Abramson: Linguistics and Adjacent Arts and Sciences. Part 2 Arthur S.

Abramson, 2019-05-20 No detailed description available for LING A ADJACENT ARTS A SC ABRAMSON SEBCTL 12 2 E BOOK Rethinking the Secular Origins of the Novel Kevin Seidel, 2021-03-25 Challenging concepts of religion and secularism this book shows the English novel rising with the English Bible not after it Reading Writing Interfaces Lori Emerson, 2014-06-01 Lori Emerson examines how interfaces from today s multitouch devices to yesterday s desktops from typewriters to Emily Dickinson s self bound fascicle volumes mediate between writer and text as well as between writer and reader Following the threads of experimental writing from the present into the past she shows how writers have long tested and transgressed technological boundaries Reading the means of production as well as the creative works they produce Emerson demonstrates that technologies are more than mere tools and that the interface is not a neutral border between writer and machine but is in fact a collaborative creative space Reading Writing Interfaces begins with digital literature s defiance of the alleged invisibility of ubiquitous computing and multitouch in the early twenty first century and then looks back at the ideology of the user friendly graphical user interface that emerged along with the Apple Macintosh computer of the 1980s She considers poetic experiments with and against the strictures of the typewriter in the 1960s and 1970s and takes a fresh look at Emily Dickinson s self printing projects as a challenge to the coherence of the book Through archival research Emerson offers examples of how literary engagements with screen based and print based technologies have transformed reading and writing She reveals the ways in which writers from Emily Dickinson to Jason Nelson and Judd Morrissey work with and against media interfaces to undermine the assumed transparency of conventional literary practice

Central and Eastern European Literary Theory and the West Michał Mrugalski, Schamma Schahadat, Irina

Wutsdorff,2022-12-05 Literary theory flourished in Central and Eastern Europe throughout the twentieth century but its relation to Western literary scholarship is complex This book sheds light on the entangled histories of exchange and influence both within the region known as Central and Eastern Europe and between the region and the West The exchange of ideas between scholars in the East and West was facilitated by both personal and institutional relations both official and informal encounters For the longest time however intellectual exchange was thwarted by political tensions that led to large parts of Central and Eastern Europe being isolated from the West A few literary theories nevertheless made it into Western scholarly discourses via exiled scholars Some of these scholars such as Mikhail Bakhtin become widely known in the West and their thought was transposed onto new Western cultural contexts others such as Olga Freidenberg were barely noticed outside of Russian and Poland This volume draws attention to the schools circles and concepts that shaped the development of theory in Central and Eastern Europe as well as the histoire croise the history of translations transformations and migrations that conditioned its relationship with the West

What Is Narratology? Tom Kindt,Hans-Harald Müller,2008-08-22 What Is Narratology sees itself as contributing to the intensive international discussion and controversy on the structure and function of narrative theory The 14 papers in the volume advance proposals for determining the object of narratology modelling its concepts and characterising its status within cultural studies

Engagements with Narrative Janine Utell,2015-10-08 Balancing key foundational topics with new developments and trends Engagements with Narrative offers an accessible introduction to narratology As new narrative forms and media emerge the study of narrative and the ways people communicate through imagination empathy and storytelling is especially relevant for students of literature today Janine Utell presents the foundational texts key concepts and big ideas that form narrative theory and practical criticism engaging readers in the study of stories by telling the story of a field and its development Distinct features designed to initiate dialogue and debate include Coverage of philosophical and historical contexts surrounding the study of narrative An introduction to essential thinkers along with the tools to both use and interrogate their work A survey of the most up to date currents including mind theory and postmodern ethics to stimulate conversations about how we read fiction life writing film and digital media from a variety of perspectives A selection of narrative texts chosen to demonstrate critical practice and spark further reading and research Engagement sections to encourage students to engage with narrative theory and practice through interviews with scholars This guide teaches the key concepts of narrative time space character perspective setting while facilitating conversations among different approaches and media and opening paths to new inquiry Engagements with Narrative is ideal for readers needing an introduction to the field as well as for those seeking insight into both its historical developments and new directions

A Revolution in Tropes Jane S. Sutton,Mari Lee Mifsud,2015-04-16 A Revolution in Tropes is a groundbreaking study of rhetoric and tropes Theorizing new ways of seeing rhetoric and its relationship with democratic deliberation Jane Sutton and Mari Lee Mifsud explore and display alloiosis as a trope of difference exception and radical otherness Their argument centers on Aristotle's theory of rhetoric through particular tropes of similarity that sustained a vision of civic discourse but at the same time underutilized tropes of difference When this vision is revolutionized democratic deliberation can perform and advance its ends of equality justice and freedom Marie Odile N Hobeika and Michele Kennerly join Sutton and Mifsud in pushing the limits of rhetoric by engaging rhetoric alloiostrophically Their collective efforts work to display the possibilities of what rhetoric can be A Revolution in Tropes will appeal to scholars of rhetoric philosophy and communication

Narrative Form Suzanne Keen, 2015-07-28 This revised and expanded handbook concisely introduces narrative form to advanced students of fiction and creative writing with refreshed references and new discussions of cognitive approaches to narrative nonfiction and narrative emotions

Imitations of Life Marcia Landy, 1991 On melodrama

Leo Tolstoy and the Alibi of Narrative Justin Weir, 2011-01-25 One hundred years after his death Tolstoy still inspires controversy with his notoriously complex narrative strategies This original book explores how and why Tolstoy has mystified interpreters and offers a new look at his most famous works of fiction

Narrative as Counter-Memory Reiko Tachibana, 1998-01-01 A pioneering study of German and Japanese postwar fiction providing a broad cultural basis for understanding a half century of responses to World War II from within the two societies

Excess Baggage Jonathan Pitcher, 2009 Excess Baggage investigates how we read modern theory how we apprehend Latin American culture through that theory why this approach is flawed and how our reading could be different It is a study of modernity's supersessive paradoxical attempts to outthink thought This methodology never autochthonous to any context despite its claims is traced through one of its more extreme moments the Enlightenment and then through the work of Freud Nietzsche and Marx and their more recent postmodern acolytes to the Reformation Although these thinkers are self-differentiating the divisions are artificial for each even in present formats references a preternatural origin that is subsequently projected into the future disavowing history's ability to perceive itself as anything other than revolutionary This book traces post 1960 Latin Americanism through readings by its critics cum theorists as dictatorially assigning a univocal reading to a continent's cultural production regardless of how ethical the theory may itself seem Though predominantly a metacritical work a reading of philosophy and its Latin Americanist manifestations there is also comparative reading of European North American and Latin American literature Meaning has always existed in all such contexts but is either eradicated or misread by the premises of our critical equipment In fact or fiction Excess Baggage appeals for an admission of contextualized mnemotechny inevitable in thought regardless and the real danger in the present milieu
