Neukundengewinnung und Kundenbindung stellen daher eine Herausforderung für jedes im Internet vertretene Unternehmen dar. Da im Internet Wachstumsraten erreicht werden wie in keinem anderen Vertriebskanal verwundert es nicht dass kundenpolitische Maßnahmen in der virtuellen Welt eine immer größere Rolle spielen. Diese Untersuchung setzt sich daher mit Instrumenten und Maßnahmen der Neukundengewinnung sowie Kundenbindung im Internethandel auseinander. Ziel ist die Beantwortung der Fragestellung ob die ausgewählten kundenpolitischen Aspekte mit dem deutschen Rechtsrahmen insbesondere des UWG zu vereinbaren sind und darüber hinaus eine nachhaltige Wirkung entfalten. Dabei wird der Rolle des Verbrauchers eine besondere Aufmerksamkeit geschenkt da dieser als Adressat der Marketingmaßnahmen eine dominierende Stellung für die Neukundengewinnung und Kundenbindung einnimmt.

Retailers entering Asia are faced with not only a consumer and retail culture very different from their own but with a variety of cultures that vary greatly among countries within the continent. International Retailing Plans and Strategies in Asia examines the strategies of Western retailers entering into Asian markets and provides specific case examples showing why some companies have failed in Asia as well as factors that helped others succeed. Important concepts for international retailers exploring Asian markets are clearly explained and the material is particularly relevant to current WTO and UNCTAD debates about the globalization of retail markets. Helpful tables, charts and illustrations make complex information easy to access and understand. International Retailing Plans and Strategies in Asia examines how foreign investment influences domestic retail systems, how strategies for entering European markets can be adapted and applied to various Asian markets, the important practice of incorporating local cultural values into trading relationships in Asian markets, the investment of Japanese retailers in China and the trend toward internationalization in Asia by Asian retailers, the evolution of foreign investment in Korea with a look at foreign firms' specific investment strategies, issues of local competition and the need for foreign firms to adapt to local consumer cultures particularly as analyzed in case studies of Metro Cash and

Carry Toys R Us and Carrefour what understanding foreign markets means in terms of adaptation and success for retailers and wholesalers The material in these pages will help to inform business decisions about how to and how not to enter foreign markets and whether or not it is proper for governments to intervene The chapters in this book originally presented as papers at a workshop held at Chung Ang University in Seoul in November 2003 address issues of diversity in international retailing and distribution in Asia International Retailing Plans and Strategies in Asia is designed to be essential reading for international marketing students retail researchers business managers and policymakers and to be a useful addition to university business school library collections
