Ex Libris Confessions Of A Common Reader Anne Fadiman:

Ex Libris Anne Fadiman, 2011-04-01 Perfectly balanced between humor and erudition Ex Libris establishes Anne Fadiman as one of our finest contemporary essayists Anne Fadiman is by her own admission the sort of person who learned about sex from her father's copy of Fanny Hill whose husband buys her 19 pounds of dusty books for her birthday and who once found herself poring over her roommate's 1974 Toyota Corolla manual because it was the only written material in the apartment that she had not read at least twice This witty collection of essays recounts a lifelong love affair with books and language For Fadiman as for many passionate readers the books she loves have become chapters in her own life story Writing with remarkable grace she revives the tradition of the well crafted personal essay moving easily from anecdotes about Coleridge and Orwell to tales of her own pathologically literary family As someone who played at blocks with her father's 22 volume set of Trollope's My Ancestral Castles and who only really considered herself married when she and her husband had merged collections Marrying Libraries she is exquisitely well equipped to expand upon the art of inscriptions the perverse pleasures of compulsive proof reading the allure of long words and the satisfactions of reading out loud There is even a foray into pure literary gluttony Charles Lamb liked buttered muffin crumbs between the leaves and Fadiman knows of more than one reader who literally consumes page corners

A History of the Book in America David Paul Nord, Joan Shelley Rubin, Michael Schudson, 2015-12-01 The fifth volume of A History of the Book in America addresses the economic social and cultural shifts affecting print culture from World War II to the present During this period factors such as the expansion of government the growth of higher education the climate of the Cold War globalization and the development of multimedia and digital technologies influenced the patterns of consolidation and diversification established earlier The thirty three contributors to the volume explore the evolution of the publishing industry and the business of bookselling The histories of government publishing law and policy the periodical press literary criticism and reading in settings such as schools libraries book clubs self help programs and collectors societies receive imaginative scrutiny as well The Enduring Book demonstrates that the corporate consolidations of the last half century have left space for the independent publisher that multiplicity continues to define American print culture and that even in the digital age the book endures Contributors David Abrahamson Northwestern University James L Baughman University of Wisconsin Madison Kenneth Cmiel d 2006 James Danky University of Wisconsin Madison Robert DeMaria Jr Vassar College Donald A Downs University of Wisconsin Madison Robert W Frase d 2003 Paul C Gutjahr Indiana University David D Hall Harvard Divinity School John B Hench American Antiquarian Society Patrick Henry New York City College of Technology Dan Lacy d 2001 Marshall Leaffer Indiana University Bruce Lewenstein Cornell University Elizabeth Long Rice University Beth Luey Arizona State University Tom McCarthy Beirut Lebanon Laura J Miller Brandeis University Priscilla Coit Murphy Chapel Hill N C David Paul Nord Indiana University Carol Polsgrove Indiana University David Reinking Clemson University Jane Rhodes Macalester College John V

My Victorian Novel Annette R. Federico, 2020-05-08

The previously unpublished essays collected here are by literary scholars who have dedicated their lives to reading and studying nineteenth century British fiction and the Victorian world. Each writes about a novel that has acquired personal relevance to them, a work that has become entwined with their own story or that remains elusive or compelling for reasons hard to explain. These are essays in the original sense of the word: attempts at individual and experiential approaches to literary works that have subjective meanings beyond social facts. By reflecting on their own histories with novels taught, studied, researched, and re-experienced in different contexts over many years, the contributors reveal how an aesthetic object comes to inhabit our critical, pedagogical, and personal lives. By inviting scholars to share their experiences with a favorite novel without the pressure of an analytical agenda, the sociable essays in My Victorian Novel seek to restore some vitality to the act of literary criticism and encourage other scholars to talk about the importance of reading in their lives and the stories that have enchanted and transformed them. The novels in this collection include Jane Eyre by Charlotte Brontë, The Duke's Children by Anthony Trollope, The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes by Arthur Conan Doyle, The Newcomes by William Makepeace Thackeray, Middlemarch by George Eliot, Daniel Deronda by George Eliot, The Return of the Native by Thomas Hardy, Vanity Fair by William Makepeace Thackeray, North and South by Elizabeth Gaskell, Bleak House by Charles Dickens, David Copperfield by Charles Dickens, New Grub Street by George Gissing, The Pickwick Papers by Charles Dickens, Dracula by Bram Stoker, Wuthering Heights by Emily Brontë.

Shots in the Dark Jadwiga Biskupska, Sara B. Castro, 2025-09-02

Brings together geographies and methodologies often kept apart by the difficulties of researching such a broad-ranging topic as the war. Shots in the Dark offers cutting-edge scholarship across different subfields in World War II history, revealing new insights into how this crucial conflict was planned, experienced, and fought. Twelve chapters demonstrate the broad scope of wartime innovation and how the war functioned as a global turning point, driving change at all levels of human society, from government institutions to individual identities. Contributors collaborated in a vibrant workshops series sponsored by the North American branch of the Second World War Research Group (SWWRGNA), an organization that emerged to nurture scholarship on the global war and unite scholars fragmented in narrower regional and methodological stovepipes to consider the war as a whole. The SWWRGNA and this volume showcase the work of diverse historians across subfields: operational, cultural, gender, social intelligence, and diplomatic history. This approach exposes the Second World War as a catalyst for overlapping global changes that revolutionized the world after 1945. These scholars reveal continuities and parallels in wartime experiences that would remain invisible in narrowly focused projects The volume establishes three frameworks for understanding and interpreting changes the war provoked 1 institutional adaptation 2 totalization or the militarization of civilians and 3 cultural transformation Each of the three frameworks is explored from four vantage points Geographies are deliberately contrasted within each framework to examine the broad scope of that level of war driven change

Palimpsest: A History of the Written Word Matthew Battles, 2015-07-27 A profound eloquent meditation on the history of writing from Mesopotamia to multimedia Why does writing exist What does it mean to those who write Born from the interplay of natural and cultural history the seemingly magical act of writing has continually expanded our consciousness Portrayed in mythology as either a gift from heroes or a curse from the gods it has been used as both an instrument of power and a channel of the divine a means of social bonding and of individual self definition Now as the revolution once wrought by the printed word gives way to the digital age many fear that the art of writing and the nuanced thinking nurtured by writing are under threat But writing itself despite striving for permanence is always in the midst of growth and transfiguration Celebrating the impulse to record invent and make one s mark Matthew Battles reenchants the written word for all those susceptible to the power and beauty of writing in all of its forms
