European Union Sanctions and Foreign Policy Clara Portela, 2010 Winner of the THESEUS promising award for Research on European Integration 2011 Sanctions are an important tool within the foreign policy of the European Union which have until now remained obscure to both scholars and the general public This book examines sanctions as a political tool of influence and evaluates the efficacy of sanctions imposed by the EU against third countries and their ability to bring about the desired outcome While the principal sanctions activity of the EU takes place under the Common Foreign and Security Policy the author also considers the suspension of development aid under the ACP EU Partnership Agreement the withdrawal of trade privileges under the Generalized System of Preferences and other sanctions outside these frameworks Reviewing the sanctions practice of the EU in its virtual entirety Portela assesses the relevance of classical sanctions theory by testing a series of hypotheses with empirical case studies attempting to identify the determinants of success of EU sanctions Enhancing our understanding of the EU's international role this book will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics security studies EU studies human rights and democracy conflict management IPE and development studies

The Europeanization of National Foreign Policies Towards Latin America Lorena Ruano, 2013 Who shapes the European Union's policy towards Latin America How has this EU policy modified individual member states relations with the region This book provides a comparative account of seven member states bilateral links with Latin America since 1945 in the context of their EU membership and based on the concept of Europeanization It illustrates how and why the main architects of this EU policy have been Spain and Germany In contrast Poland Sweden and Ireland which had little previous interaction with Latin America have developed their current relations with that region virtually as a result of their EU membership The United Kingdom and France lie in the middle they have been influential in certain policy areas and key periods in history while they have adapted to what is done at the EU level in others Practitioners established academic experts as well emerging scholars in the field bring to bear a novel combination of pioneering research and cutting edge conceptual analysis on this important but neglected area of the EU's foreign relations

Orbie, 2015-02-17 The book investigates the substance of the European Union's EU democracy promotion policy It focuses on elections civil and political rights horizontal accountability effective power to govern stateness state administrative capacity civil society and socio economic context as components of embedded liberal democracy Aus Politik und Zeitgeschichte, 2016

Russia-EU Relations and the Common Neighborhood Irina Busygina, 2017-07-20 Examining Russia EU relations in terms of the forms and types of power tools they use this book argues that the deteriorating relations between Russia and the EU lie in the deep differences in their preferences for the international status quo These different approaches combined with economic interdependence and geographic proximity means both parties experience significant difficulties in shaping strategy and formulating agendas with regards to each other The Russian leadership is well aware of the EU's authority orientation but fails to reliably predict foreign policy at the EU level whilst the EU realizes Russia's coercive orientation in general but cannot predict when and where coercive tools will be used next Russia is gradually realizing the importance of authority while the EU sees the necessity of coercion tools for coping with certain challenges The learning process is ongoing but the basic distinction remains unchanged and so their approaches cannot be reconciled as long as both actors exist in their current form Using a theoretical framework and case studies including Belarus Georgia and Ukraine Busygina examines the possibilities and constraints that arise when the power of authority and the power of coercion interact with each other and how this interaction affects third parties The Elgar Companion to the Eurasian Economic Union Alexander Libman, Evgeny Vinokurov, 2024-03-14 This insightful Companion provides an in depth systematic analysis of the Eurasian Economic Union EAEU an economic union of several post Soviet Eurasian states Routledge Handbook of Russian Politics and Society Graeme Gill, 2022-12-23 This second edition of the highly respected Routledge Handbook of Russian Politics and Society both provides a broad overview of the area and highlights cutting edge research into the country Through balanced theoretical and empirical investigation each chapter examines both the Russian experience and the existing literature identifies and exemplifies research trends and highlights the richness of experience history and continued challenges inherent to this enduringly fascinating and shifting polity Politically economically and socially Russia has one of the most interesting development trajectories of any major country This Handbook answers questions about democratic transition the relationship between the market and democracy stability and authoritarian politics the development of civil society the role of crime and corruption the development of a market economy and Russia's likely place in the emerging new world order Providing a comprehensive resource for scholars students and policy makers alike this book is an essential contribution to the study of Russian studies politics Eastern European studies politics and International Relations The European Union in the Security of Europe Steve Marsh, Wyn Rees, 2012-03-12 This book examines the European Union's contribution to providing security in Europe amidst an increasingly complex and challenging environment In this new and comprehensive guide to the EU's role in security since the end of the Cold War the authors offer an explanation of EU internal and external security regimes and argue that the Union has become an important exporter of security within its region However the Union's rhetorical ambitions and commitments continue to outstrip its capabilities and it lacks both a common conceptualisation of security and a meaningful shared strategic culture Drawing extensively on primary sources the book examines the Union's relations with the US and Russia in a time of shifting geostrategic calculations and priorities With the EU capacity for enlargement slowing this text presents a detailed assessment of EU security policies towards Central Europe the Mediterranean the Western Balkans Eastern Europe and South Caucasus European Union Security will be of interest to students and scholars of the EU security

Primary questions include the compatibility and legitimacy of sanctions regimes, enforcement measures including the role of sanctions committees, the practice of circumventing sanctions, and the relation with the ICC proceedings. Legal and institutional aspects of the practice of the European Union are addressed. The extraterritorial effects of national legislation implementing sanctions imposed by individual States are investigated. A focus is on the impact of sanctions on non-State actors. The connections with the protection of human rights and the adverse impact on individual rights are considered. The implementation of sanctions is addressed in view of their legal limitation and the concept of proportionality, their consequences upon existing treaties and contracts, their effectiveness, and their strategic implications. EMANCYPACJA EUROPY Piotr Kobza, 2020-06-09 Księżka Piotra Kobzy to obszerna i wnikliwa ocena relacji Unii Europejskiej wczoraj i dziś. Northern Europe and the Making of the EU's Mediterranean and Middle East Policies Timo Behr, Teija Tiilikainen, 2016-05-23 What drives European foreign policy towards the wider Mediterranean and Middle East region This collection takes an innovative approach to answering this question by considering the impact of intra European divisions on European policies towards this crucial region European foreign policy has traditionally been defined by a clear division of labour southern European member states take the lead in the EU's southern neighbourhood while central and northern European countries drive policies in the EU's eastern neighbourhood The resulting north south split has entrenched geo clientalistic behaviour as a core principle of EU foreign policy making and has fuelled a static intra European competition over influence and resources However as European power dynamics shift these old divisions no longer hold and northern and central European countries have been pushed towards a more pro active role in the region But what factors are shaping the foreign policies of these countries in the Mediterranean and Middle East What has been their contribution to common EU policies And does their growing activism signal an end to old geo clientalistic division as a core driver of European foreign policy
