Writing Changes: Alphabetic Text and Multimodal Composition Pegeen Reichert Powell, 2020-04-01 Writing Changes moves beyond restrictive thinking about composition to examine writing as a material and social practice rich with contradictions. It analyzes the assumed dichotomy between writing and multimodal composition, which incorporates sounds, images, and gestures as well as the truism that all texts are multimodal. Organized in four sections, the essays explore alphabetic text and multimodal composition in writing studies, specific pedagogies that place writing in productive conversation with multimodal forms, current representations of writing and multimodality in textbooks, of instructors' attitudes toward social media, and of writing programs' ideas about writing studies as a discipline in the light of new communication practices. Bookending the essays are an introduction that frames the collection and establishes key terms and concepts, and an epilogue that both sums up and complicates the ideas in the essays.

Verkaufen, Flirten, Führen Klaus Schönbach, 2019-02-07 Wie und warum gelingt es uns, andere Menschen dazu zu bewegen, etwas für uns zu tun? Ein Produkt zu kaufen, uns zu helfen, sich verführen zu lassen. Eine Einführung in die persuasive Kommunikation von einem der auch international bekanntesten deutschen Kommunikationswissenschaftler auf der Erfahrung mit Seminaren, Vorlesungen und Kursen aus mehr als 30 Jahren aufgebaut und auf dem neuesten Stand der Wissenschaft Augenzwinkernd aber seriös. Praktisch aber mit großem theoretischen Hintergrund. Mit allen Quellenangaben zum Weiterlesen. Für die vierte Auflage wurde der Band aktualisiert und gründlich bearbeitet.

Al-'Arabiyya Mohammad T. Alhawary, 2017-11-01 Al Arabiyya is the annual journal of the American Association of Teachers of Arabic and serves scholars in the United States and abroad. Al Arabiyya includes scholarly articles and reviews that advance the study, research, and teaching of Arabic language, linguistics, literature, and pedagogy.

Charitable Writing Richard Hughes Gibson, James Edward Beitler, 2020-12-15 How might we love God and our neighbors through the task of writing? This book offers a vision for expressing one's faith through writing and for understanding writing itself as a spiritual practice that cultivates virtue. Drawing on authors and artists throughout the church's history, we learn how we might embrace writing as an act of discipleship for today.

Critical Thinking: The Basics Stuart Hanscomb, 2023-06-28 Critical Thinking: The Basics is an accessible and engaging introduction to the field of critical thinking, drawing on philosophy, communication, and psychology. Emphasising its relevance both to academic literacy and to decision making in a range of contexts, this book introduces and explains the knowledge, methods, and skills needed to identify and avoid poor reasoning, reconstruct and evaluate arguments, and engage constructively in dialogues. Topics covered include: The relationship between critical thinking, emotions, and the psychology of persuasion; The role of character dispositions such as open-mindedness, courage, and self-knowledge; Argument identification and reconstruction; Fallacies and argument evaluation. This second edition has been revised and updated throughout and includes an additional chapter on the relationship between critical thinking and emotions. There are also new sections on concepts such as the experiential mind and need for cognitive closure, and contemporary examples drawn from issues including conspiracy theories, the pandemic, and misuses of social media. With updated and expanded discussion, questions, exercises, and suggestions for further reading at the end of each main chapter, this book is an essential read for students approaching the field of critical thinking for the first time, and for the general reader wanting to improve their thinking skills and decision-making abilities.

Handbook of Research on Developments and Future Trends in Transnational Higher Education Morris, Gareth Richard, Li, Li, 2023-01-05 Higher education has embraced a period of increasingly rapid development due to the speed of technological advances, increased global competition, an ever more astute and savvy consumer base, and ethical planetary responsibilities. One such educational development is transnational education (TNE). The global pandemic has made TNE a timely topic because traditional international education, which relies on the mobility of staff and students, experienced unprecedented challenges with borders closed and travel banned. This has presented the international education community with a unique opportunity to reassess the effectiveness and efficiency of transnational activities from a social, ethical, and environmental perspective. The Handbook of Research on Developments and Future Trends in Transnational Higher Education offers a perspective of what the future of TNE may look like, what models of TNE there are, its impact, and what institutions may have to do to be successful moving forward Universities around the world are growing their TNE partnerships This reference book explores the benefits TNE can offer universities staff and students while increasing its global outlook and capabilities It further provides concrete suggestions to readers considering this Covering topics such as employability skill enhancement formative assessment and online higher education this major reference work is an excellent resource for faculty and administrators of higher education teacher educators entrepreneurs researchers librarians and academicians Challenges and Opportunities for Knowledge Organization in the Digital Age Fernanda Ribeiro, Maria Elisa Cerveira, 2018-07-11 Thema der 15 Internationalen Konferenz der International Society for Knowledge Organization vom 9 bis 11 Juli 2018 in Porto ist Challenges and Opportunities for Knowledge Organization in the Digital Age Der Konferenzband fasst die Vorträge von Wissenschaftlern aus aller Welt zusammen Teaching Information Literacy and Writing Studies Grace Veach, 2018-09-15 This volume edited by Grace Veach explores leading approaches to foregrounding information literacy in first year college writing courses Chapters describe cross disciplinary efforts underway across higher education as well as innovative approaches of both writing professors and librarians in the classroom This seminal work unpacks the disciplinary implications for information literacy and writing studies as they encounter one another in theory and practice during a time when fact or truth is less important than fitting a predetermined message Topics include reading and writing through the lens of information literacy curriculum design specific writing tasks transfer and assessment Teaching Arguments Jennifer Fletcher, 2023-10-10 No matter where students live after graduation one of the most essential tools we can teach them is how to comprehend analyze and respond to arguments Students need to know how writers and speakers choices are shaped by elements of the rhetorical situation including audience occasion and purpose In Teaching Arguments Rhetorical Comprehension Critique and Response Jennifer Fletcher provides teachers with engaging classroom activities writing prompts graphic organizers and student samples to help students at all levels read write listen speak and think rhetorically Fletcher believes that with appropriate scaffolding and encouragement all students can learn a rhetorical approach to argument and gain access to rigorous academic content Teaching Arguments opens the door and helps them pay closer attention to the acts of meaning around them to notice persuasive strategies that might not be apparent at first glance When we analyze and develop arguments we have to consider more than just the printed words on the page We have to evaluate multiple perspectives the tension between belief and doubt the interplay of reason character and emotion the dynamics of occasion audience and purpose and how our own identities shape what we read and write Rhetoric teaches us how to do these things Teaching Arguments will help students learn to move beyond a superficial response to texts so they can analyze and craft sophisticated persuasive arguments a major cornerstone for being not just college and career ready but ready for the challenges of the world Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning, Elizabeth W. Kraemer, 2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction

Voice First Sonya Huber, 2022-09 Though it is foundational to the craft of writing the concept of voice is a mystery to many authors and teachers of writing do not have a good working definition of it for use in the classroom Written to address the vague and problematic advice given to writers to find their voice Voice First A Writer's Manifesto recasts the term in the plural to give writers options movement and a way to understand the development of voice over time By redefining voice Sonya Huber offers writers an opportunity not only to engage their voices but to understand and experience how developing their range of voices strengthens their writing Weaving together in depth discussions of various concepts of voice and stories from the author's writing life Voice First offers a personal view of struggles with voice as influenced and shaped by gender place of origin privilege race ethnicity and other factors reframing and updating the conversation for the twenty first century Each chapter includes writing prompts and explores a different element of voice helping writers at all levels stretch their concept of voice and develop a repertoire of voices to summon
