Taking Time, Making Meaning Barbara Sands, 1993

How to Read Like an Anti-Fascist Annette Wannamaker, 2025-06-03 On the urgent need to promote critical reading skills amidst rising authoritarianism Children s author Philip Pullman famously said that There are some themes some subjects too large for adult fiction they can only be dealt with adequately in a children s book While the recent rise of fascist ideology in the United States might seem a subject too large and adult to be dealt with in literature for children or teens Annette Wannamaker proposes in How to Read Like an Anti Fascist that there are books aimed at future generations which critique and counter fascist propaganda and mythmaking Works of literature can reflect fascist ideology and promote it as well but Wannamaker proposes that some books also offer tools for understanding it Books written for beginners can introduce readers to complex concepts break big ideas into manageable parts and teach readers how to read the world outside of the book Antifascist books are ones that analyze fascistic rhetoric and storytelling educate about America s long history of authoritarianism and highlight various facets of fascism such as scapegoating others and reasserting patriarchal power From The Emperor s New Clothes and the tales of Superman to Mildred Taylor s Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry the 1619 Project and contemporary works such as All Boys Aren t Blue and Donald Builds the Wall Wannamaker shows how the ethos of authoritarianism is characterized by a strict hierarchy that places children at its very bottom In doing so she argues convincingly that books written for young people can provide a particular view from the bottom a perspective well suited to interrogating systems of power

Cooking Lessons Sherrie A. Inness, 2001-08-07 Meatloaf fried chicken Jell O cake because foods are so very common we rarely think about them much in depth The authors of Cooking Lessons however believe that food is deserving of our critical scrutiny and that such analysis yields many important lessons about American society and its values This book explores the relationship between food and gender Contributors draw from diverse sources both contemporary and historical and look at women from various cultural backgrounds including Hispanic traditional southern White and African American Each chapter focuses on a certain food teasing out its cultural meanings and showing its effect on women s identity and lives For example food has often offered women a traditional way to gain power and influence in their households and larger communities For women without access to other forms of creative expression preparing a superior cake or batch of fried chicken was a traditional way to display their talent in an acceptable venue On the other hand foods and the stereotypes attached to them have also been used to keep women and men too from different races ethnicities and social classes in their place

Prizing Children's Literature Kenneth Kidd,Joseph Thomas Jr.,2016-11-10 Children s book awards have mushroomed since the early twentieth century and especially since the 1960s when literary prizing became a favored strategy for both commercial promotion and canon making There are over 300 awards for English language titles alone but despite the profound impact of children s book awards scholars have paid relatively little attention to them This book is the first scholarly volume devoted to the analysis of Anglophone children s book awards in historical and cultural context With attention to both political and aesthetic concerns the book offers original and diverse scholarship on prizing practices and their consequences in Australia Canada and especially the United States Contributors offer both case studies of particular awards and analysis of broader trends in literary evaluation and elevation drawing on theoretical work on canonization and cultural capital Sections interrogate the complex and often unconscious ideological work of prizing the ongoing tension between formalist awards and so called identity based awards all the more urgent in light of the We Need Diverse Books campaign the ever morphing forms and parameters of prizing and scholarly practices of prizing Among the many awards discussed are the Pura Belpr Medal the Inky Awards the Canada Governor General Literary Award the Printz Award the Best Animated Feature Oscar the Phoenix Award and the John Newbery Medal giving due attention to prizes for fiction as well as for non fiction poetry and film This volume will interest scholars in literary and cultural studies social history book history sociology education library and information science and anyone concerned with children s literature Teaching the Integrated Language Arts Shane Templeton,1997 Dust Off the Gold Medal Sara L.
