaps the most recent of these individuals. She is said to possess an almost incredible aptitude for greater knowledge and an incredible ability to forget. I only hope that, as the years wear on, she also learns to use her own power with wisdom and wisdom.

Lacien

Lacien is the ill-forgotten son of Mephista. Unlike his name, Lacien, he served his father without question (at least, he appeared to do so). At the behest of the Prince Felix, Lacien came to the world of Xianan and fought the Triumvir, a seemingly benevolent ruler that, in reality, seemed to turn the hearts of mortals to darkness. Mephista was then back on the side of the noble spiritual leaders calling for the Prince.

It should be noted that Lacien assumed a mortal guise for this task. Indeed, the Books of Elixir describe him as a charismatic and wise man with a taste for nothing a thousandth as the legendary Ch'iu, long when the legendary Ulterior of Dharma and his followers attacked the Triumvir. Did Lacien reveal his true demonic form? No even the demonic creatures present could not withstand the might of the legendary arms.

Maghda

A group of dark women and two earth around Maghda and her sisters. I know she is practiced in the art of witchcraft, and I know also that she leads the Green, a cult that has control on the darkness of the Triumvir. There is nothing she would not do—no one she would not sacrifice—to oppose the hands of the Burning Hell. Beyond these something being the woman's past remains a mystery.
