Paul W. Kahn, 2013-11-12 Academic philosophy may have lost its audience but the traditional subjects of philosophy love death justice knowledge and faith remain as compelling as ever To reach a new generation Paul W Kahn argues philosophy must be brought to bear on contemporary discourse surrounding these primal concerns and he shows how this can be achieved through a turn to popular film In such well known movies as Forrest Gump 1994 The American President 1995 The Matrix 1999 Memento 2000 The History of Violence 2005 Gran Torino 2008 The Dark Knight 2008 The Road 2009 and Avatar 2009 Kahn explores powerful archetypes and their hold on us and he treats our present day anxieties over justice love and faith as signs these traditional imaginative structures have failed His inquiry proceeds in two parts First he uses film to explore the nature of action and interpretation and narrative not abstraction emerges as the critical concept for understanding both Second he explores the narratives of politics family and faith as they appear in popular films Engaging with genres as diverse as romantic comedies slasher films and pornography Kahn gains access to the social imaginary through which we create and maintain a meaningful world
