Aesthetics, Gender, and Disability in Interactive Digital Art and Performance Art Phaedra Shanbaum,2024-11-29 This book explores the tensions between aesthetics gender and disability in contemporary digital media installations and performance art Notions of agency and subjectivity are connected to four contemporary political issues artificial intelligence migration and political violence contemporary medical technologies and practices and the Anthropocene and analyzed against a Western legacy of utopian and dystopian ideas and desires that have shaped and continue to shape what it means to be human The book s main argument is that agency and subjectivity are not universal attributes rather they are socio material entanglements and contextually bound enactments that are strategically negotiated by the subject Thus they involve conflict struggle and other forms of resistance The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history media and cultural studies disability studies and gender studies

Fred Forest's Utopia Michael F. Leruth,2017-09-08 France s most famous unknown artist the innovative media provocateur Fred Forest precursor of Eduardo Kac Jodi the Yes Men RT Mark and the Guerilla Girls The innovative French media artist and prankster provocateur Fred Forest first gained notoriety in 1972 when he inserted a small blank space in Le Monde called it 150 cm2 of Newspaper 150 cm2 de papier journal and invited readers to fill in the space with their own work and mail their efforts to him In 1977 he satirized speculation in both the art and real estate markets by offering the first parcel of officially registered artistic square meters of undeveloped rural land for sale at an art auction Although praised by leading media theorists Vil m Flusser lauded Forest as the artist who pokes holes in media Forest s work has been largely ignored by the canon making authorities Forest calls himself France s most famous unknown artist In this book Michael Leruth offers the first book length consideration of this iconoclastic artist examining Forest s work from the 1960s to the present Leruth shows that Forest chooses alternative platforms newspapers mock commercial ventures video based interactive social interventions media hacks and hybrids and more recently the Internet that are outside the exclusive precincts of the art world A fierce critic of the French contemporary art establishment Forest famously sued the Centre Pompidou in 1994 over its opaque acquisition practices After making foundational contributions to Sociological Art in the 1970s and the Aesthetics of Communication in the 1980s the pioneering Forest saw the Internet as another way for artists to bypass the art establishment in the 1990s Arguing that there is a strong utopian quality in Forest's work Leruth sees this utopianism not as naive or conventional but as a reverse utopianism rather than envisioning an impossible ideal Forest reenvisioned and probes the quasi utopia of our media augmented everyday reality The interface is the symbolic threshold to be crossed with an open mind
