The Extension of Coastal State Jurisdiction in Enclosed or Semi-Enclosed Seas Mitja Grbec, 2013-12-04. The current jurisdictional status of the Mediterranean Sea is remarkable. Nearly 50 per cent of the Mediterranean waters are high seas and therefore beyond the jurisdiction of coastal States. This situation means that there are no points in the Mediterranean Sea where the coasts of two States would be more than 400 nautical miles apart. Such a legal situation generally prevents coastal States from adopting and enforcing their laws on the Mediterranean high seas in respect of many important fields such as the protection and preservation of the marine environment as well as the conservation of marine living resources. The jurisdictional landscape of the Adriatic Sea as a sub-sea and sub-region of the Mediterranean is even more interesting. Croatia has proclaimed an Ecological and Fisheries Protection Zone, Slovenia has proclaimed a Zone of Ecological Protection while Italy has adopted a framework law for the proclamation of its Zone of Ecological Protection without proclaiming its regime in the Adriatic. It is noteworthy that if all Mediterranean and Adriatic States would proclaim an Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) there would not be a single stretch of high seas left in the entire

Mediterranean Sea Both the Adriatic and Mediterranean fall in the category of enclosed or semi enclosed seas regulated by Part IX of the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea UNCLOS This book assesses the legal nature of Part IX of UNCLOS and discusses potential benefits of the extension of coastal State jurisdiction proclamation of EEZs and or similar sui generis zones particularly in light of the recent calls towards an integrated and holistic approach to the management of different activities in the Mediterranean Sea It examines the actual or potential extension of coastal State jurisdiction in the Adriatic Sea against the background of similar extensions elsewhere in the Mediterranean and against the background of relevant EU policies It additionally explores whether Part IX of UNCLOS imposes any duties of cooperation in relation to the extension of coastal State jurisdiction in enclosed or semi enclosed seas and puts forward practical suggestions as to how the issue of extension of coastal State jurisdiction could be approached in a way which would enhance States existing cooperation and improve the overall governance in the Mediterranean and Adriatic seas This book will be of interest to policymakers and academics and students of international law and the law of the sea AI and Strategic Communication
