Analysing Historical Narratives Stefan Berger, Nicola Brauch, Chris Lorenz, 2021-05-14 For all of the recent debates over the methods and theoretical underpinnings of the historical profession scholars and laypeople alike still frequently think of history in terms of storytelling Accordingly historians and theorists have devoted much attention to how historical narratives work illuminating the ways they can bind together events shape an argument and lend support to ideology From ancient Greece to modern day bestsellers the studies gathered here offer a wide ranging analysis of the textual strategies used by historians They show how in spite of the pursuit of truth and objectivity the ways in which historians tell their stories are inevitably conditioned by their discursive contexts

Power and Meaning Making in an EAP Classroom Christian W. Chun, 2015 This book examines how critical literacy pedagogy has been implemented in a classroom through a year long collaboration between the author a researcher and an EAP teacher It details the teacher's introduction to functional grammar and accompanying critical literacy approaches to EAP and her growing critical language and discourse awareness of power and meaning making in the classroom The book traces her evolving classroom practices and addresses how powerful discourses in social circulation found their way into the classroom via the curriculum materials the students encountered The main themes of the book are threefold narrowing the divide between critically oriented researchers and practitioners how critical literacy is actually implemented in a teacher s classroom and how people students and the teacher engage in and with the representations and discourses of the everyday world that include neoliberal globalization racial and cultural identities and consumerism It will be of interest to both researchers and practitioners for the ethnographic and pedagogical issues it raises as well as its accessible theoretical frameworks illustrated by relevant classroom interactional data mediated multimodal and critical discourse analysis
